Barth answer Yes to both Following their model Machuga defends a third way which transcends the Enlightenment dichotomies of fideism vs rationalism supernaturalism vs naturalism relativism vs absolutism free will vs predestination and God s justice vs his mercy Machuga begins by showing how these false dichotomies grew out of the Enlightenment assumptions of mechanism universal quantification and mono causation He then corrects these demonstrably dubious assumptions by articulating a theory of dual causation The result is a thoroughly biblical understanding of God miracles and free will that can withstand the contemporary criticisms of both science and philosophy

Scripture and Metaphysics

Matthew Levering,2008-04-15 This book makes a major contribution to contemporary theological and philosophical debates bridging scriptural and metaphysical approaches to the triune God Bridges the gap between scriptural and metaphysical approaches to biblical narratives Retrieves Aquinas s understanding of theology as contemplative wisdom Structured around Aquinas s treatise on the triune God in his Summa Theologiae Argues that intellectual contemplation is part of a broader spiritual journey towards a better understanding of God Contributes to the current resurgence of Thomistic theology in both Protestant and Catholic circles

Renewing Our Hope Robert Barron,2020-08-12 In a time of discouragement how can the Church renew itself and its outreach to all people Bishop Robert Barron Auxiliary Bishop of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles insists that a dumbed down Catholicism cannot succeed in today s highly educated society instead the Church needs to draw upon its great theological heritage in order to renew its hope in Christ With Renewing Our Hope Essays for the New Evangelization Bishop Barron traces this renewal through four stages Renewing Our Mission lays out the challenges that call for Catholics to become more aware of their own intellectual resources in encountering the Nones Renewing Our Minds showcases the importance of theological reflection as a font of wisdom and sanity in the Church touching on Thomas Aquinas Hans Urs von Balthasar the recently canonized John Henry Newman and Pope Francis In Renewing the Church he proceeds to look at how Scripture the family the seminary and Catholic college graduates can each contribute to this renewal Finally in Renewing Our Culture he returns to the judgments Catholics must make in assessing contemporary culture specifically family life liberalism relativism and surprisingly the beauty of cinema Bishop Barron known as the host of the Catholicism PBS video series was previously rector and professor of systematic theology at Mundelein Seminary outside Chicago Illinois He demonstrates again in Renewing Our Hope his ability to make the fruits of his wide reading accessible to a broad audience while still giving his academic colleagues much to consider

Fitzgerald, 2016-12-15 John J Fitzgerald addresses here one of life's enduring questions how to achieve personal fulfillment and more specifically whether we can do so through ethical conduct He focuses on two significant twentieth century theologians Rabbi Abraham Joshua Heschel and Pope John Paul II seeing both as fitting dialogue partners given the former's influence on the Second Vatican Council's deliberations on the Jews and the latter's groundbreaking overtures to the Jews in the wake of his experiences in Poland before and during World War II Fitzgerald demonstrates that Heschel and John Paul II both suggest that doing good generally leads us to growth in various components of personal fulfillment such as happiness meaning in life and freedom from selfish desires There are however some key differences between the two theologians John Paul II emphasizes more strongly the relationship between acting well and attaining eternal life whereas Heschel wrestles more openly with the possibility that religious commitment ultimately involves anxiety and sadness By examining historical and contemporary analyses including the work of the Fourteenth Dalai Lama the philosopher Peter Singer and some present day psychologists Fitzgerald builds a narrative that shows the promise and limits of Heschel's and John Paul II's views Conscience and Prayer Dennis Joseph Billy, James Keating, 2001 Conscience and Prayer takes the new conversation between Christian spirituality and moral theology to a deeper level of precision and focus The authors argue that the relationship between moral theology and spirituality can best be explored by looking at how conscience is related to prayer In exploring this relationship both historically and theologically Billy and Keating open new ways to approach the fundamental aspects of Catholic moral theology BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved
