While delineation against this Other served to define and reassure the Self the Orient also constituted a constant source of fascination attraction and inspiration Through oral retellings numerous tales from Muslim tradition became an integral part of European oral and written tradition in the form of learned treatises medieval sermons late medieval fabliaux early modern chapbooks contemporary magazines and more In present times when national narcissisms often acquire the status of strongholds delineating the Us against the Other it is imperative to distinguish document visualize and discuss the extent to which the West is not only indebted to the Muslim world but also shares common features with Muslim narrative tradition
