To Each Their Own Camino Roxey Edwards, 2018-06-15 There I was an average middle aged woman living and working on Canada s west coast How then did I come to be walking this ancient path family and friends left behind and everything I owned in a pack on my back Exchanging my office pumps for hiking boots and my purse for a backpack for forty days I followed the Camino de Santiago a historic pilgrimage of almost eight hundred kilometres across northern Spain During my journey to Santiago I experienced climbs and descents that challenged my endurance ancient towns and historical landmarks that excited my imagination and endless plains and stretches of solitude that tested my soul I bent against blinding snow and pummeling winds endured drenching rains and basked in brilliant sunshine My steps led over rocky trails through whispering forests among dancing grasslands and through bustling cosmopolitan cities and crumbling towns A colourful international cast of characters strolled through my days from an irreverent Irishman to a Polish political prisoner to a young German couple packing their new baby to a Tennessee twosome that was walking the world Their stories were as varied as the landscapes through which we passed Some sought spiritual renewal some walked to exercise grief and some in hope or gratitude for personal miracles Others just enjoyed walking seeing a new country and meeting new people Each experienced their own Camino in their own way Ordinary people living ordinary lives suddenly stepping out on an extraordinary journey we shared food wine and bunk rooms Through laughter and tears we broke down barriers of language religion and nationality Strangers became friends and friends became family some just for a day or two and some for a lifetime
