When The Emperor Was Divine By Otsuka Julie 2013 Paperback:

When the Emperor Was Divine Julie Otsuka, 2003-10-14 From the bestselling award winning author of The Buddha in the Attic and The Swimmers this commanding debut novel paints a portrait of the Japanese American incarceration camps that is both a haunting evocation of a family in wartime and a resonant lesson for our times On a sunny day in Berkeley California in 1942 a woman sees a sign in a post office window returns to her home and matter of factly begins to pack her family's possessions Like thousands of other Japanese Americans they have been reclassified virtually overnight as enemy aliens and are about to be uprooted from their home and sent to a dusty incarceration camp in the Utah desert In this lean and devastatingly evocative first novel Julie Otsuka tells their story from five flawlessly realized points of view and conveys the exact emotional texture of their experience the thin walled barracks and barbed wire fences the omnipresent fear and loneliness the unheralded feats of heroism When the Emperor Was Divine is a work of enormous power that makes a shameful episode of our history as immediate as today's headlines

Internment during the Second World War Rachel Pistol, 2017-09-07 The internment of enemy aliens during the Second World War was arguably the greatest stain on the Allied record of human rights on the home front Internment during the Second World War compares and contrasts the experiences of foreign nationals unfortunate enough to be born in the wrong nation when Great Britain and later the USA went to war While the actions and policy of the governments of the time have been critically examined Rachel Pistol examines the individual stories behind this traumatic experience The vast majority of those interned in Britain were refugees who had fled religious or political persecution in America the majority of those detained were children Forcibly removed from family friends and property internees lived behind barbed wire for months and years Internment initially denied these people the right to fight in the war and caused unnecessary hardships to individuals and families already suffering displacement because of Nazism or inherent societal racism In the first comparative history of internment in Britain and the USA memoirs letters and oral testimony help to put a human face on the suffering incurred during the turbulent early years of the war and serve as a reminder of what can happen to vulnerable groups during times of conflict Internment during the Second World War also considers how these tragedies of democracy have been remembered over time and how the need for the memorialisation of former sites of internment is essential if society is not to repeat the same injustices Historical

Alexander Manshel, 2023-11-21 Finalist 2025 SHARP Book History Book Prize Society for the Study of the History of Authorship Reading and Publishing Contemporary fiction has never been less contemporary Midcentury writers tended to set their works in their own moment but for the last several decades critical acclaim and attention have fixated on historical fiction This shift is particularly dramatic for writers of color Even as the literary canon has become more diverse cultural institutions have celebrated Black Asian American Latinx and Indigenous novelists almost exclusively for their historical fiction Writing Backwards explores what the dominance of historical fiction in the contemporary canon reveals about American literary culture Alexander Manshel investigates the most celebrated historical genres contemporary narratives of slavery the World War II novel the multigenerational family saga immigrant fiction and the novel of recent history alongside the literary and academic institutions that have elevated them He examines novels by writers including Toni Morrison Viet Thanh Nguyen Colson Whitehead Julia Alvarez Leslie Marmon Silko Michael Chabon Julie Otsuka Yaa Gyasi Ben Lerner and Tommy Orange in the context of MFA programs literary prizes university syllabi book clubs and the National Endowment for the Arts Manshel studies how historical fiction has evolved over the last half century documenting the formation of the newly inclusive literary canon as well as who and what it still excludes Offering new insight into how institutions shape literature and the limits of historical memory Writing Backwards also considers recent challenges to the historical turn in American fiction Migrant Aesthetics

Glenda R. Carpio, 2023-10-31 Co winner 2024 Matei Calinescu Prize Modern Language Association By most accounts immigrant literature deals primarily with how immigrants struggle to adapt to their adopted countries Its readers have come to expect stories of identity formation of how immigrants create ethnic communities and maintain ties to countries of origin Yet such narratives can center exceptional stories of individual success or obscure the political forces that uproot millions of people the world over Glenda R Carpio argues that we need a new paradigm for migrant fiction Migrant Aesthetics shows how contemporary authors Teju Cole Dinaw Mengestu Aleksandar Hemon Valeria Luiselli Julie Otsuka and Junot Diaz expose the historical legacies and political injustices that produce forced migration through artistic innovation Their fiction rejects the generic features of immigrant literature especially the acculturation plot and the use of migrant narrators as cultural guides who must appeal to readerly empathy They emphasize the limits of empathy insisting instead that readers recognize their own roles in the realities of migration which like climate change is driven by global inequalities Carpio traces how these authors create literary echoes of the past showing how the history of neo colonialism links distinct immigrant experiences and can lay the foundation for cross ethnic migrant solidarity Revealing how migration shapes and is shaped by language and narrative Migrant Aesthetics casts fiction as vital testimony to past and present colonial imperial and structural displacement and violence
