ITS HISTORY AND SOCIAL MEANING

The Story Of Islamic Architecture

Pasquale De Marco

The Story Of Islamic Architecture:

The Story of Islamic Architecture Richard Yeomans, 1999 Beginning with a brief description of the Muslim faith the introductory chapters of this book illustrate how religious attitudes determine the form and function of Islamic art and architecture The book then considers the genesis of a distinctly Islamic architecture from the first monuments when the Umayyad Caliphate bringing with it political and mercantile acumen but scarce architectural knowledge was totally dependent on the art craft and building skills of the indigenous population in the countries it had conquered These early monuments illustrate how the story of Islamic architecture is one of continuing adaptation change and innovation in response to the complex cultural and racial diversity which constitutes the Muslim nation The book then charts the gradual evolution and eventual emergence of a distinctive Arab identity in ninth century Iraq Tunisia and Egypt provided by publisher

Architecture of the Islamic World Ernst J. Grube, 1978 Islamic Architecture John D. Hoag, 1977 Islamic Art and Architecture 650-1250 Richard Ettinghausen, Oleg Grabar, Professor Emeritus of Islamic Art and Architecture Oleg Grabar, Marilyn Jenkins, 2003-07-11 This richly illustrated book provides an unsurpassed overview of Islamic art and architecture from the seventh to the thirteenth centuries a time of the formation of a new artistic culture and its first medieval flowering in the vast area from the Atlantic to India Inspired by Ettinghausen and Grabar's original text this book has been completely rewritten and updated to take into account recent information and methodological advances The volume focuses special attention on the development of numerous regional centers of art in Spain North Africa Egypt Syria Anatolia Iraq and Yemen as well as the western and northeastern provinces of Iran It traces the cultural and artistic evolution of such centers in the seminal early Islamic period and examines the wealth of different ways of creating a beautiful environment The book approaches the arts with new classifications of architecture and architectural decoration the art of the object and the art of the book With many new illustrations often in color this volume broadens the picture of Islamic artistic production and discusses objects in a wide range of media including textiles ceramics metal and wood The book incorporates extensive accounts of the cultural contexts of the arts and defines the originality of each period A final chapter explores the impact of Islamic art on the creativity of non Muslims within the Islamic realm and in areas surrounding the Muslim world Worlds of Islamic Architecture: A Journey Through History and Culture Pasquale De Marco, 2025-03-15 Journey into the captivating world of Islamic architecture where history culture and aesthetics intertwine to create awe inspiring structures This comprehensive book takes you on a global odyssey through the architectural masterpieces of the Muslim world revealing the stories symbolism and significance behind these iconic landmarks From the grandeur of mosques with their soaring domes and intricate tilework to the opulent palaces and serene gardens Islamic architecture showcases a harmonious blend of functionality aesthetics and spirituality Explore the evolution of architectural styles from early Islamic settlements to modern masterpieces and discover how they reflect the rich cultural heritage and diverse traditions of Muslim communities around the world Delve into the architectural features that define mosques the heart of Islamic religious and communal life and unravel the symbolism and functionality of their design Marvel at the majestic palaces and forts symbols of power and prestige and witness the architectural expressions of remembrance and reverence in tombs and mausoleums Explore the principles of urban design and architecture that shaped vibrant Islamic cities fostering community and economic prosperity Discover the innovative techniques and materials used in Islamic architecture promoting eco friendly construction practices and resilience in the face of environmental challenges Trace the fascinating story of cultural exchange as Islamic architecture spread across continents influencing and being influenced by diverse artistic traditions Witness the revival and transformation of Islamic architecture in the modern world as contemporary architects reimagine traditional forms and motifs to create innovative and sustainable designs This book is an essential guide for anyone interested in architecture history culture or travel With stunning visuals insightful commentary and a comprehensive exploration of Islamic architectural heritage it invites readers to appreciate the enduring legacy and global impact of this remarkable art form If you like this book write a review

Islamic Architecture in Iran Saeid Khaghani, 2012-07-30 The architecture of the Islamic world is predominantly considered in terms of a dual division between tradition and modernity a division which Saeid Khaghani here argues has shaped and limited the narrative applied to this architecture Khaghani introduces and reconsiders the mosques of eighth to fifteenth century Iran in terms of poststructural theory and developments in historiography in order to develop a brand new dialectical framework Using the examples of mosques such as the Friday Mosques in Isfahan and Yazd as well as the Imam mosque in Isfahan Khaghani presents a new way of thinking about and discussing Islamic architecture making this valuable reading for all interested in the study of the art architecture and material culture of the Islamic world

Islamic Architecture Robert Hillenbrand, 1994 This is the definitive survey of Islamic architecture Working from a social rather than a technical perspective Hillenbrand shows how the buildings fulfilled their intended functions within the community Lavishly illustrated

Western Islamic Architecture John D. Hoag, 1963 Until they began their conquests which rapidly engulfed half of the known world the Arabs were totally innocent of any architectural tradition Yet from the middle of the seventh century for a period of nearly eight hundred years the Muslims developed an architectural identity quite outside the influence of the Christian West an identity related to Western forms only tangentially through the principles of late Roman and Hellenic styles as they were modified in Early Byzantine and Near Eastern designs Nevertheless Islamic architecture is as God centered as the soaring structures of Gothic Europe Its inventiveness was concentrated around two major programs the mosque and the palace which although frequently borrowing forms from each other expressed fundamentally contradictory concepts The first emphasized the infinite variety and oneness of God the second glorified a human individual In the case of palaces however architecture also emphasized the ruler as an intermediary between man and God Furthermore his gardens developed into symbolic portrayals of Paradise thus providing a strong religious implication which also affected lesser domestic architecture In line with its turbulent political history and its far flung conquests the Islamic world adopted a variety of architectural styles the development of new designs or modifications of older ones depending on the degree of isolation from other Islamic areas In Spain and North Africa the intricate and ethereal ornamentation led to the creation of an illusionistic and fantastic structure in Granada even the structure became ornament and a building seemed to become an airy substance hovering over earth rather than resting upon it In contrast the clear concise almost austere forms of Egypt developed an architecture that was patently logical expansive and virile while in Turkey the magnificent Ottoman mosques both influenced by and reacting against the earlier Seljuk style produced a monumentality integrated to an extent not even attempted by other Islamic variant styles In introducing the major monuments of the Western Islamic world Mr Hoag points out their relationships to each other and to the political and social climate which produced and developed one of the most majestic architectures in the history of civilization Book Jacket An Illustrated History of Islamic Architecture Moya Carey,2012 An introduction to the architectural wonders of Islam from mosques to palaces in 250 magnificent pictures Islamic Art and Architecture Peter Osier,2017-07-15 The Islamic world has a rich artistic tradition with particular strengths in calligraphy illuminated manuscripts architecture and the decorative arts This reference traces the development of Islamic art and architecture from the Umayyad dynasty to the present day Readers will learn about the art of the Fatimids Seljuqs Mamluks Mongols Ottomans Safavids Mughals and more Eye catching photos of gorgeous mosques delicate manuscript paintings and colorful ceramics give readers glimpses of the works being discussed A great resource both for those interested in art history and those hoping to learn more about the long rich history of Islamic culture
