ABOUT VOLUME FOUR All the world s religions are experiencing rapid change due to a confluence of social and economic global forces Factors such as the pervasive intrusion of globalizing political and economic developments polarized and morally equivalent presentations seen in the media and the sense of surety demanded in and promised by a culture dominated by science are some of the factors that have placed extreme pressure on all religious traditions This has stimulated unprecedented responses by religious groups ranging from fundamentalism to the syncretistic search for meaning

As religion takes on new forms the balance between individual and community is disrupted and reconfigured Religions often lose the capacity to recall their ultimate purpose or lead their adherents toward it This is the situation we call the crisis of the holy It is a confluence of threats challenges and opportunities for all religions This volume explores the contours of pressures changes and transformations and reflects on how all our religions are changing By identifying commonalities across religions as they respond to these pressures The Crisis of the Holy recommends ways religious traditions might cope with these changes and how they might join forces in doing so Contributors Vincent J Cornell Alon Goshen Gottstein Sidney H Griffith Maria Reis Habito B Barry Levy Deepak Sarma Michael von Br ck ABOUT VOLUME FIVE The chapters collected in this book prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy address the subject of religious leadership The subject is of broad relevance in the training of religious leaders and in the practice of religious leadership As such it is also germane to religious thought where reflections on religious leadership occupy an important place What does it mean to be a religious leader in today s world To what degree are the challenges that confront religious leadership today the same perennial challenges that have arrested the attention of the faithful and their leaders for generations and to what degree do we encounter challenges today that are unique to our day and age One dimension is surely unique and that is the very ability to explore these issues from an interreligious perspective and to consider challenges opportunities and strategies across religious traditions Studying the theme across six faith traditions Christianity Islam Judaism Sikhism Hinduism and Buddhism The Future of Religious Leadership World Religions in Conversation recognizes the common challenges to present day religious leadership Contributors Awet Andemicael Timothy J Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Anantanand Rambachan Maria Reis Habito Meir Sendor Balwant Singh Dhillon Miroslav Volf VOLUME SIX One of the biggest challenges for relations between religions is the view of the religious Other The question touches the roots of our theological views The Religious Other Hostility Hospitality and the Hope of Human Flourishing explores the views of multiple religious traditions on how to regard otherness How does one move from hostility to hospitality How can hospitality be understood not simply as social hospitality but as theological hospitality making room for the religious Other on theological grounds What is our vision for the flourishing of the Other while respecting his otherness This volume is an exercise in constructive interreligious theology By including Abrahamic and non Abrahamic traditions it approaches these challenges from multiple perspectives highlighting commonalities in approach and ways in which one tradition might inspire another Contributors Vincent J Cornell Alon Goshen Gottstein Richard P Hayes Lord Rabbi Jonathan Sacks Deepak Sarma Stephen W Sykes Dharma Master Hsin Tao Ashok Vohra Kama Muta Alan Page Fiske, 2019-11-26 This book describes a ubiquitous and potent emotion that has only rarely and recently been studied in any systematic manner The words that come closest to denoting it in English are being moved or touched having a heart warming feeling feeling nostalgic feeling patriotic or pride in family or team In religious contexts when the emotion is intense it may be labeled ecstasy mystical rapture burning in the bosom or being touched by the Spirit All of these are instances of what scientists now call kama muta Sanskrit moved by love Alan Page Fiske shows that what evokes this emotion is the sudden creation intensification renewal repair or recall of a communal sharing relationship when love ignites or people feel newly connected He explains the social psychological cultural and likely evolutionary processes involved and how they interlock Kama muta is described as it manifests in diverse settings at many points in history across scores of cultures in everyday experiences as well as the peak moments of life The chapters illuminate the occurrence of kama muta in a range of contexts including religion oratory literature sport social media and nature The book will be of interest to students and scholars from a number of disciplines who are interested in emotion or social relationships Supplementary notes can be found online at www.routledge.com 9780367220945

Transactions, Transgressions, Transformation Heide Fehrenbach, Uta G. Poiger, 1999-12-01 American culture has been one of the most controversial exports of the United States greeted with enthusiasm by some with hostility by others Yet few societies escape its influence However not all changes should be interpreted simply as Americanization The shaping of the postwar world has been much more complex than this term implies as is shown in this volume that explores the links between Americanization and modernity in Western Europe and Japan In considering the impact of products and images ranging from movies and music to fashion and architecture a multi disciplinary group of contributors asks how American culture has been employed internationally in the articulation of postwar identities be they national or subnational socially sanctioned or socially transgressive Their essays on France Italy Germany and Japan move beyond the simple paradigms of colonization and democratic modernization yet retain a sensitivity to the asymmetries in the postwar power relationships between these countries and the United States An extensive introduction historically locates changing interpretations of American influences abroad and suggests the problems and promises of Americanization as an analytical tool Its comparative focus and interdisciplinary scope will appeal to a wide range of students and scholars of cold war and post cold war history
