The Water Of Life Spiritual Renewal In The Fairy Tale:

The Water of Life David Hart, 2013-06-14 The intensive study of Jungian psychology was amplified by another subject taught continuously while I was a student at the Jung Institute in Zurich Switzerland the psychology of fairy tales The study of fairy tales was the specialty of a fairly young single woman Dr Marie Louise von Franz She lectured to us English speaking students in well spoken English and the conviction and power of her voice made me feel how deep and meaningful these stories were to her Not only that I myself was immediately deeply affected by the convincing spiritual reality that was being presented to me in the stories themselves It was as if the reality of life came out here in a wholly new form untouched by the standard accepted form of common life What most struck me I think now was the following realization here in this story is a completely insoluble problem I want to follow it all the way through and to my surprise finally feel that this problem has been solved This outcome has been both essential and unbelievable to me As one who felt that life posed just such an insoluble problem I found the typical fairy tale both impossible and incredible I found in fairy tales a healing presence and possibility for the terror of my own early life This is the unexpressed feeling that kept me fastened on the totally unexpected subject of fairy tales

The Matrix and Meaning of Character Nancy J. Dougherty, Jacqueline J. West, 2013-12-02 Character structures underlie everyone's personality When rigidly defended they limit us yet as they become more flexible they can reveal sources of animation renewal and authenticity The Matrix and Meaning of Character guides the reader into an awareness of the archetypal depths that underlie character structures presenting an original developmental model in which current analytic theories are synthesised The authors examine nine character structures animating them with fairy tales mythic images and case material creating a bridge between the traditional language of psychopathology and the universal realm of image and symbol This book will appeal to all analytical psychologists psychoanalysts and psychotherapists who want to strengthen their clinical expertise It will help clinicians to extend their clinical insights beyond a strictly behavioural medical or cognitive approach revealing the potential of the human spirit

Water in Medieval Literature Albrecht Classen, 2017-08-15 Ecocritical thinking has sensitized us more than ever before to the tremendous importance of water for human life as it is richly reflected in the world of literature The great relevance of water also in the Middle Ages might come as a surprise for many readers but the evidence assembled here confirms that also medieval poets were keenly aware of the importance of water to sustain all life to provide understanding of life's secrets to mirror love and to connect the individual with God In eleven chapters major medieval European authors and their works are discussed here taking us from the world of Old Norse to Irish and Latin literature to German French English and Italian romances and other narratives

Constructs of "home" in Gloria Naylor's Quartet Claudia Drieling,2011 Pierre Teilhard de Chardin and Carl Gustav Jung: Side by Side Fred Gustafson,2015-03-21 Pierre Teilhard de Chardin and C G Jung Side by Side is an anthology written by authors from different backgrounds sharing how the lives of Pierre Teilhard de Chardin and Carl Gustav Jung impacted them personally and or how they understand the relevance of these two men for our present times Contributors to this fourth volume of the Fisher King Review include John Dourley Peter Dunlap Barbara Faris Fred R Gustafson John Giannini Richard W Hanhardt Robert Henderson Steven B Herrmann Jane A Kelley Jon Magnuson Francisco Paco Martorell Stan V McDaniel Dennis L Merritt and Laura A Weber Though C G Jung and Pierre Teilhard de Chardin never met their independent intellectual inquiries and courageous researches pushed the personal and collective soul forward and placed both of them at the foreground of needing to understand and integrate on a planetary level the core values of their expansive work Both Jung and de Chardin were concerned with science and religion and operated within these paradigms Both of them shook the world by offering up views on one hand of the profound depths of the human psyche and on the other presenting a profound re consideration of evolution as a process leading toward a social unification of the planet One used the concept of individuation the other spoke of evolution Each took these concepts to a creative depth so much so that the world they lived in either deeply admired or detested them Both had conflicts in their chosen fields Jung was a psychologist who used the field of science to explore the religious depths of the human soul by studying mythology world religions folk tales dreams and human behavior Chardin used the ground of religion to work in the field of science via paleontology geology and physics as he explored a deeper and relevant understanding of evolution Though each began from different intellectual platforms they each crisscrossed into the other's territory of inquiry and related their ideas to include the full scope of humanity One went deeply into soul and found matter whereas the other went deeply into matter and found soul In their own ways both spent their careers trying to heal the split between spirit and matter in the weltanschauung of their times reflected in the human psyche and in the general religious views permeating most of Western culture Creases in Culture Dennis Patrick Slattery,2014-01-15 This collection of essays written over a period of years entertains the shared place of psyche and poetics Dr Slattery has explored the manner in which the psyche is poetic and how poetry is deeply psycho mythical Influenced in part by the archetypal psychologist James Hillman's idea of the poetic basis of mind that comprises the soul's foundation. Slattery's writing moves into the interactive field in which myth is the ground for both psyche and poetry. The essays develop a further understanding of what has been called mythopoiesis, the fundamental myth-making and shaping capacity of the soul.

The Dream and Its Amplification Nancy Swift Furlotti, Erel Shalit, 2013. The Dream and Its Amplification unveils the language of the psyche that speaks to us in our dreams. We all dream at least 4-6 times each night yet remember very few. Those that rise to the surface of our conscious awareness beckon to be understood like a letter addressed to us that arrives by post. Why would we not open it? The difficulty is in understanding what the dream symbols and images mean. Through amplification, C. G. Jung formulated a method of unveiling the deeper meaning of symbolic images. This becomes particularly important when the image does not carry a personal meaning or significance and is not part of a person's everyday life. Fourteen Jungian Analysts from around the world have contributed chapters to this book on areas of special interest to them in their work with dreams. This offers the seasoned dream worker as well as the novice great insight into the meaning of the dream and its amplification. Contributors to this edition of the Fisher King Review include Erel Shalit, Nancy Swift Furlotti, Thomas Singer, Michael Conforti, Ken Kimmel, Gotthilf Isler, Nancy Qualls Corbett, Henry Abramovitch, Kathryn Madden, Ron Schenk, Naomi Ruth Lowinsky, Christian Gaillard, Monika Wikman, and Gilda Frantz.

The Elder Edda and Early Forms of the Epic Eleazar Moiseevich Meletinskiĭ, 1998. Encyclopedia of Religion, 2005. Margaret Atwood's fairy-tale sexual politics Sharon Rose Wilson, 1993. School Renewal Torin M. Finser, 2001. As a result of today's crisis in education, people are beginning to realize that schools involve far more than providing children with knowledge and skills. Schools are communities and like all communities may be healthy or unhealthy. School Renewal addresses the problems and challenges of a school community. Through the use of fairy tales, myths, and the personal experience of Waldorf education, Torin Finser describes how both teachers and parents can come to grips with common problems such as burnout, interpersonal conflicts, and the traps of routine. Most important, the author stresses that an educational community must come to terms with the many unseen dimensions of each individual. He shows how these little-understood aspects of the mind can be cultivated and nourished to keep the school and education alive. School Renewal does not offer formulas and slapdash solutions. Rather, it encourages a whole new way of thinking about education and personal growth for children and for the adults who care about them. If one wish could be granted me on behalf of school renewal, I would ask for significant improvement in the quality of sleep afforded to parents and teachers. No other change has the potential to do more good than simply eliminating the state of chronic exhaustion found by the end of the week in most schools. Torin Finser understands what it's like to deeply care about the education of our children. His message will be a healing balm for those open to his wise and practical counsel. I want to rush out and buy a copy of this book for every teacher and parent I know. Eric Utne, founder of Utne Reader. Extremely accessible, down to earth, and full of very important insights. I highly recommend this book. Dave Alsop.

Chairman Association of Waldorf Schools of North America Splendid not just teachers but parents students and just plain stressed out citizens would benefit from the wisdom information and insight Finser offers Joseph Chilton Pearce author of Magical Child and Evolution's End Wise guidance for those of us who want to be good stewards of our children and the schools that serve them Parker J Palmer author of The Courage to Teach and Let Your Life Speak An exciting and refreshing book for parents and teachers in his clear and concise writing Torin has shown us how to bring common sense back to our schools Jim Grant Executive Director Staff Development for Educators For Finser school renewal is about self development the suggestions offered here contribute to new ways of thinking about education and personal growth Highly recommended for school administrators teachers community groups and parents Library Journal Shows that a healthy school community is one that is able to recognize and work with the problems that can mar even the most liberal and creative educational systems burnout stress and interpersonal conflict NAPRA Review
