Viorst, 2010-05-11 From grief and mourning to aging and relationships poet and Redbook contributor Judith Viorst presents a thoughtful and researched study in this examination of love loss and letting go Drawing on psychoanalysis literature and personal experience Necessary Losses is a philosophy for understanding and accepting life s inevitabilities In Necessary

Losses Judith Viorst turns her considerable talents to a serious and far reaching subject how we grow and change through the losses that are a certain and necessary part of life She argues persuasively that through the loss of our mothers protection the loss of the impossible expectations we bring to relationships the loss of our younger selves and the loss of our loved ones through separation and death we gain deeper perspective true maturity and fuller wisdom about life She has written a book that is both life affirming and life changing It's Hard to Be Hip Over Thirty Judith Viorst,2019-04-02

Bringing together some of the best of Judith Viorst's witty and perceptive poetry and featuring the illustrations from the original edition by John Alcorn Viorst explores the all too true ironies and absurdities of being a woman in the modern world Whether she's finding herself or finding a sitter contemplating her sex life as she rubs hormone night cream on her face or wrestling with the contradiction of falling in love with a man her parents would actually approve of Viorst transforms the familiar events of daily life into poems that make you laugh with recognition Here is the young single girl leaving her parents home for life in the big city No I do not believe in free love And yes I will be home for Sunday dinners Here is the aspiring bohemian with an expensive liberal arts education getting coffee and taking dictation Hoping that someday someone will be impressed With all I know Here is that married woman coping with motherhood The tricycles are cluttering my foyer The Pop Tart crumbs are sprinkled on my soul and fantasy affairs I could imagine cryptic conversations clandestine martinis and me explaining that long kisses clog my sinuses and all too real family reunions Four aunts in pain taking pills One cousin in analysis taking notes And here she is at mid life wondering whether a woman who used to wear a Ban the Bomb button can find happiness being a person with a set of fondue forks a fish poacher and a wok Every step of the way It's Hard to be Hip Over Thirty and Other Tragedies of Married Life demonstrates once and for all that no one understands American women coming of age like Judith Viorst It's Hard to be Hip Over Thirty and Other Tragedies of Married Life is a reissue of the previous collection originally titled When Did I Stop Being Twenty and Other Injustices Making the Best of What's Left Judith Viorst,2025-04

Throughout her career Judith Viorst has written numerous books reflecting on life as she ages Now in her nineties she shares her experiences in life's final fifth in this collection of poetry and essays On her retirement community she notes that it is wonderful marvelous swell good as gold Except for this one little problem everyone's old On her late husband who died of COVID 19 in 2022 she pleads I need you fixing our damn circuit breakers I need you Could you please stop being dead With humor and vulnerability Viorst invites readers to dance with her between grief and levity and to enjoy the time we have left to share How Did I Get to Be Forty Judith Viorst,2014-10-21

And so you've reached that time in life when you're stating to pick investments over adventure clean over scenic comfortable over intense when even though in your heart of hearts you're only seventeen the rest of you is how did it happen forty The wise and witty lady of It's Hard to Be Hip Over Thirty is here to get you through these forty-ish years with poems that reflect our common shared experience So let her help you take a look at that decade of sagging kneecaps and college reunions and fantasies of love in the afternoon at Maoist kids cholesterol counts adult education courses and other atrocities which somehow just don't hurt so much when you laugh A marvelous book filled with insight and warmth How Did I Get to Be 40 Other Atrocities is Judith Viorst at her best Nearing Ninety Judith Viorst, 2019-04-02 The newest illustrated poetry collection in beloved author Judith Viorst's decade series from It's Hard to Be Hip Over Thirty to Unexpectedly Eighty exploring with her signature savvy and humor what it means to be an impending nonagenarian In Nearing Ninety bestselling author Judith Viorst candidly shares the complicated joys and everyday tribulations that await us at the age of ninety all with a large dose of humor and an understanding that nothing well almost nothing in life should be taken too seriously While she struggles to make it to midnight on New Year's Eve while she's starting to hear more eulogies than symphonies while she'll forever be disheartened by what she weighs and forever unable to stop weighing herself there is plenty to cherish at ninety hanging out with the people she loves Playing a relentless game of Scrabble And still sleeping tush to tush with the same man to whom she's been married for sixty years Accompanied by Laura Gibson's whimsical illustrations Nearing Ninety's amusing and touching reflections make this collection relatable to readers of all ages With the wisdom and spunk of someone who's seen it all Viorst gently reminds us that everybody gets old and that the best medicine at any age is laughter Wait for Me Judith Viorst, 2015-10-20 A collection of poems that explores the peeves and pleasures of a long marriage and what lies beyond Judith Viorst began publishing poetry in the 1960s in New York magazine and since then her works have celebrated life's milestones with wit and poignancy Married for fifty-five years she now casts a rueful experienced eye on the amusing annoyances and deep satisfactions of a long marriage and what a couple must inevitably confront together Imperfect Control Judith Viorst, 2014-10-21 In her remarkable national bestseller Necessary Losses Judith Viorst explored how we are shaped by the various losses we experience throughout our lives Now in her wise and perceptive new book Imperfect Control she shows us how our sense of self and all our important relationships are colored by our struggles over control over wanting it and taking it loving it and fearing it and figuring out when the time has come to surrender it Writing with compassion acute psychological insight and a touch of her trademark humor Viorst invites us to contemplate the limits and possibilities of our control She shows us how our lives can be shaped by our actions and our choices She reminds us too that we sometimes should choose to let go And she encourages us to find our own best balance between power and surrender Murdering Mr. Monti Judith Viorst, 2016-03-29 Highly entertaining Sit back in the bubbles and enjoy The Philadelphia Inquirer Brenda Kovner a newspaper advice columnist and amateur psychologist in 1990s Washington DC doesn't consider herself intrusive just extremely interested in helping If she knows the answer she can't shut up even if no one's listening Since Brenda knows what's best for everyone she secretly decides she must murder her son Wally's prospective father in law before he can get to Wally She has a foolproof plan In fact she has a million of them But first she's got a few kinky desires of her own to satisfy
