The Urban Geography Reader Routledge Urban Reader Series:

The Urban Geography Reader Nicholas R. Fyfe, Judith T. Kenny, 2005 A reader this collection captures the diversity of scholarship in the field of urban geography by presenting a stimulating selection of articles and excerpts by leading figures organized around seven themes

The City Cultures Reader Malcolm Miles, Tim Hall, Iain Borden, 2004 Cities are products of culture and sites where culture is made By presenting the best of classic and contemporary writing on the culture of cities this reader provides an overview of the diverse material on the interface between cities and culture

The City Reader Richard T. LeGates, Frederic Stout, 2015-07-16 The sixth edition of the highly successful The City Reader juxtaposes the very best classic and contemporary writings on the city to provide the comprehensive mapping of the terrain of Urban Studies and Planning old and new The City Reader is the anchor volume in the Routledge Urban Reader Series and is now integrated with all ten other titles in the series This edition has been extensively updated and expanded to reflect the latest thinking in each of the disciplinary areas included and in topical areas such as compact cities urban history place making sustainable urban development globalization cities and climate change the world city network the impact of technology on cities resilient cities cities in Africa and the Middle East and urban theory The new edition places greater emphasis on cities in the developing world globalization and the global city system of the future The plate sections have been revised and updated Sixty generous selections are included forty four from the fifth edition and sixteen new selections including three newly written exclusively for The City Reader The sixth edition keeps classic writings by authors such as Ebenezer Howard Ernest W Burgess LeCorbusier Lewis Mumford Jane Jacobs and Louis Wirth as well as the best contemporary writings of among others Peter Hall Manuel Castells David Harvey Saskia Sassen and Kenneth Jackson In addition to newly commissioned selections by Yasser Elshestawy Peter Taylor and Lawrence Vale new selections in the sixth edition include writings by Aristotle Peter Calthorpe Alberto Camarillo Filip DeBoech Edward Glaeser David Owen Henri Pirenne The Project for Public Spaces Jonas Rabinovich and Joseph Lietman Doug Saunders and Bish Sanyal The anthology features general and section introductions as well as individual introductions to the selected articles introducing the authors providing context relating the selection to other selection and providing a bibliography for further study The sixth edition includes fifty plates in four plate sections substantially revised from the fifth edition

The Sustainable Urban Development Reader Stephen M. Wheeler, Timothy Beatley, 2004 Bringing together classic readings from a wide variety of sources this key book investigates how our cities and towns can become more sustainable Thirty eight selections span issues such as land use planning urban design transportation ecological restoration economic development resource use and equity planning Section introductions outline the major themes whilst the editors introductions to the individual writings explain their interest and significance to wider debates Additional sections present twenty four case studies of real world sustainable urban planning examples sustainability planning exercises and further reading Providing background in theory practical application and vision in a clear accessible format The Sustainable Urban Development Reader is an essential resource for students professionals and indeed anyone interested in the future of urban environments

Cities of the Global South Reader Faranak Miraftab, Neema Kudva, 2014-10-10 The Cities of the Global South Reader adopts a fresh and critical approach to the field of urbanization in the developing world The Reader incorporates both early and emerging debates about the diverse trajectories of urbanization processes in the context of the restructured global alignments in the last three decades Emphasizing the historical legacies of colonialism the Reader recognizes the entanglement of conditions and concepts often understood in binary relations first third worlds wealth poverty development underdevelopment and inclusion exclusion By asking whose city whose development the Reader rigorously highlights the fractures along lines of class race gender and other socially and spatially constructed hierarchies in global South cities The Reader's thematic structure where editorial introductions accompany selected texts examines the issues and concerns that urban dwellers planners and policy makers face in the contemporary world These include the urban economy housing basic services infrastructure the role of non state civil society based actors planned interventions and contestations the role of diaspora capital the looming problem of adapting to climate change and the increasing spectre of violence in a post 9 11 transnational world The Cities of the Global South Reader pulls together a diverse set of readings from scholars across the world some of which have been written specially for the volume to provide an essential resource for a broad interdisciplinary readership at undergraduate and postgraduate levels in urban geography urban sociology and urban planning as well as disciplines related to international and development studies Editorial commentaries that introduce the central issues for each theme summarize the state of the field and outline an associated bibliography They will be of particular value for lecturers students and researchers making the Cities of the Global South Reader a key text for those interested in understanding contemporary urbanization processes

The Global Cities Reader Neil Brenner, Roger Keil, 2006

The Urban Sociology Reader Jan Lin, Christopher Mele, 2012-11-12 The urban world is an exciting terrain for investigating the central institutions structures and problems of the social world and how they have transformed through the last 200 years This Reader comprises sections on urban social theory racial and social difference in the city culture in everyday life culture and the urban economy globalization and transnational social relations and the regulation of urban space Drawing together seminal selections covering the nineteenth to the twenty first centuries this Reader includes forty three significant writings from eminent names such as Simmel Wirth Park Burgess DuBois Zukin Sassen and Harvey The 2nd edition illuminates more recent urban issues such as sprawl sustainability immigration and urban protest Selections are predominantly sociological but some readings cross disciplinary boundaries Providing an essential resource for students of urban studies this book brings together important but till now widely dispersed writings Editorial commentaries precede each entry introducing the text demonstrating its significance and outlining the issues surrounding its topic whilst the associated bibliography enables deeper investigations

The Urban and

Regional Planning Reader Eugenie Ladner Birch, 2009 The Urban and Regional Planning Reader draws together the very best of classic and contemporary writings to illuminate the planning of cities and metropolitan areas Forty seven generous selections include contributions from Lewis Mumford Jane Jacobs Ian McHarg Paul Davidoff Charles Harr Susan Fainstein and Charles J Hoch through to Timothy Beatley Jonathan Barnett Alex Garvin Tom Daniels Andres Duany and Barbara Faga The variety and wide selection of readings offers one of the most innovative amalgamations of planning research and practice The Reader lays out the context range of concerns history methods and key topics for twenty first century urban and regional planning Sections on the world of planning history and theory classic readings practice and current issues include writings with a focus on the distribution of space and place essays on housing transportation design environment community development the effects of cultural diversity and information technology on land use and other topics It displays the techniques used to direct and control growth including zoning master planning public budgeting and citizen participation It explores different types of plans distinguished by their scale and reference type It references analytical and presentation techniques and outlines ethical issues confronting planners This Urban and Regional Planning Reader provides an essential resource for students of planning drawing together important but widely dispersed writings and the associated bibliography is a resource which enables deeper investigations The synthesis is also valuable for lecturers and researches in the area and the pertinent editorial commentaries preceding each entry not only demonstrate its significance but also outline the issue surrounding the topic

The Urban Design Reader Michael Larice, Elizabeth Macdonald, 2006 The Globalizing Cities Reader Xuefei Ren, Roger Keil, 2017-10-12 The newly revised Globalizing Cities Reader reflects how the geographies of theory have recently shifted away from the western vantage points from which much of the classic work in this field was developed The expanded volume continues to make available many of the original and foundational works that underpin the research field while expanding coverage to familiarize students with new theoretical and epistemological positions as well as emerging research foci and horizons It contains 38 new chapters including key writings on globalizing cities from leading thinkers such as John Friedmann Michael Peter Smith Saskia Sassen Peter Taylor Manuel Castells Anthony King Jennifer Robinson Ananya Roy and Fulong Wu The new Reader reflects the fact that world and global city studies have evolved in exciting and wide ranging ways and the very notion of a distinct global class of cities has recently been called into question The sections examine the foundations of the field and processes of urban restructuring and global city formation A large number of new entries focus on the emerging urban worlds of Asia Latin America and Africa including Beijing Bogota Cairo Cape Town Delhi Istanbul Medellin Mumbai Phnom Penh Rio de Janeiro Sao Paulo and Shanghai The book also presents cases off the conventional map of global cities research such as smaller cities and less known urban regions that are undergoing processes of globalization The book is a key resource for students and scholars alike who seek an accessible compendium of the intellectual foundations of global urban studies as well as an overview of the emergent patterns of early 21st century
