Truth In Motion The Recursive Anthropology Of Cuban Divination:

Truth in Motion Martin Holbraad, 2012-05-04 An intellectual journey a rigorous engagement with Cuban divination and theories of meaning extremely original innovative indeed daring and radical Andrew Apter University of California Los Angeles Embarking on an ethnographic journey to the inner barrios of Havana among practitioners of If a prestigious Afro Cuban tradition of divination Truth in Motion reevaluates Western ideas about truth in light of the practices and ideas of a wildly different and highly respected model Acutely focusing on If Martin Holbraad takes the reader inside consultations initiations and lively public debates to show how If practitioners see truth as something to be not so much represented as transformed Bringing his findings to bear on the discipline of anthropology itself he recasts the very idea of truth as a matter not only of epistemological divergence but also of ontological difference the question of truth he argues is not simply about how things may appear differently to people but also about the different ways of imagining what those things are By delving so deeply into If practices Truth in Motion offers cogent new ways of thinking about otherness and how anthropology can navigate it An exceedingly well thought sophisticated piece of ethnological and conceptual analysis with philosophical underpinnings both solid and clever It is an ambitious and provocative work which will certainly spark off quite a few welcome debates Eduardo Viveiros de Castro Federal University of Rio de Janeiro

John of God Cristina Rocha, 2017 This book investigates the growing number of Western followers of John of God a faith healer who has drawn hundreds of thousands of people including Oprah Winfrey to his healing center in Brazil by purportedly performing miraculous surgeries on people with a kitchen knife and no anesthetics Drawing on multi sited fieldwork throughout Brazil the US UK Germany Australia and New Zealand Cristina Rocha examines the social and cultural forces that have made it possible for an illiterate mostly unknown faith healer in Brazil to become a global guru of the 21st century Why Sámi Sing Stéphane

Aubinet, 2022-12-30 Why S mi Sing is an anthropological inquiry into a singing practice found among the Indigenous S mi people living in the northernmost part of Europe It inquires how the performance of melodies with or without lyrics may be a way of altering perception relating to human and non human presences or engaging with the past According to its practitioners the S mi yoik is more than a musical repertoire made up by humans it is a vocal power received from the environment one that reveals its possibilities with parsimony through practice and experience Following the propensity of S mi singers to take melodies seriously and experiment with them this book establishes a conversation between Indigenous and Western epistemologies and introduces the yoik as a way of knowing in its own right with both convergences and divergences vis vis academic ways of knowing It will be of particular interest to scholars of anthropology ethnomusicology and Indigenous studies Honourable Mention International Council for Traditions of Music and Dance Book Prize 2024

Working With Diagrams Lukas Engelmann, Caroline Humphrey, Christos Lynteris, 2022-07-08 Arising from the need to go beyond the semiotic cognitive epistemic and symbolic reading of diagrams this book looks at what diagrams are capable of in scholarly work related to the social sciences Rather than attempting to define what diagrams are and what their dietic capacity might be contributions to this volume draw together the work diagrams do in the development of theories Across a range of disciplines the chapters introduce the ephemeral dimensions of scientist s interactions and collaboration with diagrams consider how diagrams configure cooperation across disciplines and explore how diagrams have been made to work in ways that point beyond simplification clarification and formalization

Beyond Perception Caroline Gatt,Jan Peter Laurens Loovers,2025-06-25 This book showcases the way a range of scholars have engaged with Tim Ingold s opus since the publication of his ground breaking The Perception of the Environment in 2000 Ingold s work has become key for a variety of disciplines ranging from anthropology archaeology and human geography to art architecture design and studies of material and visual culture As set out in The Perception of the Environment and subsequent publications Ingold proposed an understanding of the world that placed sentient remembering and imagining organisms or inhabitants some of them human at the heart of an extensive field of socio ecological relations In this work Ingold develops broad ranging analyses of personhood knowledge and skills among many other topics This volume sets out to synthesize critical scholarship drawing on Ingold s work to lay out its principles methods and results and to demonstrate its contribution to reshaping both contemporary anthropology and wider intellectual terrains By bringing together chapters from a variety of scholars all critically furthering Ingold s proposals the book advances a paradigm change occurring in various academic disciplines from fixist to emergence onto epistemologies

Jaguars of the Dawn Emily Pierini,2020-01-10 The Brazilian Spiritualist Christian Order Vale do Amanhecer Valley of the Dawn is the place where the worlds of the living and the spirits merge and the boundaries between lives are regularly crossed Drawing upon over a decade of extensive fieldwork in temples of the Amanhecer in Brazil and Europe the author explores how mediums understand their experiences and how they learn to establish relationships with their spirit guides She sheds light on the ways in which mediumistic development in the Vale do Amanhecer is used for therapeutic purposes and informs notions of body and self of illness and wellbeing

Labor on the Line Anna-Lena Wolf,2025-10-15 Labor on the Line provides insights into the world s largest tea growing region of Assam Anna Lena Wolf examines everyday conceptualizations of justice how they emerge become prevalent transform and are negotiated by differently positioned actors on Assam s tea plantations Academics and activists have criticized the conditions on these plantations as a form of bondage arguing that the persistence of a colonial wage structure characterized by low cash wages supplemented with in kind benefits reinforces laborers dependence on plantations But Wolf shows that there is more to the story Tea plantation laborers and trade unionists formed surprising alliances with managers and plantation owners based on everyday conceptions of justice All involved favored the old style plantation at a time when fundamental changes were appearing in the political economy of tea production Labor on the Line challenges the simplistic notion that dismantling tea plantations would create a better world for tea plantation laborers by advancing notions of justice in innovative ways

A World of Many Norbert Ross, 2023-01-13 A World of Many explores the world making efforts of Tzotzil Maya children from two different localities within the municipality of Chenalh Chiapas. The research demonstrates children's agency in creating their worlds while also investigating the role played by the surrounding social and physical environment. Different experiences with schooling, parenting goals and values but also with climate change, water scarcity as well as racism and settler colonialism form part of the reason children create their emerging worlds. These worlds are not made to believe or anything less than the ontological products of their parents. Instead, Norbert Ross argues that by creating different worlds the children ultimately fashion themselves into different human beings quite literally being different in the world. A World of Many combines experimental research from the cognitive sciences with critical theory exploring children's agency in devising their own ontologies. Rather than treating children as somewhat incomplete humans, it understands children as tinkerers and thinkers, makers of their worlds amidst complex relations. It regards being as a constant ontological production where life and living constitutes activism. Using experimental paradigms, the book shows that children locate themselves differently in these emerging worlds, they create becoming different human beings in the process.

Beyond Description Paolo Heywood, Matei Candea, 2023-12-15 Beyond Description brings anthropologists and other social scientists together to examine the problem of explanation. What is an explanation? What can it add? What makes it authoritative, clarifying or misleading? Whom does it serve and how is it produced? These questions lie at the heart of recent public crises of confidence in expertise, political representation and classic liberal visions of whom we can rely on for true and trustworthy accounts. In a world beset by events and processes that seem to defy expert predictions of their impossibility and in which post hoc accounts can often feel more like rationalizations than explanations, competing voices vie for public presence and seek to silence one another. Anthropology and the social sciences face such questions too, making contemporary explanatory practice both an empirical and a reflexive challenge. By combining ethnographic studies of practices of explanation in a range of contemporary political, medical, artistic, religious and bureaucratic settings, the essays in Beyond Description offer critical examinations of changing norms and forms of explanation in the world and within anthropology itself.

Ruptures Martin Holbraad, Bruce Kapferer, Julia F. Sauma, 2019-06-25 Ruptures brings together leading and emerging international anthropologists to explore the concept of rupture. Understood as radical and often forceful forms of discontinuity, rupture is the active ingredient of the current sense of a world in turmoil lying at the heart of some of the most defining experiences of our time: the rise of populist politics, the corollary impulse towards protest and even revolutionary change as well as moves towards violence and terror and the responses these moves elicit. Rupture is addressed in selected ethnographic and historical contexts: images of the guillotine in the French revolution, reactions to Trump's election in the USA, the motivations of young Danes who join ISIS in Syria, butterfly effect activism among environmental anarchists in northern Europe the experiences of political trauma and its repair through privately sponsored museums of Mao's revolution in China people's experience of the devastating 2001 earthquake in Gujarat the inner rupture of Protestant faith among Danish nationalist theologians and the attempt to invent ex nihilo an alphabet for use in Christian prophetic movements in Congo and Angola Ruptures takes in new directions broader intellectual debates about continuity and change In particular by thematising rupture as a radical sometimes violent and even brutal form of discontinuity it adds a sharper critical edge to contemporary discourses both in social theory and public debate and policy The Oxford Handbook of Ritual Language David Tavárez, 2024-11-14 This volume brings together representative case studies and surveys that explore research into ritual language covering theoretical and methodological approaches that reflect traditional inquiries and more recent studies This recent literature contends that ritual language hinges on the construction of authoritative ontological models about the cosmos and its inhabitants Ritual speech also orchestrates performances that articulate representations of collective identities and rests on the diversity of hierarchical forms of authoritative knowledge displayed in both oblique and direct terms Moreover performances texts and narratives associated with ritual practices are closely entwined with historical accounts that navigate current memories recast in a diversity of ways about ancestral beings and distant or recent pasts or delimit a terrain in which dialectical relationships with colonial hegemony and Christian indoctrination emerge to transform the social order Ritual narrative often offers in its structure and delivery momentous representation of the social order social institutions social difference and collective identities and may also be constituted by claims about relations among species non human actors and material culture The Oxford Handbook of Ritual Language addresses foundational questions regarding the scope structuring use and consequences of ritual language The chapters examine the relationship between speakers consciousness and verbal ritual performances and between ritual language hegemony collective authority and the social world As the study of ritual speech hinges on extensive analyses of linguistic choices and styles the contributors draw on data from a wide range of language groups and societies in the Americas the Middle East the Pacific South Asia and the Indian Ocean Design Anthropological Futures Rachel Charlotte Smith, Kasper Tang Vangkilde, Mette Gislev Kjaersgaard, Ton Otto, Joachim Halse, Thomas Binder, 2020-05-26 A major contribution to the field this ground breaking book explores design anthropology's focus on futures and future making Examining what design anthropology is and what it is becoming the authors push the frontiers of the discipline and reveal both the challenges for and the potential of this rapidly growing transdisciplinary field Divided into four sections Ethnographies of the Possible Interventionist Speculation Collaborative Formation of Issues and Engaging Things the book develops readers understanding of the central theoretical and methodological aspects of future knowledge production in design anthropology Bringing together renowned scholars such as George Marcus and Alison Clarke with young experimental design anthropologists from countries such as Denmark Sweden Austria Brazil the UK and the United States the sixteen chapters offer an unparalleled breadth of theoretical reflections and rich empirical case studies Written by those at the forefront of the field Design Anthropological Futures is destined to become a defining text for this growing discipline A unique resource for students scholars and practitioners in design anthropology design architecture material culture studies and related fields

The Ontological Turn Martin Holbraad, Morten Axel Pedersen, 2017-03-23 This book provides the first systematic presentation of anthropology's ontological turn placing it in the landscape of contemporary social theory

Stories, Senses and the Charismatic Relation Jamie Barnes, 2020-10-13 Stories Senses and the Charismatic Relation offers a uniquely intimate and auto ethnographic exploration of Christian experience rendering a deep phenomenological account of how devotional worlds become real how they are experienced shaped constituted and performed by those who live them The book starts from a reflexive exploration of the author's own experiences of the divine considers the spiritual journeys of family members and the spiritual community of which he was a part and draws on ethnographic fieldwork in the southern Balkans where that community was based Jamie Barnes considers three main elements firstly the role that sensory aspects of experience play in constituting one's lived world and one's ideas about the kinds of beings inhabiting it secondly how stories and metaphors are tactically employed not only in the process of expressing aspects of past experience but also in shaping and forming both desired worlds and future pathways thirdly how such sensed narrated and lived worlds are tentatively held together in hope trust and love through charismatic relationships of devotion with a divine Other This unusual and innovative ethnography offers a unique and reflexive view from within the world of Christian experience

Critical Anthropological Engagements in Human Alterity and Difference Bjørn Enge Bertelsen, Synnøve Bendixsen, 2017-01-03 This book explores how one measures and analyzes human alterity and difference in an interconnected and ever globalizing world This book critically assesses the impact of what has often been dubbed the ontological turn within anthropology in order to provide some answers to these questions In doing so the book explores the turn's empirical and theoretical limits accomplishments and potential The book distinguishes between three central strands of the ontological turn namely worldviews materialities and politics It presents empirically rich case studies which help to elaborate on the potentiality and challenges which the ontological turn's perspectives and approaches may have to offer

Non-Humans in Amerindian South America Juan Javier Rivera Andía, 2018-11-16 Drawing on fieldwork from diverse Amerindian societies whose lives and worlds are undergoing processes of transformation adaptation and deterioration this volume offers new insights into the indigenous constitutions of humanity personhood and environment characteristic of the South American highlands and lowlands The resulting ethnographies depicting non human entities emerging in ritual oral tradition cosmology shamanism and music explore the conditions and effects of unequally ranked life forms increased extraction of resources continuous migration to urban centers and the usually forced incorporation of current expressions of modernity into indigenous societies

Husserl and Spatiality Tao DuFour, 2021-11-29 Husserl and Spatiality is an exploration of the phenomenology of space and embodiment based on the work of Edmund Husserl Little known in architecture Husserl's phenomenology of embodied spatiality established the foundations for the works of later phenomenologists including Maurice Merleau-Ponty's well known phenomenology of perception Through a detailed study of his posthumously published and unpublished manuscripts on space DuFour examines the depth and scope of Husserl's phenomenology of space The book investigates his analyses of corporeity and the lived body extending to questions of intersubjective intergenerational and geo-historical spatial experience what DuFour terms the environmentality of space Combining in depth architectural philosophical investigations of spatiality with a rich and intimate ethnography Husserl and Spatiality speaks to themes in social and cultural anthropology from a theoretical perspective that addresses spatial practice and experience Drawing on fieldwork in Brazil DuFour develops his analyses of Husserl's phenomenology through spatial accounts of ritual in the Afro-Brazilian religion of Candomblé The result is a methodological innovation and unique mode of spatial description that DuFour terms a phenomenological ethnography of space The book's profoundly interdisciplinary approach makes an incisive contribution relevant to academics and students of architecture and architectural theory anthropology and material culture and philosophy and environmental aesthetics

Evil Spirits and Rocket Debris Ludek Broz, 2024-02-02 The Altai Republic in southern Siberia is renowned for excavations of frozen mummies from high altitude burial sites Less well known is the fact that it hosts fallout zones for the second stages of rockets launched from the Baikonur cosmodrome Local inhabitants blame evil spirits released by archaeological work and toxic fuel from rocket debris for their misfortunes This book explores the divergent fates of such claims when confronted with state fostered rationalisms of science and governance

The Palgrave Handbook of Society, Culture and Outer Space James S. Ormrod, Peter Dickens, 2017-09-11 Societies have always been formed in a relationship with the rest of the universe With rapid developments in satellite communications and imaging space exploration and tourism military space technology and cosmology itself relationships with outer space are changing These changes have inspired a wave of critical academic work in recent years re-examining the history present and future of outer space and the place of humans within it This handbook provides an in-depth exploration of major themes relating to society culture and the universe and will inspire and cultivate debate in this exciting and burgeoning area of study for future researchers and theorists Bringing together scholarship from a range of disciplines including geography economics history political science sociology philosophy science and technology studies law cultural astronomy anthropology media studies literature psychosocial studies and art it closely examines how outer space is socially produced experienced perceived and imagined and the significance of this for terrestrial social life

The Social Life of Spirits Ruy Blanes, Diana Espírito Santo, 2013-11-22 Spirits can be haunters informants possessors and transformers of the living but more than anything anthropologists have understood them as representations of something else symbols that articulate facets of human experience in much the same way works of art do The Social Life of Spirits challenges this notion By stripping symbolism from the way we think about the spirit world the contributors of this book uncover a livelier more diverse environment of entities with their own histories motivations and social interactions providing a new understanding of spirits not as symbols but as agents The contributors tour the spiritual globe the globe of nonthings in essays on topics ranging from the Holy Ghost in southern Africa to spirits of the people of the streets in Rio de Janeiro to dragons and magic in Britain Avoiding a reliance on religion and belief systems to explain the significance of spirits they reimagine spirits in a rich network of social trajectories ultimately arguing for a new ontological ground upon which to examine the intangible world and its interactions with the tangible one
