The Us Senate Fundamentals Of American Government:

The U.S. Senate Thomas Daschle, Charles Robbins, 2013-01-22 The second entry in the civics series clearly and concisely explains how the United States Senate works From the Fundamentals of American Government civics series it explores the inner workings of this important part of the legislative branch It is written for all audiences but voiced toward high school seniors and college freshmen Congressional Pathfinders J. Michael Martinez, 2021-02-04 Congressional Pathfinders First Members of Congress and How They Shaped American History discusses those men and women whose service in the United States Congress as improbable as it was marked a turning point in history To be the first black American or the first woman to serve in a largely white male dominated institution requires a level of moral courage seldom found in ordinary people To be openly gay to subscribe to the Muslim faith in a nation often fearful and ignorant of Islam or to navigate the hallways of power with physical disabilities is to be cognizant of one's separateness To be an other is to feel the stigma of that difference and yet to persevere is to forge a path for later generations of others to follow The service of these courageous men and women forever changed Congress and by extension the nation they truly were congressional pathfinders Nancy Pelosi Daniel Inouye Margaret Chase Smith Shirley Chisholm Ilhan Omar and Hillary Clinton are among the many figures profiled in Congressional Pathfinders Life in the Middle Neilan S. Chaturvedi, 2021 A long held belief of political scientists is that moderate voices in the Senate act as power brokers between the ideological poles yet year after year we see partisan gridlock in Congress Some even argue that the shrinking number of moderates only increases their political influence In Life in the Middle Neilan S Chaturvedi argues that the belief in the powerful pivotal moderate neglects their electoral circumstances and overestimates their legislative power In other words not all Senators are elected under equal circumstances Chaturvedi posits that unlike their ideological counterparts who are elected from states that share an ideological identity moderates are elected from one of two constituencies states that have a partisan lean to one party but have enough swing voters to vote in a moderate from the opposite party or states that are nearly evenly divided in terms of partisanship Using unique interview data with legislative directors retired United States Senators and data compiled from the Congressional Record Chaturvedi shows that because of their precarious electoral circumstances moderate senators must avoid active participation on bills and pushing controversial legislation Lawmaking is much more variable and less moderating than previous theories assumed as the process relies less on the work of moderates and more on party leaders The book also demonstrates that mainstream concerns about polarization and its negative effects of increased gridlock and ideological legislation are true Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1995 Suffrage at 100 Stacie Taranto, Leandra Zarnow, 2020-08-04 Suffrage at 100 looks at women's engagement in US electoral politics and government over the one hundred years since the ratification of the Nineteenth Amendment In the 2018 midterm elections 102 women were elected to the House and 14 to the Senate a record for both bodies And yet nearly a century after the ratification of the Nineteenth Amendment the notion of congressional gender parity by 2020 a stated goal of the National Women's Political Caucus at the time of its founding in 1971 remains a distant ideal In Suffrage at 100 Stacie Taranto and Leandra Zarnow bring together twenty two scholars to take stock of women's engagement in electoral politics over the past one hundred years This is the first wide ranging collection to historically examine women's full political engagement in and beyond electoral office since they gained a constitutional right to vote The book explores why women's access to and influence on political power remains frustratingly uneven particularly for women of color and queer women Examining how women have acted collectively and individually both within and outside of electoral and governmental channels the book moves from the front lines of community organizing to the highest glass ceiling Essays touch on labor and civil rights education environmentalism enfranchisement and voter suppression conservatism vs liberalism indigeneity and transnationalism LGBTQ and personal politics Pan Asian Chicana and black feminisms commemoration and public history and much more Contributors Melissa Estes Blair Eileen Boris Marisela R Chavez Claire Delahaye Nicole Eaton Liette Gidlow Holly Miowak Guise Iupiaq Emily Suzanne Johnson Dean J Kotlowski Monica L Mercado Johanna Neuman Kathleen Banks Nutter Katherine Parkin Ellen G Rafshoon Bianca Rowlett Sarah B Rowley Ana Stevenson Barbara Winslow Judy Tzu Chun Wu Nancy Beck Young

Conservative Reformers: The Freshman Republicans in the 104th Congress Nicol C. Rae, 2016-07-01 Nicol Rae s engaging account of the Republican revolutionaries freshman year in Congress persuasively demonstrates that the precepts set forth by Madison in Federalist 10 and 51 are still in force in our remarkably stable political system The 73 Republican freshmen who entered the House of Representatives after the 1994 election were a well organized group with majority status and a commitment to change This book examines the extent to which they were successful in redirecting policy and reforming the institutions of representative government and the extent to which those same institutions moderated and even frustrated efforts to introduce radical rapid indeed revolutionary change Contrasts are drawn both with the role of the Republican freshmen in the Senate and with the power of the President as manifested in the 1995 96 budget battle The book is based on interviews conducted by the author when he was an APSA Congressional Fellow in the offices of Rep George P Radanovich president of the freshman Republican class and Sen Thad Cochran chairman of the Senate Republican Conference
