management systems management and the complex flight environment of today's busy airspace. This is a very different approach from the practice of traditional maneuver-based flight training used heretofore. With a realization of the inadequacy of maneuver-based training as applied to TAA, The Pilot's Manual Access to Flight embodies the state-of-the-art industry training standards of scenario-based training, SBT, learner-centered grading and involvement, and single pilot resource management, SRM. These are real-world skills taught with a train like you fly, fly like you train philosophy, treating each and every lesson as a real flight. This is where harnessing the power of all available resources and aeronautical decision making, ADM, become second nature. Whereas maneuver-based training focused specifically on simply learning to control the aircraft, this new methodology involves considering an entire flight and all its component aspects from beginning to end. The Pilot's Manual, 2010
