Yugoslavia's Bloody Collapse Causes Course And Consequences:

Yugoslavia's Bloody Collapse Christopher Bennett,1997 An incisive and revealing history of how Yugoslavia plunged into violence in the 1990s Over the past two years the entire world watched in horror as one of Europe's most stable countries plunged into an orgy of violence and bloodshed that has invoked comparisons to the Holocaust Aside from empty threats and diplomatic hand wringing the West has done little to stop the ethnic cleansing the sieges and the brutality that has characterized the conflict in the former Yugoslavia Contrary to common wisdom the hyper violent disintegration of the former Yugoslavia is not simply and exclusively the product of inherent and irrational ethnic animosities and centuries of strife In this engaging book journalist Christopher Bennett traces the turning point to the 1987 struggle within the Serbian Communist party which was between adherents of a Serb nationalist ideology embodied by Slobodan Milosevic and the other Yugoslavs who clung to the vision of a multinational state As soon as Milosevic gained the upper hand he ruthlessly purged his rivals and launched a massive campaign of media indoctrination to stir up Serb nationalism This new nationalism which has repelled the world since 1991 is primarily Milosevic's creation and not merely the result of historical enmity As a student at two different Yugoslav universities in the 1980's Bennett witnessed firsthand many of the critical events which contributed to Yugoslavia's destruction He renders an incisive and accessible history covering the period from Tito's dictatorship to the present day

European Dictatorships 1918-1945 Stephen J. Lee,2016-02-12 European Dictatorships 1918-1945 surveys the extraordinary circumstances leading to and arising from the transformation of over half of Europe's states to dictatorships between the first and the second world wars. From the notorious dictatorships of Mussolini, Hitler and Stalin to less well known states and leaders, Stephen J. Lee scrutinizes the experiences of Russia, Germany, Italy, Spain, Portugal and Central and Eastern European states. This fourth edition has been fully revised and updated throughout. New material for this edition includes the most recent research on individual dictatorships, a new chapter on the experiences of Europe's democracies at the hands of Germany, Italy and Russia, an expanded chapter on Spain, a new section on dictatorships beyond Europe exploring the European and indigenous roots of dictatorships in Latin America, Asia and Africa. Extensively illustrated with images, maps, tables and a comparative timeline and supported by a companion website providing further resources for study, www.routledge.com/cw/lee. European Dictatorships 1918-1945 is a clear, detailed and highly accessible analysis of the tumultuous events of early twentieth century Europe.

Almost NATO Charles Krupnick, 2003. This work examines Eastern Europe's security situation and specifically explores NATO's relationship with Slovakia, Bulgaria, Ukraine and the Baltic states, all non-members but each with its own expectations for membership and relationship to the organization.

Haunted Histories and Troubled Pasts Amanda Howell, Stephanie Green, 2024-04-18. Haunted Histories and Troubled Pasts speaks to how a transnational array of recent screen entertainments participate through horror in public discourses of history, the social and creative work of reshaping popular understanding of our world through the lens of the past. Contemporary film and television and popular screen cultures more generally are distinguished by their many and varied engagements with history, including participation in worldwide movements to reconcile past losses and injuries with present legacies. The chapters in this collection address themselves to 21st century screen horror's participation in this widespread fascination with and concern for the historical, its recurrent reimagining of the relation between the past and present which is part of its inheritance from the Gothic. They are concerned with the historical work of horror's spectral occupations, its visceral threats of violence and its capacity for exploring repressed social identities as well as the ruptures and impositions of colonization and nationhood. Trauma is a key theme in this book, examined through themes of war and genocide, ghostly invasions, institutionalized abuse, apocalyptic threat and environmental destruction. These persistent fearful reimaginings of the past can take many lurid, sometimes tritely generic forms. Together these chapters explore and reflect upon horror's ability to speak through them to the unspoken of history, to push the boundaries and probe the fault lines and ideological impositions of received historical narratives while reminding us that history and the historical imagination persist as sites of contention.

Charting a New Diplomatic Course Cecil V. Crabb, Jr., Leila S. Sareid, Glenn J. Antizzo, 2001-08-01. America's victory in the Cold War is a milestone in the nation's diplomatic experience. The disintegration of the Soviet Union and the defeat of communism have made containment policy the foundation of U.S. foreign relations for almost a half century obsolete, and policymakers and political scientists alike struggle to decide what new strategy should guide the country's involvement on the international stage In this pathbreaking work Cecil V Crabb Jr Leila E Sarriddine and Glenn J Antizzo identify and analyze six distinct approaches to America's diplomatic course after the Cold War addressing perhaps the most important question of our time what should U S foreign policy be in the twenty first century First the authors examine the familiar doctrine of American isolationism and consider an alternative approach conservative neo isolationism which encourages policymakers to use careful discrimination but decisive action in assuming commitments abroad Liberal neo isolationism a third possible course resists active interventionist strategies because of the dangers they pose to congressional power and America's democratic system At the opposite end of the spectrum are conservative interventionism the belief that America must maintain a strong military arsenal and engage in preventative diplomacy liberal interventionism the conviction that America has a responsibility to actively promote the cause of democracy and defend human rights beyond its own borders and pragmatic interventionism an approach taken by the Clinton Administration that relies on a cost benefit analysis of policy as problems arise Elegantly written and authoritatively researched Charting a New Diplomatic Course provides a much needed frame of reference for anyone interested in America's future in international affairs Deliberate force a case study in effective air campaigning...

, Ethnic Conflict in Asymmetric Federations Gorana Grgić, 2016-12-19 In the last years of their existence the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics USSR and the Socialist Federal Republic of Yugoslavia SFRY found themselves facing a similar and very grim state of affairs After their disintegration the former Yugoslav republics spiralled into a set of ethnic conflicts that did not leave a single one of them unscathed and in the ex Soviet space conflicts were far more limited This book offers an in depth analysis of the difference in state collapses and ensuing conflicts in the Soviet Union and Yugoslavia by focusing on their asymmetric ethnofederal structure and the different dynamics of ethnic mobilization that the federal units experienced Moreover it explores the links between identity politics and international relations as the latter has been a latecomer in research on ethnonationalism and ethnic conflict Finally it contributes to the literature on the democratization conflict nexus by proposing that the sequencing of ethnic mobilization and political liberalization has significant effects on the likelihood of conflict This text will be of key interest to scholars and students of Post Soviet politics Balkan politics ethnic conflict peace and conflict studies federalism and more broadly to comparative politics and international relations The Balkans Since the Second World War R. J. Crampton, 2014-07-15 Since the collapse of Eastern European communism the Balkans have been more prominent in world affairs than at any time since before the First World War Crises in the area have led NATO to fire its first ever shots in anger whilst international forces have been deployed on a scale and in a manner unprecedented in Europe since World War Two An understanding of why this happened is impossible without some knowledge of the history of the area before the fall of communism of how the communists came to power and how they used their authority thereafter Covering the communist states of Albania Bulgaria Romania and Yugoslavia and including Greece Richard Crampton provides a highly readable introduction to that history one

Nordic, Central, and Southeastern Europe 2024-2025 Bojka Djukanovic,2024-07-08 The World Today Series Nordic Central and Southeastern Europe is an annually updated presentation of each sovereign country in Nordic Central and Southeastern Europe past and present It is organized by individual chapters for each country and presents a complete and authoritative overview of each region s geography people history political system constitution parliament parties political leaders and elections The combination of factual accuracy and up to date detail along with its informed projections make this an outstanding resource for researchers practitioners in international development media professionals government officials potential investors and students Now in its 23rd edition the content is thorough yet perfect for a one semester introductory course or general library reference Available in both print and e book formats and priced low to fit student and library budgets The Balkans and the West Andrew Hammond,2017-03-02 This collection of essays locates investigates and challenges the manner in which the Balkans and the West have constructed each other since 1945 Scholars from the two sections of the continent explore a wide range of fiction film journalism travel writing and diplomatic records both to analyse Western European balkanism and to study Balkan representations of the West over the last fifty years The first section looks back to the Cold War examining the divergent often favourable images of the Balkans that existed in Western culture as well as the variety of responses that appeared in South East European writings on the West The second section analyses the transitions that took place in representation during the 1990s Here contributors explore both the harsh denigration of the Balkans which came to dominate western discourse after the initial euphoria of 1989 and the emerging tradition of contesting Western balkanism in South East European cultural production Through this dual emphasis the volume exposes the representational practices that help to maintain a deeply divided Europe and challenges the economic and political injustices that result Despite the rise to prominence of postcolonial theory with its awareness of global inequality the current crises in many parts of South East Europe have received scant attention in literary and cultural studies The Balkans and the West addresses this deficiency Ranging in focus from Serbian cinema to Romanian travel literature from Western economic writings to Yugoslav fiction and from public discourse in Albania to NATO's vast propaganda machine the essays offer wide insight into representation and power in the contemporary European context The Statesman's Yearbook 2006 B.

War in Our Backyard Margit V. Wunsch Gaarmann,2015-02-18 The War in Our Backyard is a novel study of the German press textual and visual coverage of the wars in Bosnia 1992 1995 and Kosovo 1998 1999 Key moments from both wars have been selected and analysed using a broad range of publications reaching from far right to far left and including broadsheets a tabloid and a news magazine Two sections with parallel chapters form the core of the book the first part dealing with the war in Bosnia and the second with Kosovo Each section contains one chapter on the initial phase of the conflict one chapter on an important atrocity namely the Srebrenica Massacre in Bosnia and the Ra ak incident in Kosovo and lastly a chapter each on the international involvement which ended the immediate violence The book examines how the various events were covered what sources were used and what insights these examples of the German press conveyed Special attention has been paid to four key themes which emerged from the research Firstly the changing perceptions of the Serbian President Slobodan Milo evic and the issue of who was to blame for the conflicts secondly how various armed forces including the Yugoslav Peoples Army and the Kosovo Liberation Army were presented in the German press thirdly the persistent presence of the Second World War and the Holocaust in the coverage of the wars in Bosnia and Kosovo and how they shaped the press interpretation of the violence and lastly how Germany's role in the Balkans both in the realms of diplomacy and military intervention was evaluated by the national press Pictures and cartoons accompanying the textual coverage have been included to present a more rounded picture of press coverage Building Democracy in the Yugoslav Successor States Sabrina P. Ramet, Christine M. Hassenstab, Ola Listhaug, 2017-05-15 Building democracy in societies that have known only authoritarian rule for half a century is complicated Taking the post Yugoslav region as its case study this volume shows how success with democratisation depends on various factors including establishing the rule of law the consolidation of free media and society's acceptance of ethnic religious and sexual minorities Surveying the seven successor states the authors argue that Slovenia is in a class by itself as the most successful with Croatia and Serbia not far behind The other states Bosnia Herzegovina Macedonia Montenegro and Kosovo are all struggling with problems of corruption poverty and unemployment The authors treat the issue of values as a policy problem in its own right debating the extent to which values have been transformed by changes in education and the media how churches and women's organisations have entered into the policy debate and whether governments have embraced a programme designed to effect changes in values
