Troubled Bodies Troubled Bodies:

The Distressed Body Drew Leder, 2016-10-17 Bodily pain and distress come in many forms They can well up from within at times of serious illness but the body can also be subjected to harsh treatment from outside The medical system is often cold and depersonalized and much worse are conditions experienced by prisoners in our age of mass incarceration and by animals trapped in our factory farms In this pioneering book Drew Leder offers bold new ways to rethink how we create and treat distress clearing the way for more humane social practices Leder draws on literary examples clinical and philosophical sources his medical training and his own struggle with chronic pain He levies a challenge to the capitalist and Cartesian models that rule modern medicine Similarly he looks at the root paradigms of our penitentiary and factory farm systems and the way these produce distressed bodies asking how such institutions can be reformed Writing with coauthors ranging from a prominent cardiologist to long term inmates he explores alternative environments that can better humanize even spiritualize the way we treat one another offering a very different vision of medical criminal justice and food systems Ultimately Leder proposes not just new answers to important bioethical questions but new ways of questioning accepted concepts and practices

Body Problematic Laura Hengehold, 2010-11-01 Troubling (Public) Theologies Jione Havea, 2023-02-06

Theologies no matter their designations are public measures they disclose as well as gauge the publics near and far on which they stand sit lie or fall Because publics shift and mingle theologies require reimagining relocating and embracing fresh insights and energies The insights and energies embraced in this work are in three clusters spaces bodies and technologies The spotlighted spaces are in Africa Asia Black America the Caribbean and Pasifika beyond the eyes of mainline theologies the privileged bodies have survived with scars from empire and missionary positionings and the welcomed technologies include Dalit indigenous art poetry cyborg and the novel This collection is troubling in several ways first reimagining and relocating are troubling acts upon their subject matter here public theologies On that note what theology is not public Second this work takes theologies in general and not just the theologies that carry the public designation to be public theologies Third this work takes theologies in general to be inherently troubling In other words theologies that are not troubling are not public enough

Troubling Transparency David E. Pozen, Michael Schudson, 2018-08-07 Today transparency is a widely heralded value and the U S Freedom of Information Act FOIA is often held up as one of the transparency movement's canonical achievements Yet while many view the law as a powerful tool for journalists activists and ordinary citizens to pursue the public good FOIA is beset by massive backlogs and corporations and the powerful have become adept at using it for their own interests Close observers of laws like FOIA have begun to question whether these laws interfere with good governance display a deleterious anti public sector bias or are otherwise inadequate for the twenty first century's challenges Troubling Transparency brings together leading scholars from different disciplines to analyze freedom of information policies in the United States and abroad how they are working how they are failing and how they might be improved Contributors investigate the creation of FOIA its day to day uses and limitations for the news media and for corporate and citizen requesters its impact on government agencies its global influence recent alternatives to the FOIA model raised by the emergence of open data and other approaches to transparency and the theoretical underpinnings of FOIA and the right to know In addition to examining the mixed legacy and effectiveness of FOIA contributors debate how best to move forward to improve access to information and government functioning Neither romanticizing FOIA nor downplaying its real and symbolic achievements

Troubling Transparency is a timely and comprehensive consideration of laws such as FOIA and the larger project of open government with wide ranging lessons for journalism law government and civil society

The Trouble with Pleasure Aaron Schuster, 2016-02-09 An investigation into the strange and troublesome relationship to pleasure that defines the human being drawing on the disparate perspectives of Deleuze and Lacan Is pleasure a rotten idea mired in negativity and lack which should be abandoned in favor of a new concept of desire Or is desire itself fundamentally a matter of lack absence and loss This is one of the crucial issues dividing the work of Gilles Deleuze and Jacques Lacan two of the most formidable figures of postwar French thought Though the encounter with psychoanalysis deeply marked Deleuze's work we are yet to have a critical account of the very different postures he adopted toward psychoanalysis and especially Lacanian theory throughout his career In The Trouble with Pleasure Aaron Schuster tackles this tangled relationship head on The result is neither a Lacanian reading of Deleuze nor a Deleuzian reading of Lacan but rather a systematic and comparative analysis that identifies concerns common to both thinkers and their ultimately incompatible ways of addressing them Schuster focuses on drive and desire the strange convoluted relationship of human beings to the forces that move them from within the trouble with pleasure Along the way Schuster offers his own engaging and surprising conceptual analyses and inventive examples In the Critique of Pure Complaint he provides a philosophy of complaining ranging from Freud's theory of neurosis to Spinoza's intellectual complaint of God and the Deleuzian great complaint Schuster goes on to elaborate among other things a theory of love as mutually compatible symptoms an original philosophical history of pleasure including a hypothetical Heideggerian treatise and a Platonic theory of true pleasure and an exploration of the 1920s literature of the death drive including Thomas Mann Italo Svevo and Blaise Cendrars

Death in Ancient Rome Valerie Hope, 2007-11-13 Presenting a wide range of relevant translated texts on death burial and commemoration in the Roman world this book is organized thematically and supported by discussion of recent scholarship The breadth of material included ensures that this sourcebook will shed light on the way death was thought about and dealt with in Roman society

Troubling Motherhood Lucy B. Hall, Anna L. Weissman, Laura J. Shepherd, 2020 In global politics women's bodies are policed objectified surveilled and feared with particular attention paid to both their met or unmet procreative potential While the significance of motherhood varies across cultures it is as this book argues connected not just to gender and sexuality but also to religion and nationality Reproduction is central to the flourishing of any nation or culture and therefore motherhood is a major signifier of women's relationship to the state. This is so much the case that states enact laws about which women can bear children and have supported sterilization efforts in cases where women are not deemed appropriate bearers of the nation. States also legislate reproductive technologies adoption and government support for parenting. By considering representations and narratives of maternity, this volume shows how practices of global politics shape and are shaped by the gendered norms and institutions that underpin motherhood. Motherhood matters in global politics. Yet the diverse ways in which performances and practices of motherhood are constituted by and are constitutive of other dimensions of political life are frequently obscured or assumed to be of little interest to scholars, policymakers, and practitioners. Featuring innovative and diverse chapters on the politics of motherhood as an institution, this collection shows that maternity is troubled, complicated, and heterogeneous in global politics. Thus, performances and practices of motherhood warrant closer and more sustained scrutiny. This book builds on work by feminist international relations scholars extending into disruptive spaces of queer theory, literary critique, and postcolonial studies. The chapters in this book consider the meaning of motherhood particularly during times of war versus peace, the connections between motherhood and nationhood and reproduction of the state, and care work and maternal labor particularly as performed by transnational workers. Ultimately, this book demonstrates the complex interconnections between the individual, the state, and the global through the lens of maternity.

Troubling Nationhood in U.S. Latina Literature Maya Socolovsky, 2013-06-26. This book examines the ways in which recent U.S. Latina literature challenges popular definitions of nationhood and national identity. It explores a group of feminist texts that are representative of the U.S. Latina literary boom of the 1980s, 1990s, and 2000s, when an emerging group of writers gained prominence in mainstream and academic circles. Through close readings of select contemporary Mexican American, Puerto Rican, and Cuban American works, Maya Socolovsky argues that these narratives are remapping the United States so that it is fully integrated within a larger hemispheric Americas. Looking at such concerns as nation place, trauma, and storytelling, writers Denise Chavez, Sandra Cisneros, Esmeralda Santiago, Ana Castillo, Himilce Novas, and Judith Ortiz Cofer challenge popular views of Latino cultural unbelonging and make strong cases for the legitimate presence of Latinas/os within the United States. In this way, they also counter much of today's anti-immigration rhetoric. Imagining the U.S. as part of a broader Americas, these writings trouble imperialist notions of nationhood in which political borders and a long history of intervention and colonization beyond those borders have come to shape and determine the dominant culture's writing and the defining of all Latinos as other to the nation.

Troubling Sex Elaine Craig, 2012-07-01. When legal scholars or judges approach the subject of sexuality, they are often constrained by existing theoretical frameworks. For instance, queer theorists typically focus on sexual liberty but tend not to consider issues such as sexual violence. Feminist theories focus on violence but often don't give recognition to the joy of sexuality. To assess the possibility of devising a legal theory of sexuality that can ensure equality without assimilation, diversity without exclusion, and liberty without suffering Elaine Craig examines the Supreme Court of Canada's approach to sexuality in cases that range from sexual violence to discrimination based on orientation Although the Court continues to hold an essentialist understanding of sexuality that renders certain harms invisible its feminist inspired approach to sexual violence recognizes the socially constructed nature of sexuality and produces legal reasoning that promotes sexual integrity as a common interest Blending feminist theory with the inclusiveness of queer theory Craig advances an iconoclastic approach to law and sexuality that has the power to transform both theory and practice

Gender Trouble Judith Butler, Maxine Elliot Professor of Comparative Literature and Critical Theory Judith Butler, 2002-05-03 Since its publication in 1990 Gender Trouble has become one of the key works of contemporary feminist theory and an essential work for anyone interested in the study of gender queer theory or the politics of sexuality in culture

Health Education Katie Fitzpatrick, Richard Tinning, 2014-02-05 Health Education Critical perspectives provides a socio cultural and critical approach to health education The book draws together international experts in the fields of health and education who deconstruct contemporary discourses and practices and re imagine a health education that both connects with young people and offers a way forward in addressing issues of health and wellbeing Chapters within specifically link academic work on neoliberalism healthism risk and the body to wider discourses of health and health education They challenge current practices and call for a re thinking of current health programs in education settings A unique feature of this book is the analyses of health education from both political and applied levels across a range of international contexts The book is divided into three sections the social and political contexts informing health education how individual health issues sexuality alcohol mental health the body and obesity nutrition articulate in education in complex ways alternative ways to think about health and health education pedagogy The overall theme of the book offers a perspective that the current approach to health education promoting a fear of ill health self surveillance and individual responsibility can become a form of health fascism and we need to be cognisant of this potential and its consequences for young people The book will be of key interest to academics and researchers exploring the political context of health education

The Bible and Gender Troubles in Africa Joachim Kügler, Rosinah Gabaitse, Johanna Stiebert, 2019-06-25 Publisher's description Quickly changing concepts on gender roles are a pivotal issue in after colonial African societies Many women and men are calling for a radical change as they feel traditional gender concepts as being oppressive inhuman and un Christian Gender equality gender fairness is on their agenda On the other hand for many men and women these societal changes are painful gender troubles and seem to be dangerous for gender based identity threatening traditional African values Volume 22 of the BiAS series deals with this central topic by asking what gender troubles have to do with the Bible Are biblical texts an obstacle for women's liberation Is the Bible a divine guaranty for male supremacy or rather an advocate for gender equality What are redemptive masculinities and how do they relate to a new truly Christian understanding of the role of women in church society and state Scholars from different disciplines and several countries are dealing with these urgent questions to help scholars students pastors politicians and members of Christian churches to find a way to more gender fairness and gender joy Consuming Bodies Jackie Hogan, Sarah Whetstone, 2024-12-24 Our bodies reveal the values priorities anxieties and material realities of the society in which we are situated and in contemporary consumer societies human bodies both reflect the defining characteristics of our time and carry the markers of social hierarchies based on categories such as gender race and class Consuming Bodies Body Commodification and Embodiment in Late Capitalist Societies explores the ways our bodies are increasingly commodified from before birth to after death through both long standing forms of commodification captive labor sex work and spectator sports and newer forms commercial surrogacy the thriving trade in human biomaterials female genital rejuvenation surgery global romance tourism and green burial practices among others As this diverse range of topics demonstrates body commodification reaches increasingly into every realm of our lives from our most intimate experiences to encounters with pop culture the beauty industries the medical industrial complex and the state This volume takes a critical perspective on body commodification and embodiment both in the US and across the globe making an important contribution to social scientific understandings of the body both by going beyond the Eurocentric approach that typifies much of the extant scholarly literature and by addressing newly emerging practices that are growing out of techno scientific and social changes

Neo-Avant-Garde , 2016-08-01 The neo avant garde of the 1950s 60s and 70s is due for a thoroughgoing reassessment This collection of essays represents the first full scale attempt to deal with the concept from an interdisciplinary standpoint A number of essays in this book concentrate on fine art particularly painting and sculpture thereby adding significantly to the growing art historical literature in the field but a number of the contributions also focus on poetry performance theatre film architecture and music Given that there are also major essays here dealing with geographical blindspots in current neo avant garde studies with thematic issues such as art s entanglement with gender mass culture and politics with key neo avant garde publications and with the purely theoretical problems attaching to the theorisation of the topic this collection offers a multi dimensional approach to the subject which is noticeably lacking elsewhere Taken together these essays represent a consolidated attempt at re thinking the cultural logic of the immediate post World War II period Heart's Ease in Heart Trouble ... To which is Added, 1. The Heavenly Footman ... 2. Solomon's Temple Spiritualized ... 3. The Water of Life ... 4. The Pharisee and the Publican. 5. Barren Fig Tree. 6. Vision of Heaven and Hell ... 7. Sighs from Hell. 8. Come and Welcome to Jesus. 9. Grace Abounding to the Chief of Sinners,&c. [With Plates.] John Bunyan, 1820 The Body and the State Cary Federman, 2007-06-01 Traces the history of the writ of habeas corpus and its influence on federal state relations Trouble Songs Jeff T. Johnson, 2018 Poet critic and hybrid genre artist Johnson tracks the use of trouble in word concept and practice in this debut of brief elliptical lyric essays He moves through a wide swath of 20th and 21st century music always alert to a sense of melancholy shared among songwriters their songs and their listeners in the ever growing web of popular music

When we say trouble we refer to the history of trouble whether or not we have it in mind When we sing trouble we sing with history Johnson writes A Trouble Song is a complaint a grievance an aside a come on a confession an admission a resignation a plea It s an invitation to sorrow The effect of all this trouble is dizzying Highly annotated often to personal humorous and hidden effects the book weaves among genres chronologies and various forms of trouble to ask Where are we in song Who are we in song Johnson suggests that an answer lies somewhere in the locus of singer song and listener the essential relations in the Trouble Song Detouring into philosophy cultural theory and verse Johnson works multilaterally to explore what trouble in popular music does to connect listeners embolden them and open a space from which trouble can be addressed across time

Troubling Maternity Emily Jeremiah, 2003 The question of maternity is crucial for feminists to whom it represents both challenge and inspiration as it is for many thinkers engaged with the issues of agency corporeality and ethics This examination puts forward the idea of a maternal performativity drawing on the work of Judith Butler and numerous other feminist theorists to offer new ways of looking at 1970s and 1980s literary texts by ten German speaking women writers including Barbara Frischmuth Elfriede Jelinek Irmtraud Morgner and Karin Struck It argues that as yet maternal agency has not adequately been theorized a project which is urgent given the traditional view in Western culture of the mother as passive and suggests that Butler s notion of performativity can assist in this task It proposes a performative conception of both mothering and literature and links both of these to the question of ethics which is understood as involving embodiment and relationality To different extents all of the texts examined depict mothers as marginal abject or insane thus demonstrating the operations of exclusion and the need for a maternal agency to be developed and enacted The idea of maternal performativity is refined in five chapters which focus respectively on community corporeality the mother child relationship the family and discursive production The conclusion explores the ethics of literary practice and knowledge production and argues that in the light of the developing fields of new reproductive technologies and genetics it is imperative that we seek new understandings of embodiment community and care a task to which this study aspires to contribute

Troubled Memory Lawrence N. Powell, 2002-03-01 This compelling work tells the story of Anne Skorecki Levy a Holocaust survivor who transformed the horrors of her childhood into a passionate mission to defeat the political menace of reputed neo Nazi and Ku Klux Klan leader David Duke Through Levy s t

Taking Rational Trouble Over the Mysteries Nicola Hoggard Creegan, Andrew Shepherd, 2013-07-29 How can one believe in an age of doubt How can we name the mystery of God in human words Does nature speak of the glory of God Does science undermine faith Is the problem of evil unanswerable In this volume scientists theologians philosophers as well as a historian and social scientist take seriously the challenge of knowing and speaking about God in an age of doubt and challenge All New Zealand writers the authors reflect a variety of styles inputs and assumptions from down under Some look to answer new atheists directly others point out links between belief and unbelief in any age There are essays that show us new ways of reading old texts Scientists reflect on
