Social Scientific Models for Interpreting the Bible John Pilch, 2021-10-01 Fourteen members of The Context Group honor Bruce J Malina and his scholarship in this volume by following his consistent example of developing or using explicit social scientific models to interpret documents from the ancient Mediterranean world Ordinary features of that cultural world such as gossip reciprocity a pervasive military presence the power of women and becoming a follower of Jesus stand out with greater clarity in the Bible when a reader understands the cultural matrix in which such social dynamics function These essays reflect The Context Group s more than twenty years of collaborative experience in researching the cultural context of the Bible New insights are built on the solidly established foundations of their earlier cross cultural studies Readers will find the individual essays enlightening and challenging Taken as a whole they form a valuable resource and a stimulating and helpful aid to further study

Acts F. Scott Spencer, 1997-01-01 This reading offers a traveller s guide through the book of Acts charting both narrative features plot development character building and shifting points of view and cultural scenarios informing the story honor shame contests patron client relations and purity pollution boundaries Within this literary cultural framework Spencer undertakes to map the temporal spatial and social settings of each segment of the Acts journey While often detecting internal repetitive patterns along the way as well as comparative links with the preceding Lukan gospel and Jewish scriptures this reading also exposes certain dramatic tensions within Acts such as a double message regarding women s prophetic ministry and distinctive moves beyond prior narratives The element of surprise is maximized so that the commentary reads somewhat like a first time exploration of the text

Pillars in the History of Biblical Interpretation, Volume 3 Stanley E. Porter, Zachary K. Dawson, 2021-06-07 This third volume like its predecessors adds to the growing body of literature concerned with the history of biblical interpretation With eighteen essays on nineteen biblical interpreters volume 3 expands the scope of scholars both traditional and modern covered in this now multivolume series Each chapter provides a biographical sketch of its respective scholar s an overview of their major contributions to the field explanations of their theoretical and methodological approaches to interpretation and evaluations and applications of their methods By focusing on the contexts in which these scholars lived and worked these essays show what defining features qualify these scholars as pillars in the history of biblical interpretation While identifying a scholar as a pillar is somewhat subjective this volume defines a pillar as one who has made a distinctive contribution by using and exemplifying a clear method that has pushed the discipline forward at least within a given context and time period This volume is ideal for any class on the history of biblical interpretation and for those who want a greater understanding of how the field of biblical studies has developed and how certain interpreters have played a formative role in that development

The New Testament World Bruce J. Malina, 2001-01-01 A classroom standard for two decades The New Testament World Insights from Cultural Anthropology has introduced students to both the New Testament and the social scientific study of the New Testament This revised and expanded third edition offers new chapters on envy and the Jesus movement updates chapters from earlier editions augments the bibliography and offers student study questions

The Path to Salvation in Luke's Gospel MiJa Wi, 2019-05-23 This book investigates Luke's message of salvation in relation to socio economic issues and thus concerns salvation of the rich as well as the poor With a narrative reading of Luke's Gospel built on careful examination of its socio economic context it demonstrates that Luke's message of salvation is best understood as 1 Divine mercy which champions the cause of the poor and redresses the injustice of the world 2 Its human embodiment and 3 Divine reward promised to those who enact mercy Wi argues that Luke's question of what must we do juxtaposes salvation with doing posing interesting questions with respect to the salvation of the rich This volume highlights good news to the poor in terms of divine mercy and justice shows that the reception of divine mercy calls for practices which embody it and above all clarifies Luke's notion of salvation of the rich which will happen as participation in the salvation of the poor Wi's conclusion challenges its readers by asking the question along with Luke's audience What must we do

Patronage in Early Christianity Alan B. Wheatley, 2011-04-14 How did the community we glimpse in the New Testament become an institution quite willing to have the emperor Constantine as a primary public partner By tracing the use of resources titles and functions of leaders and patterns of honor giving Wheatley traces from a wide variety of sources both acceptance and revision of Roman patronage in this countercultural community Along the way it is possible to see dissident groups like the Montanists and Marcionites more clearly and sympathetically and to ask ourselves some pertinent questions about how a Christian community might function in the twenty first century

Interpersonal Reconciliation between Christians in a Shame-Oriented Culture Mano Emmanuel, 2020-11-30 Interpersonal conflict is one of the greatest threats to the health and growth of the church worldwide Yet despite their best intentions Christian leaders often discover that the cause of recurring conflict remains unclear and prescribed techniques for conflict resolution are ineffective in their communities In this Sri Lankan case study Dr Mano Emmanuel examines the specifics of interpersonal conflict within a shame oriented culture Taking an interdisciplinary approach she incorporates cultural anthropology missiology and communication studies into her analysis identifying seven aspects of culture that must be addressed if reconciliation is to be fully experienced in the Sri

Lankan church Highlighting the parallels between contemporary honor shame cultures and the honor shame context of the New Testament the author provides specific suggestions for experiencing biblical reconciliation while maintaining cultural sensitivity and protecting the honor of those involved

Reading with a Passion Jeffrey Staley, 2002-06-01 In this strikingly personal account of recent literary approaches to the Bible Jeffrey Staley shows how people's life experiences relate to what they read in the Scriptures He illustrates his argument from theories of autobiography where recent literary and feminist critiques provide him with tools for reflecting upon his childhood on a Navajo reservation and his family's five generations of contact with the Navajo people in northern Arizona and New Mexico Using Tony Hillerman's popular detective novels as a lens to refract his own childhood memories Staley investigates how his cross cultural childhood and family history have contributed to his understanding of the Fourth Gospel By combining such diverse materials as popular fiction medieval passion plays cultural anthropology rhetorical studies and autobiographical reflection Staley takes his readers on a fascinating spiritual and intellectual journey through the Gospel of John
