Contested Hospitalities in a Time of Migration Synnøve Bendixsen, Trygve Wyller, 2019-10-28 This book explores the duality of openness and restriction in approaches to migrants in the Nordic countries As borders have become less permeable to non Europeans it presents research on civil society practices that oppose the existing border regimes and examine the values that they express The volume offers case studies from across the region that demonstrate opposition to increasingly restricted borders and which seek to offer hospitality to migrant One topic is whether these practices impact and transform the Nordic Protestant trajectory The book considers whether such actions are indicative of new sensibilities and values in which traditional categories and binaries are becoming less relevant It also discusses what these practices of hospitality indicate about the changing relationship between voluntary organizations and the Nordic welfare states in the time of migration As such it will appeal to scholars of sociology anthropology and religious studies with interests in migration civil society resistance and social values Populism and Liberal Democracy Takis S. Race and Crisis Suman Gupta, Satnam Virdee, 2020-05-21 As the European Union seemingly teetered from a financial crisis to an immigration crisis around 2015 and onwards discourses of race appeared to congeal in various member states In some instances these came with familiarly essentialist constructions in others these were refracted cautiously through concerns about security national and cultural integrity distribution of public resources and employment and so on New political alignments surfaced on the back of such concerns and established organizations changed their agendas accordingly The border regimes of EU member states became increasingly fraught both in terms of their everyday operations and in terms of the close attention and vociferous debates they attracted In most instances the internal and external borders of the EU hardened and with increasing frequency the cohesion of the transnational union seemed on the verge of fracturing Indeed very real fissures opened up with secessionist moves and referendums Through each step in this juncture of upheavals the significance of race has been reiterated in tangential ways and sometimes with unabashed straightforwardness This volume explores this juncture around 2015 and the constructions of race and of crisis therein for specific contexts and from a range of disciplinary perspectives The introduction gives an overview of the juncture focusing on the rise of Eurosceptic nationalist political parties and their electoral success Subsequent chapters are addressed to the management and representation of immigrants crossing the Mediterranean border regimes in the Czech Republic the narratives that converged on Brexit riots in England antagonistic popular movements in Sweden racialization in crisis management in Italy perceptions of migrants in Greece and how race may be structured in and challenged through classroom pedagogy This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies
