 explosion of a book exquisite and unforgettable The Economist A cleverly constructed rural Gothic fable Elmet is a marvellous achievement TLS Hansel and Gretel meets The Godfather Sunday Times Daniel is heading north He is looking for someone The simplicity of his early life with Daddy and Cathy has turned menacing and fearful They lived apart in the house that Daddy built for them in the woods with his bare hands They foraged and hunted Cathy was more like their father fierce and full of simmering anger Daniel was more like their mother gentle and kind Sometimes their father disappeared and would return with a rage in his eyes But when he was at home he was at peace He told them that the little copse in Elmet was theirs alone But that wasn't true Local men greedy and watchful began to circle like vultures All the while the terrible violence in Daddy grew Brutal and beautiful in equal measure Elmet is a compelling portrayal of a family living on the fringes of contemporary society as well as a gripping exploration of the disturbing actions people are capable of when pushed to

Constructing Crime Janet Mosher, Joan Brockman, 2010-05-10

Constructing Crime examines the central question: Why do we define and enforce particular behaviours as crimes and target particular individuals as criminals? To answer this question, contributors interrogate notions of crime, processes of criminalization and the deployment of the concept of crime in five radically different sites: the enforcement of fraud against welfare recipients and physicians; the enforcement of laws against Aboriginal harvesting practices; the perceptions of incivilities or disorder in public housing projects; and the selective criminalization of gambling. By demonstrating that how crime is defined and enforced is connected to social location and status, these interdisciplinary case studies and an afterword by Marie Andr e Bertrand challenge us to consider just who is rendered criminal and why. This timely volume will appeal to policy makers and students and practitioners of law, criminology and sociology. The Story of the Outlaw Emerson Hough, 1907

Sunset Showdown - a wild western action adventure C Lowry, 2025-02-12. He stared at the valley stretched out below him and wondered what adventure awaited. He had money from a job well done and he was pretty sure there wasn't a posse on his trail after a tin star mishap. But Rip Campbell rode out of the mountains and right into trouble. And if he's fast enough on the trigger, he just might survive. Fans of wild western action adventure are going to enjoy this wild west thriller.
