Surfing, Street Skateboarding, Performance, and Space Hunter H. Fine, 2018-09-15 Surfing Street Skateboarding Performance and Space On Board Motility draws from critical cultural studies political philosophy postcolonial studies urban sociology and poststructuralist theory in the context of human communication and performance to construct an epistemology of riding boards This book ponders why we move the way we do and examines the ways in which movements communicate developing as a result a theoretical perspective or board motility that is gestural and fluid moving in relation to shifting social and physical landscapes By combining the discourses and practices of critical theory and physical movement this text presents a sustained analysis of radical political philosophy In the book the symbolic narratives associated with each physical practice are deconstructed as their theoretical counterparts are thoroughly established Then through performance the author narrows the divide between these two forms of thinking verbal and nonverbal outlining and embodying an ontological and epistemological stoke in the process that emerges from riding boards on both waves and streets
