The Psychoanalytic Vocation Peter L. Rudnytsky,2013-05-13 Object relations which emphasizes the importance of the preoedipal period and the infant mother relationship is considered by many analysts to be the major development in psychoanalytic theory since Freud In this reinterpretation of its history Peter L Rudnytsky focuses on two pivotal figures Otto Rank one of Freud s original and most brilliant disciples who later broke away from psychoanalysis and D W Winnicott the leading representative of the Independent tradition in British psychoanalysis Rudnytsky begins with an overview arguing that object relations theory can synthesize the scientific and hermeneutic dimensions of psychoanalysis He the uses the ideas of Rank and Winnicott to uncover the preoedipal aspects of Sophocles Oedipus the King After an appraisal of the relationship between Rank and Freud he turns to Rank s neglected writings between 1924 and 1927 and shows how they anticipate contemporary object relations theory Rudnytsky critically measures Winnicott's achievement against those of Heinz Kohut and Jacques Lacan the founders of two competing schools of psychoanalysis and compares Winnicott's life and work with Freud's Next using both published and unpublished accounts by the psychotherapist Harry Guntrip of his analyses with W R D Fairbairn and Winnicott he probes the personal and intellectual interactions among these three British clinicians Rudnytsky concludes by advancing a psychoanalytic theory of the self as a rejoinder to the postmodernism that is the dominant ideology in literary studies today In two appendices he makes available for the first time an English translation of Rank's Genesis of the Object Relation and a 1983 interview with Clare Winnicott Tea with Winnicott Brett Kahr, 2018-05-08 In a work of startling originality Professor Brett Kahr has resurrected Donald Winnicott from the dead and has invited him for a memorable cup of tea at 87 Chester Square his former London residence where the two men discuss Winnicott's life and work in compelling detail With original drawings by Alison Bechdel best selling author and illustrator of Fun Home and Are You My Mother this posthumous interview will be the perfect guide for students and the ideal present for colleagues The New Republic Herbert David Croly, 2003 God in the Act of Reference Erica Appelros, 2002 To claim to believe in God without accepting that God exists independently of human minds would mean reducing God to merely a human construct thus not real enough for being the object of religious worship This book sets out to challenge this common view on existence and religious belief Arguing from concrete examples of language use in children's make believe play and other ordinary situations Erica Appelros suggests that what makes us consider something to be real involves our capacities to relate to our surroundings not only on grounds of their physical characteristics but also on grounds of human construction This book makes a substantial contribution to the contemporary debate within philosophy of religion on religious realism and non realism and suggests innovative and constructive solutions to the perennial philosophical and religious issue of what is meant by talking about God and God's existence
