The Emerging Second Generation in Asia Pei-Chia Lan, Minjeong Kim, 2025-08-26 Presenting six case studies from Taiwan, Japan, South Korea, Singapore and Hong Kong, this volume marks one of the first forums dedicated to the emerging second generation in Asia. It aims to enhance the literature on the second generation which has predominantly focused on North America and Western Europe. Rather than adhering to the assimilation paradigm, this book highlights the complex, non-linear pathways of incorporation and ambivalent identity politics faced by second generation youth in Asia. It examines how children of international marriage complicate the ethnoscape of their respective societies. By emphasizing the geopolitical contexts and state policies shaping immigrant parents' migration and settlement, chapters explore how these macrostructural factors influence second generation children's senses of belonging and membership. Furthermore, chapters analyze the distinct manifestations of transnationalism in Asian contexts, blurring the traditional distinction between sending and receiving countries in the life trajectories of the second generation. This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies. Q News, 2002. Mediating Faiths Guy Redden, 2016-04-29 Religion is living culture. It continues to play a role in shaping political ideologies, institutional practices, communities of interest, ways of life and social identities. Mediating Faiths brings together scholars working across a range of fields including cultural studies, media, sociology, anthropology, cultural theory and religious studies in order to facilitate greater understanding of recent transformations. Contributors illustrate how religion continues to be responsive to the very latest social and cultural developments in the environments in which it exists. They raise fundamental questions concerning new media and religious expression, religious youth cultures, the links between spirituality, personal development and consumer culture and contemporary intersections of religion, identity and politics. Together, the chapters demonstrate how belief in the superempirical is negotiated relative to secular concerns in the twenty-first century. The Evolution of Alienation Lauren Langman, Devorah Kalekin-Fishman, 2006 Building on the Marxian view of alienation as the inevitable consequence of wage labor that divests human beings of control over their life forces, The Evolution of Alienation provides new insights into contemporary conditions. Contributors explore how alienation is fostered not only by television, freak shows and shock music but also by programmed schooling and even by some scientific theories. Others show that the contradictory relationships possible in some domains among the new technologies and domestic work disclose niches of fulfillment that belie alienation.
