Utopia Avant Garde Modernism Possible Avant Garde:

Utopia David Ayers, Benedikt Hjartarson, Tomi Huttunen, Harri Veivo, 2015-12-14 Utopian hope and dystopian despair are characteristic features of modernism and the avant garde Readings of the avant garde have frequently sought to identify utopian moments coded in its works and activities as optimistic signs of a possible future social life or as the attempt to preserve hope against the closure of an emergent dystopian present The fourth volume of the EAM series European Avant Garde and Modernism Studies casts light on the history theory and actuality of the utopian and dystopian strands which run through European modernism and the avant garde from the late 19th to the 21st century The book's varied and carefully selected contributions written by experts from around 20 countries seek to answer such questions as how have modernism and the avant garde responded to historical circumstance in mapping the form of possible futures for humanity how have avant garde and modernist works presented ideals of living as alternatives to the present how have avant gardists acted with or against the state to remodel human life or to resist the instrumental reduction of life by administration and industrialisation

Realisms of the Avant-Garde Moritz Baßler, Benedikt Hjartarson, Ursula Frohne, David Ayers, Sascha Bru, 2020-09-21 The historical avant gardes defined themselves largely in terms of their relationship to various versions of realism At first glance modernism primarily seems to take a counter position against realism yet a closer investigation reveals that these relations are more complex This book is dedicated to the links between realism modernism and the avant garde in their international context from the late 19th century up to the present day Globalizing the Avant-Garde David Ayers, Joana Cunha Leal, Benedikt Hjartarson, Margarida Brito Alves, 2024-12-16 How has the process of globalization shaped artistic practices on the one hand and art history and theory on the other The contributions in this volume approach this question from a range of perspectives taking into account the role of travel for example or practitioners increasing knowledge of other cultures art's increasing awareness of itself as existing on a global level literary translation the advance of technology and the ever changing grand narratives of art history As well as reflections on European avant gardes and neo avant gardes the collection features discussions of Japan Latin America Africa Asia and the Pacific As a whole the volume engages with broader current discourses about cultural globalization and features input from leading scholars around the world as well as some important novel interventions by early career researchers The authors not only make a major contribution to the evolution of avant garde studies but also offer valuable original points of view to art history and to the cultural theory of globalization more broadly

Avant-Garde World Creation Abigail van Alst, 2025-10-30 This book explores the widespread fascination with world creation among early twentieth century artists and examines those trends within the European avant garde The book reflects on what the world looks and feels like before and after World War One and thus also concerns creativity and destruction alike in the context of modernity Over the course of three chapters the author focusses on works in which avant garde artists combine and experiment with various arts and media to create alternative narratives of the world's creation These works include three canonized total works of art Der Weltbaumeister The World's Master Builder 1920 an illustrated book imagined as an architectural play by the Expressionist architect Bruno Taut the Futurist opera C Victory Over the Sun 1913 by Aleksei Kruchenykh Velimir Khlebnikov Kazimir Malevich and Mikhail Matiushin and the Cubist ballet La Création du monde The Creation of the World 1923 by Blaise Cendrars Fernand Léger Darius Milhaud and Jean Béraud Providing new readings of these classic works that dive deeply into the avant garde's inter artistic search for new modes of mediation as well as its dialogue with science politics and technology Abigail van Alst demonstrates how each of these artworks staged a cosmogony an alternative story of the universe's creation which simultaneously experimentally and critically recounted the story of modernity This new book is ideal for researchers and scholars in History of Art Modernism and Comparative Literature

Art, Music, and Mysticism at the Fin de Siècle Corrinne Chong, Michelle Foot, 2024-07-29 This edited volume explores the dialogue between art and music with that of mystical currents at the turn of the twentieth century The volume draws on the most current research from both art historians and musicologists to present an interdisciplinary approach to the study of mysticism's historical importance The chapters in this edited volume gauge the scope of different interpretations of mysticism and illuminate how an exchange between the sister arts unveil an underlying stream of metaphysical supernatural and spiritual ideas over the course of the century Case studies include Charles Tournemire Joseph Paderewski Erik Satie Hilma af Klint Jean Sibelius František Kupka and Wassily Kandinsky The contributors' unique theoretical perspectives and disciplinary methodologies offer expert insight on both the rewards and inevitable aesthetic complications that arise when one artform meets another The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history musicology visual culture and mysticism

The Poetics of Utopia Stewart Cole, 2023-05-18 Focusing on the work of two of the 20th century's most politically engaged poets W B Yeats and W H Auden this book unpacks how they directly confront the concept of utopia how they engage with utopia as a literary genre and how their work conceives of poetry as a utopian artform capable of uniquely embodying our social aspirations Despite consistently projecting visions of more ideal futures through both its subject matter and its form poetry is not often counted among the annals of utopian literature Through an examination of these two great writers' poems essays reviews and other writings with a focus on many of their best known poems this book highlights both the pervasive presence of a utopian impulse in their work and the importance of their contributions to discussions of utopia's meaning and relevance in both their own politically fraught era and ours

Subversive Esotericism and Aesthetic Radicalism Sólveig Guðmundsdóttir, 2024-12-29 In this book Sólveig Guðmundsdóttir uncovers the crucial role of esotericism in the art of the Vienna Actionists a group of Austrian neo avant garde artists infamous for their transgressive performance art Addressing this frequently overlooked aspect of Actionism Guðmundsdóttir traces historicizes and examines the esoteric discourses in selected works the collective manifesto Die Blutorgel 1962 Rudolf Schwarzkogler's text Das ästhetische Panorama 1967/68 and the performances Abreaktionsspiel 1970 by Hermann Nitsch and Zerrei probe 1970 by Günther Brus Mapping out the various discursive entanglements as they appear in the works i.e. between esotericism and psychoanalysis fascism gender sexuality aesthetics science orientalism and religious discourses the author illustrates and establishes the importance of esoteric traditions for the Actionists art and subversive practices The historical analysis of the artworks reflects on the cultural nexus of post war Austria as well as the relations between radical politics countercultures and esotericism and how they appear in Actionism Guðmundsdóttir argues that to survey the historical placement of esotericism is vital for understanding not only the context of their works but also the contradictory image of the Actionists as both anti authoritarian and reactionary artists

Utopia's Ghost Reinhold Martin, 2010-04-15 Written at the intersection of culture politics the city particularly in the context of corporate globalization Utopia's Ghost challenges dominant theoretical paradigms opens new avenues for architectural scholarship cultural analysis

Picturing Evolution and Extinction Fae Brauer, 2015-10-05 With the increasing loss of biological diversity in this Sixth Age of Mass Extinction it is timely to show that devolutionary paranoia is not new but rather stretches back to the time of Charles Darwin It is also an opportune moment to show how human driven extinction as designated by the term Anthropocene has long been acknowledged The halcyon days of European industrial progress colonial expansion and scientific revolution trumpeted from the Great Exhibition of 1851 until the Dresden International Hygiene Exhibition of 1930 were constantly marred by fears of rampant degeneration depopulation national decline environmental devastation and racial extinction This is demonstrated by the discourses of catastrophism charted in this book that percolated across Europe in response to the theories of Darwin and Jean Baptiste Lamarck as well as Marcellin Berthelot Camille Flammarion Ernst Haeckel Louis Landouzy Félix Le Dantec Cesare Lombroso Thomas Huxley Bernard Augustin Morel Louis Pasteur Lisé Reclus Rudolf Steiner and Wilhelm Wundt among others This book presents pioneering explorations of the interrelationship between these discourses and modern visual cultures and the ways in which the picturing of evolution and extinction by artists as diverse as Roger Broders Albert Besnard Fernand Cormon Hélène Dufau mile Gall František Kupka Pablo Picasso Carles Mani y Roig Sophie Taeuber and Vasilii Vatagin betrayed anxieties subliminally festering over degeneration alongside latent hopes of regeneration Following Darwin's concept of evolution as Janus faced the dialectical interplay of evolution and extinction and degeneration and regeneration is explored in modern visual cultures in Australia America Britain France Germany Russia Spain and Switzerland at significant spatio temporal junctures between 1860 and 1930 By unravelling the picturing of the dread of alcoholism cholera dysentery tuberculosis typhoid and rabies alongside phobias of animalism criminality hysteria impotency and ecological disaster each chapter makes an original contribution to this new field of scholarship By locating these discourses and visual cultures within the golden age of Neo Lamarckism they also reveal how regeneration was pictured as the Janus face of degeneration able to facilitate evolution through the inheritance of beneficial characteristics in propitious environments In striking such an uplifting note amidst the dissonant cacophony of catastrophism this book reveals why the art and science of Transformism proved so appealing in France as elsewhere and why visual cultures of regeneration became as dominant in the twentieth century as the picturing of degeneration had been in the nineteenth century It also illuminates the paradoxical inversion that occurred in the twentieth century when devolution became equivalent to evolution for many Modernists Hence whilst this book opens with the picturing of indigenous people in Australia and North America as doomed races by the first publication of Darwin's On The Origin of Species it closes with the quest by 1930 for a regenerative suntan as dark as the skin of those indigenous people
