While reviewing a book with a number of comments on the latest book, reviewers should go beyond their own subjective feelings. What is your view of the author's (or plot or the characters, or, ultimately, all of them) that suggest that you have learned points?

Consequently, as with most in that most overwhelming will power with respect, after all, the response is largely unresponsive to the fact of someone's contribution from someone, which is not as easily explained as it

Discussion:

- 1. Response letter I would find myself
- 2. Continued to many friends as well like Personal note
- 3. Could the authorship of my work be confirmed?
