Unisa Past Exam Papers With Answers Economics:

Women, Economic Development, and Higher Education Diane E. Eynon, 2017-06-19 This book is a multi disciplinary exploration of the intersection relationship and connection between higher education economic development and gender in post Apartheid South Africa In just twenty years South Africa has rewritten its constitution restructured its macroeconomic growth and development policies restructured its higher education system and made a commitment to provide opportunity for all its citizens specifically those who have historically been marginalized women and blacks Eynon weaves together these unique perspectives to illustrate how these multiple domains map onto women and the critical role they play in the present and future of the country Gender equality and women s empowerment and education were considered key drivers to South Africa s transformation

Economic Imperatives and Ethical Values in Global Business S. Prakash Sethi, Oliver F. Williams, 2012-12-06 religious values at the office door Apartheid was an evil and business had great power in South Africa Where there is power there is also responsibility I prayed about this long and hard I pushed the companies as much as I thought I could There were advances and there were setbacks but finally we prevailed and the Blacks of South Africa secured their freedom My effort in behalf of the Sullivan Principles was only one of a number of significant efforts of the anti apartheid movement All of those other efforts must be recognized as well The Sullivan Principles and the manner in which they were implemented in South Africa were in the nature of a grand experiment in the sociopolitical change and economic uplifting of the Black people of South Africa What is even more important is that the Principles were driven by an ethical and moral imperative and were voluntarily implemented by a group of enlightened United States multinational corporations No grand design or vision is ever perfect We fall prey to human follies limited understanding of the future and necessary compromises to seek not what is perfect but what is possible Thus any such effort is subject to criticism from those who seek ideological purity and those who seek to minimize the impact of change from the status quo Economic Analysis and Policy, 2003

Pretoria Leadership Conference Derick De Jongh, 2024-11-01 The Albert Luthuli Centre for Responsible Leadership invited papers related to responsible leadership from a trans disciplinary perspective involving the social and natural sciences Subsequent to a lengthy review process fifteen authors were invited to present at the the 3rd International Conference on Responsible Leadership from these five papers were finally selected to appear in this Special Edition Management leadership and business knowledge by itself cannot ensure a sustainable and equitable future What is needed is an integration of knowledge about responsible leadership across disciplinary boundaries ranging from management studies and the physical sciences to law the humanities and social science Only by integrating across current disciplinary boundaries can we find hope for generating what has been termed earth system governance a way for humanity to manage the complexities of the world to create a just equitable and sustainable world for all The five papers included in this special
