cinema and video viewing popular music film magazines local fashion systems and advertising He explores three interactive and mutually constitutive ethnographic terrains a burgeoning local consumer culture a growing mass mediated popular imagination and a recently emerging youth culture He shows how an array of local cultural narratives stories of honor value prestige and piety flow in and around global narratives of progress modernity and consumer fulfillment Urban Nepalis simultaneously adopt and critique these narrative strands braiding them into local middle class cultural life Building on both Marxian and Weberian understandings of class this study moves beyond them to describe the lived experience of middle classness how class is actually produced and reproduced in everyday practice It considers how people speak and act themselves into cultural existence carving out real and conceptual spaces in which to produce class culture China
