The study demonstrates how Sokolov's oeuvre cannot be fully understood but within the widened perspective of inter-artistic creation in fact the writer a failed composer as he admits in his literary work has tried to draw natural and spontaneous connecting lines between the artificially categorized realms of art word sound painting performance. Finally the book sets forth the first solid analysis of Sokolov's concept of proeziia not merely a genre nor style of his own invention but a more significant theoretical reflection of the writer about the role and value of literature art creation and finally beauty.
