Melbourne based real estate agent and property developer who specialises in sourcing developing and directing clients investments and who once teamed with Milly became involved with a nefarious Hong Kong banking group When meeting them to hold something over Mathew the bankers introduced a lady of the night But Heidi was no ordinary honey pot Thus a mysterious conundrum eventuated resulting in them falling in love Mathew returned to Melbourne and it was up to Heidi to make a massive change in her life The book ends with Will she or won t she The sequel commences with Heidi on the plane readying to land in Melbourne and she is still debating whether she has made the right move However she has another plan up her sleeve which involves Mathew and his team of professional property consultants whom she must meet to and decide if together they can bring her impossible dream to fruition Later Heidi conspires to take Mathew back to Hoi An to reconnect with her influential brother who with Heidi s manipulative manoeuvring envisages a truly incredible idea that will boost her unrealistic dream of becoming a major international vision And this will entice a major Las Vegas criminal organisation to seek a controlling influence The expansion of Mathew s business creates the opportunity to meld his family into the enterprise and an unexpected future direction is a bombshell for one of his children

Organizing Global Technology Flows Pierre-Yves Donzé, Shigehiro Nishimura, 2013-11-12 Research on the international transfer of technology in economics and management literature has primarily focused on the role of countries and that of companies in particular multinational enterprises MNEs Similarly economic and business historians have tended to view international technology transfer as a way for economically backward countries to acquire new technologies in order to catch up with more developed economies This volume provides a more in depth understanding of how the international transfer of technologies is organized and in particular challenges the core periphery model that is still dominant in the extant literature By looking beyond national systems of innovation and statistics on foreign trade patent registration and foreign direct investment the book sheds more light on the variety of actors involved in the transfer process including engineers entrepreneurs governments public bodies firms etc and on how they make use of a broad set of national and international institutions facilitating technology transfer Put differently the volume offers a better understanding of the complexity of global technology flows by examining the role and actions of the different actors involved By bringing together a number of original case studies covering many different countries over the period from the late 19th to the 21st century the book demonstrates how technology is being transferred through complex processes involving a variety of actors from several countries using the national and international institutional frameworks
