Understanding News Understanding News:

Understanding Global News Jaap van Ginneken, 1997-12-08 A lively and critical introduction to the news media this book has been written specifically for media students and trainee journalists Understanding Global News invites the reader to explore contemporary journalistic practice and questions the assumption that the media provide a mere window on the world Challenging the often unquestioned notions of media objectivity the author turns the classic questions Who What When and Why onto the news media By employing a range of theoretical perspectives and a large variety of examples the author demonstrates the way in which our perceptions of the world are constructed by the news media Understanding News

John Hartley, 2013-06-17 News depends for its effect on a culturally shared language and this book concentrates on ways we can decode its messages without simply reproducing their underlying assumptions Navigating the News Richard Craig (Professor of journalism), 2020 In an age when young people may confuse online chatter with legitimate news Navigating the News is the first textbook designed to show students how to recognize credible reporting and how real journalists perform their jobs The book begins with the basics of how to critically assess news stories then covers what to look for in everything from community news and crime reporting to business political and investigative coverage More than 50 professional journalists share insights on how they gather edit and report news and discuss what critical audiences should expect from their news coverage Students learn how to analyze complex topics including science environmental and education news and a series of chapters covers how to approach news from different parts of the world Navigating the News is aimed at general audiences not just journalism or communication majors Given the importance and timeliness of the subject this book could easily be the core text for general education classes on news and media literacy The trend toward teaching young people how to understand and assess news is gaining momentum at universities everywhere Explaining News C.

Archetti, 2010-07-05 The book challenges the idea that processes of globalization are leading to an increasing homogenization of news on a worldwide scale by focusing on two defining crises of our time 9 11 and the War in Afghanistan The empirical analysis combines process tracing as well as both quantitative and qualitative content analysis of governmental discourses and news coverage of eight elite newspapers across the US France Italy and Pakistan It develops a new multidisciplinary framework to explain news that brings together previously distinct levels of analysis the micro level of the individual decisions made by journalists the organizational environment of the news organization national social and political contexts the macro level of international relations The book is going to be of interest primarily to academics and researchers postgraduate students across communications media studies journalism politics and international relations as well as journalists media practitioners and officials involved in public communication Journalism: Understanding the News

Understanding the News Media Educational Research Council of America, 1974

News As Discourse Teun A. van Dijk, 2013-10-28 First Published in 1990 This book presents a new interdisciplinary theory of news in the press Against the background of developments in discourse analysis it is argued that news should be studied primarily as a form of public discourse Whereas in much mass communication research the economic social or cultural dimensions of news and news media are addressed the present study emphasizes the importance of an explicit structural analysis of news reports Such an analysis should provide a qualitative alternative to traditional methods of content analysis Also attention is paid to processes of news production by journalists and news comprehension by readers in terms of the social cognitions of news participants In this way news structures can also be explicitly linked to social practices and ideologies of news making and indirectly to the institutional and macro sociological contexts of the news media

Navigating the News Stina Bengtsson, Sofia Johansson, 2024-11-18 News today is a genre in flux New kinds of news producers and novel means of distributing sharing and using news align with alternative ways of understanding what news is Based on an extensive ethnography of news practices and perceptions among a broad range of young adults in Sweden this book discusses how the rapid digitisation of news has shaped young people's understanding of it as well as how news is made relevant trusted and used in the temporalities and spatialities of everyday life This cutting edge volume analyses the blurring boundaries between news and social media facts and stories highlighting how new media categories such as influencers and memes can take on the status of news for young audiences and shape their understanding of themselves and the world

News Grazers Richard Forgette, 2018-01-12 Politicians and journalists have never been among the most trusted professional classes in this book author Richard Forgette posits a news grazing explanation of how and why Forgette an expert on the U S Congress and public policy draws upon direct experimental research to argue that the diffusion of media outlets and media technologies have resulted in an increasingly fragmented and distracted news audience

Avoiding the News Benjamin Toff, Ruth Palmer, Rasmus Kleis Nielsen, 2023-12-26 Winner 2025 Hazel Gaudet Erskine Best Book Award International Journal of Press Politics Winner 2024 Choice Outstanding Academic Title A small but growing number of people in many countries consistently avoid the news They feel they do not have time for it believe it is not worth the effort find it irrelevant or emotionally draining or do not trust the media among other reasons Why and how do people circumvent news Which groups are more and less reluctant to follow the news In what ways is news avoidance a problem for individuals for the news industry for society and how can it be addressed This groundbreaking book explains why and how so many people consume little or no news despite unprecedented abundance and ease of access Drawing on interviews in Spain the United Kingdom and the United States as well as extensive survey data Avoiding the News examines how people who tune out traditional media get information and explores their folk theories about how news organizations work The authors argue that news avoidance is about not only content but also identity ideologies and infrastructures who people are what they believe and how news does or does not fit into their everyday lives Because news avoidance is most common among disadvantaged groups it threatens to exacerbate existing inequalities by tilting mainstream journalism even further toward privileged audiences Ultimately this book shows persuading news averse audiences of the value of journalism is not simply a matter of adjusting coverage but requires a deeper more empathetic understanding of people's relationships with news across social political and technological boundaries

A Discourse Analysis of News Translation in China Liang Xia, 2019-01-21 A Discourse Analysis of News Translation in China offers hitherto underexplored inroads into Chinese media through insider perspectives on a unique Chinese newspaper Cankao Xiaoxia which not only is the largest circulating newspaper in China but is also unique in that its news consists entirely of stories translated from foreign news sources The size of the publication the unique nature of the publication and the view from the inside of such an organization gathered through interviews with its employees give this proposed book a highly unique perspective that will inform our understanding of the workings of Chinese media in important ways

A Journalist's Guide to Live Direct and Unbiased News Translation 'Ali Darwish, 2010 This book examines the role of translation in news making taking Arabic satellite television as its case study and presents a framework for journalists translators news editors and other media workers to help them avoid the pitfalls of translation mediation P 4 of cover

EBOOK: Developing Scientific Literacy: Using News Media in the Classroom Ruth Jarman, Billy McClune, 2007-03-16 This is an excellent source of ideas on using the media to enrich science teaching and engage pupils It contains numerous ideas on using newspapers and other sources in science and how to encourage young people to read them carefully and critically Prof Jerry Wellington School of Education University of Sheffield UK Throughout the book all the ideas content suggestions and arguments are supported by in depth research and solid referencing making this an authoritative yet eminently readable reference volume for current and would be secondary science teachers School Science Review Science related news stories have great potential as a resource for teaching and learning about science and its impact on society By demonstrating the relevance of the subject in everyday life they can form a valuable bridge between the school classroom and the real world Worldwide those advocating science education reform stress the need to promote scientific literacy among young people and typically this includes equipping students to critically engage with science reports in the media However very little guidance exists for those who wish to do so Developing Scientific Literacy addresses this gap offering a much needed framework for teachers wishing to explore science in the media in secondary schools or colleges It suggests how teachers across a number of subject areas can collaborate to promote among young people an aptitude and ability to engage thoughtfully with science in the media Drawing on research and development work the authors Describe key characteristics of science news reporting Discuss its potential as a resource for teaching and learning about science and for developing young people's criticality in respect of such reports Identify appropriate instructional objectives and suggest activities through which these might be achieved This timely book is a source of valuable ideas and insights for all secondary science teachers It will also be of interest to those with responsibilities for initial teacher training and continuing professional development

The Concept of News in Ancient Greek Literature Raquel Fornieles, 2022-12-05 The concept of news that we have today is not a modern invention but rather a social and cultural institution that has been passed down to us by the Greeks as a legacy This concept is only modified by the social political and economic conditions that make our society different from theirs In order to understand what was considered news in Ancient Greece a lexical study of and all of its derivatives attested in a representative corpus of the period spanning from the second millennium BC to the end of the fourth BC has been conducted This piece of research provides new contributions both to studies in Classics there are hardly any studies on the transmission of news in Antiquity and in journalism This study also reveals an interesting point the presence of false news similar to current fake news in ancient Greek literature especially in tragedy and historiography when it comes to the use of the derivatives of

Making News in India Somnath Batabyal, 2014-03-14

Post liberalisation India has witnessed a dramatic growth of the television industry as well as on screen images of the glitz and glamour of a vibrant shining India. Through a detailed ethnographic study of Star News and Star Ananda involving interviews observations and content analysis this book explores the milieu of 24 hour private news channels in India today. It offers insightful glimpses into the workings of one of the mightiest news corporations in the world and its ability to manufacture everyday reality for its audiences. Based on fieldwork in Mumbai and Kolkata this study not only provides a detailed description of the television newsroom its rituals and rhythms but ventures beyond it to investigate how editorial and corporate strategies converge increasingly in an industry driven by profit. Through analysing how TRPs work to produce a non inclusive idea of the audience and examining hundreds of hours of news content the book explores how news channels construct a vision of nationhood and of a successful and vibrant economy that caters primarily to the needs of the resurgent Indian middle class. While it will be of particular interest to media and cultural studies scholars and students and to journalists and media professionals in general this lively engaging book also aims to give the general reader the wherewithal to analyse and critique the continuous barrage of 24 hour news television today.
