The Women Are Marching The Second Sex And The Palestinian Revolution:

The Women are Marching Philippa Strum, 1992 Three months after the intifada began with no recourse to law or redress in the face of the arrests the beatings the torture and the shootings by the Israeli military Palestinian women took to the streets holding more than one hundred marches a week Led by the women s committees that were formed in the late 1970s they have since gone on to create an entire social and economic infrastructure to end Palestinian reliance on Israel In their march toward equality they are enforcing strike days and boycotts of Israeli products providing underground health care building agricultural cooperatives and small scale industries opening alternative schools and smuggling food to communities under curfew The extent to which the massive transformation in the lives of Palestinian women will endure once independence is achieved remains a question

Arab Feminisms: Gender and Equality in the Middle East Jean Makdisi, Noha Bayoumi, Rafif Rida Sidawi, 2014-01-29 Is there a truly Arab feminist movement Is there such a thing as Islamic feminism What does it mean to be a feminist in the Arab World today Does it mean grappling with the main theoretical elements of the movement Or does it mean involvement at the grassroots level with everyday activism This book examines the issues and controversies that are hotly debated and contested when it comes to the concept of feminism and gender in Arab society today It offers explorations of the theoretical issues at play the latest developments of feminist discourse literary studies and sociology as well as empirical data concerning the situation of women in Arab countries such as Iraq and Palestine It is certainly not surprising that when looking at the situation on the ground in many countries of the Arab World particularly Palestine Iraq and Lebanon as well as Sudan issues of war civil conflict military occupation and imperialism often override those of gender The place of feminism in this context is extremely problematic as nationalist sectarian religious and class interests not to mention the interests of occupation authorities and the resistance movements that oppose them supersede feminism as a public concern even among many women Arab feminists are thus either co-opted by these interests or find themselves in the frustrating position of negotiating their way through a minefield of contradictory imperatives and loyalties Arab Feminisms examines these contexts and sheds light upon the difficult position in which feminists often find themselves It looks at different social and political situations such as the development of Palestinian feminist discourse in a post Oslo world the impact of the civil war in Lebanon on women and Kuwaiti women s struggles for equality This book therefore offers valuable theoretical analysis as well as indispensable first hand accounts of feminism in the Arab World for those researching gender relations in the Middle East and beyond

The Modern Middle East Ilan Pappé, 2005 The Gulf states Two introductory chapters on political and economic history set the broader context The main text focuses on the experience of everyday people from Ottoman and colonial times through the present Rural and urban history popular culture music literature theatre and other media women and the many faces of Islam are the chapter topics Annotation 2006 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews.com

The Search for Lasting Peace Dr Rosalind Boyd, 2014-07-28 Presenting the human security agenda as a policy response to the changing nature of violent conflicts and war this collection traces its evolution in relation to conflicts in different contexts Burma India Palestine Canada East Timor Guatemala Peru and African countries and from the perspective of gender addresses initiatives for peace with justice Cases are analysed when the human security agenda including UNSC resolution 1325 was in its initial phase and point to both the weakness of the concept and the unexpected direction it has taken These discussions always relevant are more urgent than ever as gender based violence against women has increased resulting in new UNSC resolutions Some chapters suggest that militarism and economic globalization must be directly confronted Many of the contributors to the volume bridge the gap between academic research and activism as scholar activists with an engaged connection to the situations they are describing Human security remains an active component of policy and academic debates in security studies women s and gender studies development studies history and political economy as well as within NGO communities This rich collection fills a needed gap in the literature and it does so in a language and style that is clear accessible and reader friendly

Genders 23 Thomas C. Foster, Carol Siegel, Ellen E. Berry, 1996-04 What do narratives by British suffragettes of being forcibly fed have in common with the representation of indigenous women in Canadian police archives How are literary representations of domestic violence related to the use of silence as a strategy of resistance in African American women s writing How are modernist fictions of gay male desire connected with ambiguous sexual performances in rock music or with images of Vietnam veterans in American horror movies What does a narrative of women s participation in Bengali national resistance movements share with an ethnographic study of prostitution in Papua New Guinea These are the some of the specific questions raised by the essays in this volume which examines a wide variety of historical and cultural locations where differently sexed gendered and racialized bodies have been constructed More generally this volume addresses theoretical debates over whether embodiment is best understood through representations or performances Are bodies written or enacted The different answers to these questions have important consequences for how we understand the inscription of bodies with systems of power and the possibilities that exist for resisting those systems go to the Genders website
