The Steve Biko Memorial Lectures 2000 2008:

The Steve Biko Memorial Lectures Steve Biko Foundation, 2011-07-12 Explore the enduring legacy of Stephen Bantu Biko through the insightful Steve Biko Memorial Lectures delivered by Africa's foremost scholars, artists and leaders. The Steve Biko Memorial Lectures 2000-2008 is a compelling compilation of the annual lectures held by the Steve Biko Foundation since 2000. These lectures delve into the inextricable link between the individual and society, the challenges and opportunities faced by developing nations, and attempt to define a mandate for the current generation of leadership. Described as a resuscitative moment, this thought-provoking series probes the enduring legacy and leadership of Stephen Bantu Biko in a contemporary context. Published in commemoration of Biko's life and legacy, this book aims to contribute to realizing the purpose for which he lived and died: restoring people to their true humanity. Explore crucial themes of democracy, human rights, and post-colonialism in this essential collection of lectures shedding light on the ongoing struggle for equality and justice in Africa and beyond.

The Steve Biko Memorial Lectures, 2000-2008 Steve Biko Foundation, 2009 This title is published in commemoration and celebration of the life and legacy of Steve Biko in the hope that it will contribute to realising the purpose for which he lived and died: restoring people to their true humanity. (Post)apartheid

Conditions D. Hook, 2013-08-27 Post-apartheid Conditions: Psychoanalysis and Social Formation advances a series of psychoanalytic perspectives on contemporary South Africa, exploring key psychosocial topics such as space, identity, social fantasy, the body, whiteness, memory, and nostalgia. Fanon, Psychoanalysis, and Critical Decolonial Psychology Derek Hook, 2025-04-08 This groundbreaking book examines the psychological dimension of decolonial thought in reference to foundational texts. Previously published as A Critical Psychology of the Postcolonial, this new edition foregrounds the central role of Fanon's psychology. Highlighting the contributions of anti-colonial authors to the theorization of racism and oppression, the book demonstrates the pertinence of postcolonial and decolonial thought for critical social psychology and psychoanalysis via an investigation of a series of key topics. It explores the psychology of embodiment and racialization, resistance strategies to oppression, extra-discursive facets of racism, the phobogenic and sexual dimensions of anti-Blackness, and the roles of desire, fantasy, and unconscious in ideologies of racism. The book makes a distinctive contribution through discussing the work of authors drawn from anti-apartheid, psychoanalytic, and critical social theory traditions, including Steve Biko, J. M. Coetzee, Frantz Fanon, Julia Kristeva, Chabani Manganyi, and Slavoj Žižek. This second edition continues to showcase a crucial set of critical resources for an anti-racist decolonial agenda and is fully updated with new discussion, references, and images, with a new chapter on desire, fantasy, and apartheid ideology to strengthen the book's engagement with apartheid racism. This is an invaluable text not only for students of critical social psychology, psychoanalysis, and sociology, but for students enrolled in courses on race, racism, or decolonial studies. It will also appeal to postgraduates, academics, and anyone interested in psychoanalysis in relation to societal and political issues. A Critical Psychology of the Postcolonial Derek

Hook,2012-03-15 An oft neglected element of postcolonial thought is the explicitly psychological dimension of many of its foundational texts This unprecedented volume explores the relation between these two disciplines by treating the work of a variety of anti colonial authors as serious psychological contributions to the theorization of racism and oppression This approach demonstrates the pertinence of postcolonial thought for critical social psychology and opens up novel perspectives on a variety of key topics in social psychology These include the psychology of embodiment and racialization resistance strategies to oppression extra discursive facets of racism the unconscious dimension of stereotypes the intersection of psychological and symbolic modalities of power In addition the book makes a distinctive contribution to the field of postcolonial studies by virtue of its eclectic combination of authors drawn from anti apartheid psychoanalytic and critical social theory traditions including Homi Bhabha Steve Biko J M Coetzee Frantz Fanon Julia Kristeva Chabani Manganyi and Slavoj Žižek The South African focus serves to emphasize the ongoing historical importance of the anti apartheid struggle for today's globalized world A Critical Psychology of the Postcolonial is an invaluable text for social psychology and sociology students enrolled in courses on racism or cultural studies It will also appeal to postgraduates academics and anyone interested in psychoanalysis in relation to societal and political issues

National Healing, Integration and Reconciliation in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando,2019-12-06 This book brings together scholars from diverse backgrounds to provide interdisciplinary perspectives on national healing integration and reconciliation in Zimbabwe Taking into account the complex nature of healing across moral political economic cultural psychological and spiritual dimensions of communities and the nation the chapters discuss approaches disparities tensions and solutions to healing and reconciliation within a multidisciplinary framework Arguing that Zimbabwe's development agenda is severely compromised by the dominance of violence and militancy the contributors analyse the challenges possibilities and opportunities for national healing This book will be of interest to scholars of African studies conflict and reconciliation and development studies

Steve Biko Traci Wyatt,2020-07-20 During the mid 1960s to the late 1970s black college students in South Africa became frustrated with apartheid Bantu education policy Bantustans white liberal organizations and European branded Christianity Their anger with white nationalism under apartheid caused them to mobilize rise up and fight against systemic oppression for their liberation The timing was pregnant with purpose for the new generation of leaders to rise since the ANC and PAC were banned creating an aboveground silence amongst black anti apartheid revolutionaries The reader will be lured into the struggle blood loss tears and victories of blacks fighting against apartheid in South Africa Readers will learn about the ideology and way of life adopted by black youth known as black consciousness The book analyzes how students became so devoted in their beliefs and application of the tenets of black consciousness that it was likened to the gospel message It describes how the teachings of black consciousness were used as psychological weapons of war to liberate the minds of blacks white liberals and the white apartheid regime The primary focus of this book is on the life message and journey of BC's preeminent leader

Steve Biko who led the radical movement along with his colleagues to empower his people and encourage the nation to seek and possess truer humanity His message takes center stage while his life takes several unexpected turns as the system hunts him down However the most controversial yet surprising component of this work would be the comparison of Biko's life and death with Jesus's life and death at Calvary from the cradle to the grave Though Biko was not necessarily a professed Christian his life's work and message make chilling parallels to the life of Jesus Christ which are captured here This book is bound to awaken the soul and mind of the reader as they become raptured in the intersectionality of race justice and faith

Trauma, Memory, and Narrative in the Contemporary South African Novel, 2012-01-01 The contributions to this volume probe the complex relationship of trauma memory and narrative By looking at the South African situation through the lens of trauma they make clear how the psychic deformations and injuries left behind by racism and colonialism cannot be mended by material reparation or by simply reversing economic and political power structures Western trauma theories as developed by scholars such as Caruth van der Kolk Herman and others are insufficient for analysing the more complex situation in a postcolony such as South Africa This is because Western trauma concepts focus on the individual traumatized by a single identifiable event that causes PTSD Post Traumatic Stress Disorder What we need is an understanding of trauma that sees it not only as a result of an identifiable event but also as the consequence of an historical condition in the case of South Africa that of colonialism and more specifically of apartheid For most black and coloured South Africans the structural violence of apartheid's laws were the existential condition under which they had to exist The living conditions in the townships pass laws relocation and racial segregation affected great parts of the South African population and were responsible for the collective traumatization of several generations This trauma however is not an unclaimed and unclaimable experience Postcolonial thinkers who have been reflecting on the experience of violence and trauma in a colonial context writing from within a Fanonian tradition have on the contrary believed in the importance of reclaiming the past and of transcending mechanisms of victimization and resentment so typical of traumatized consciousnesses Narration and the novel have a decisive role to play here

Monuments and Memory in Africa John Sodiq Sanni, Madalitso Zililo Phiri, 2024-03-05 This book investigates how monuments have been used in Africa as tools of oppression and dominance from the colonial period up to the present day The book asks what the decolonisation of historical monuments and geographies might entail and how this could contribute to the creation of a post imperial world In recent times African movements to overthrow the symbols and monuments of the colonial era have gathered pace as a means of renaming reclassifying and reimagining colonial identities and spaces Movements such as RhodesMustFall in South Africa have sprung up around the world connected by a history of Black life struggles erasures oppression suppression and the depression of Black biopolitics This book provides an important multidisciplinary intervention in the discourse on monuments and memories asking what they are what they have been used to represent and ultimately what they can reveal about past and present forms of pain and oppression Drawing on insights from philosophy historical sociology politics museum and literary studies this book will be of interest to a range of scholars with an interest in the decolonisation of global African history

The Spirit of Resistance in Music and Spoken Word of South Africa's Eastern Cape Lindsay Michie, 2021-09-20 From an array of prominent activists including Nelson Mandela and Steve Biko to renowned performers and oral poets such as Johnny Dyani and Samuel Mqhayi the Eastern Cape region plays a unique role in the history of South African protest politics and creativity The Spirit of Resistance in Music and Spoken Word of South Africa's Eastern Cape concentrates on the Eastern Cape's contribution to the larger narrative of the connection between creativity mass movements and the forging of a modern African identity and focuses largely on the amaXhosa population Lindsay Michie explores Eastern Cape performance artists activists organizations and movements that used inventive and historical means to raise awareness of their plight and brought pressure to bear on the authorities and systems that caused it all the while exhibiting the depth originality and inspiration of their culture
