MacGregor,2015-11-03 When Luis de Molina died in Madrid in 1600 he had every reason to believe he was about to be anathematized by Pope Clement VIII The Protestant Reformation was splitting Europe tribunals of the Inquisition met regularly in a dozen Spanish cities and the Pope had launched a commission two years earlier to investigate Molina s writings Molina was eventually vindicated though the decision came seven years after his death In the centuries that followed Molina was relegated to relatively minor status in the history of theology until a renaissance of interest in recent years His doctrine of God s middle knowledge in particular has been appropriated by a number of current philosophers and theologians with apologist William Lane Craig calling it one of the most fruitful theological ideas ever conceived In Luis de Molina The Life and Theology of the Founder of Middle Knowledge author Kirk R MacGregor outlines the main contours of Molina s subtle and far reaching philosophical theology covering his views on God s foreknowledge salvation and predestination poverty and obedience and social justice Drawing on writings of Molina never translated into English

MacGregor also provides insight into the experiences that shaped Molina recounting the events of a life fully as dramatic as any of the Protestant Reformers With implications for topics as wide ranging as biblical inerrancy creation and evolution the relationship between Christianity and world religions the problem of evil and quantum indeterminacy Molina's thought remains as fresh and relevant as ever Most significantly perhaps it continues to offer the possibility of a rapprochement between Calvinism and Arminianism a view of salvation that fully upholds both God's predestination and human free will As the first full length work ever published on Molina Kirk MacGregor's Luis de Molina provides an accessible and insightful introduction for scholars students and armchair theologians alike Can We Still Believe the Bible? Craig L.

The Gospel in the Marketplace of Ideas Paul Copan, Kenneth D. Litwak, 2014-06-05 Capturing important insights from Paul's speech to the multicultural and multireligious city of Athens in Acts 17 Paul Copan and Kenneth Litwak seek to enhance and embolden the church's witness in today's pluralistic society by helping us point contemporary Athenians beyond an unknown God to the God and Father of Jesus Christ Alan Watts in Late-Twentieth-Century Discourse Peter J. Columbus, 2023-11-17 This book is an anthology of commentary and criticism written within the transitional period between Alan Watts' 1973 death and the twenty-first century intellectual horizon. Comprised of 16 chapters written and published between 1974 and 1994 with up-to-date introductions from the essayists and other contemporary thinkers, this volume opens a window onto unexplored grounds of Alan Watts' impact within late twentieth-century discourse, an intermediate space where scholars reoriented their bearings through changing times and emerging academic trends. Offering varied explanations and assessments of Alan Watts, including his influence on the Beat and Hippie generations and his popularization of Zen Buddhism in America, it tackles unaddressed questions within the milieu of late twentieth-century America, from the Reagan Revolution and religious conservatism to paradigm shifts in Buddhist studies and the rise of post-colonial theory. Contributors' post-mortem analyses and critiques of Watts allow for a thematic rendering of their consonance or dissonance with noted Beat Hippie and Zen Buddhism themes of his lifetime. This volume will appeal to scholars and students of humanistic psychology, transpersonal psychology, the psychology of religion, comparative religion, and American studies.

A Tale of Three Cities D. K. Matthews, 2024-08-20 A central question for Judeo-Christian faithful is: Are we living in the age of antichristism or kingdom influence? Can we salt and light entire cities and civilizations as Martin Luther King Jr. hoped or with D. L. Moody should we simply save as many as we can from our rapidly sinking planet? Over the years, Christians have wrestled with the question and reached different conclusions. Augustine's and Oliver O'Donovan's answer to the question birthed The City of God and The Desire of Nations. Miguez Bonino's and Grace Ji Sun Kim's Marxist-influenced liberationist answers produced Toward a Christian Political Ethics and the post-truth Intersectional Theology. Former socialist Michael Novak's plea was to revive The True Spirit of Democratic Capitalism. Jonathan Cahn and Frank Peretti, by contrast, predicted that we have entered the age of This Present Darkness amidst The Return of the Gods. Peretti's and Cahn's wildly popular future visions built upon Hal Lindsey's dated assurance and false prediction that true believers would be raptured in the last decade of The Terminal Generation. 1980s Douglas Matthews offers a new route through the maze and discerningly answers this perennial question by boldly offering a Third City future vision option for effective kingdom influence amidst accelerating global antichristism.

A Thematic Access-Oriented Bibliography of Jesus's Resurrection Michael J. Alter, 2019-12-31 The keystone of Christianity is Jesus's physical bodily resurrection. Present-day scholars can be significantly challenged as they forage through voluminous documents on the resurrection of Jesus. The literature measures well over seven thousand sources in English language books alone. This makes finding specific sources that are most relevant for specific scholarly purposes an arduous task. Even when a specific book is relevant, finding the parts of the book that are most relevant to the resurrection rather than other topics often requires additional effort A Thematic Access Oriented Bibliography of Jesus's Resurrection addresses these challenges in several ways First the bibliography organizes more than seven thousand English sources into twelve main categories and then thirty four subcategories which are designed to help you find the most relevant literature quickly and efficiently Embedded are pro and con arguments which support efficient access through brief annotations and then annotate the diversity and complexity of the field of religion by including sources that represent a diverse range of views theistic e g Christian Jewish Muslim etc agnostic and nontheistic The objective of this bibliography is to provide convenient access to relevant sources from a variety of perspectives allowing you to browse or find the one source accurately and with ease
