Whats Wrong With Anzac The Militarisation Of Australian History:

What's Wrong with ANZAC? Marilyn Lake, Henry Reynolds, 2010 In recent years Anzac an idea as much as an actual army corps has become the dominant force within Australian history overshadowing everything else The commemoration of Anzac Day is bigger than ever while Remembrance Day VE Day VP Day and other military anniversaries grow in significance each year What's Wrong with ANZAC? MARILYN LAKE AND HENRY REYNOLDS WITH. MARK MCKENNA AND JOY

DAMOUSI, Marilyn Lake, 2010-10-19 In recent years Anzac an idea as much as an actual army corps has become the dominant force within Australian history overshadowing everything else The commemoration of Anzac Day is bigger than ever while Remembrance Day VE Day VP Day and other military anniversaries grow in significance each year Anzac, The Unauthorised Biography Carolyn Holbrook, 2014-09-01 Raise a glass for an Anzac Run for an Anzac Camp under the stars for an Anzac Is there anything Australians won't do to keep the Anzac legend at the centre of our national story But standing firm on the other side of the Anzac enthusiasts is a chorus of critics claiming that the appetite for Anzac is militarising our history and indoctrinating our children So how are we to make sense of this struggle over how we remember the Great War Anzac the Unauthorised Biography cuts through the clamour to provide a much needed historical perspective on the battle over Anzac It traces how since 1915 Australia's memory of the Great War has declined and surged reflecting the varied and complex history of the Australian nation itself Most importantly it asks why so many Australians persist with the fiction that the nation was born on 25 April 1915 Seeing Christ in Australia Since 1850 Kerrie Handasyde, Sean

Winter, 2024-09-03 This book presents cultural representations of Christ embedded in the imagination and the contested myths of Australian life The essays attest to the variety and subtlety of neglected or unspoken representations of Christ in Australia In a land that has often declared itself secular or post Christian this volume looks into the Australian imagination in between the sacred and secular to see Christ in Australia Commemorative Spaces of the First World War James Wallis, David C. Harvey, 2017-07-20 This is the first book to bring together an interdisciplinary theoretically engaged and global perspective on the First World War through the lens of historical and cultural geography Reflecting the centennial interest in the conflict the collection explores the relationships between warfare and space and pays particular attention to how commemoration is connected to spatial elements of national identity and processes of heritage and belonging Venturing beyond military history and memory studies contributors explore conceptual contributions of geography to analyse the First World War as well as reflecting upon the imperative for an academic discussion on the War's centenary This book explores the War's impact in more unexpected theatres blurring the boundary between home and fighting fronts investigating the experiences of the war amongst civilians and often overlooked combatants It also critically examines the politics of hindsight in the post war period and offers an historical geographical account of how the First World War has been memorialised within official spaces in addition to those overlooked and often undervalued alternative spaces of commemoration This innovative and timely text will be key reading for students and scholars of the First World War and more broadly in historical and cultural geography social and cultural history European history Heritage Studies military history and memory studies

The Story of Australia Louise Johnson, Tanja Luckins, David Walker, 2021-09-02 The Story of Australia provides a fresh engaging and comprehensive introduction to Australia's history and geography An island continent with distinct physical features Australia is home to the most enduring Indigenous cultures on the planet In the late eighteenth century newcomers from distant worlds brought great change Since that time Australia has been shaped by many peoples with competing visions of what the future might hold This new history of Australia integrates a rich body of scholarship from many disciplines drawing upon maps novels poetry art music diaries and letters government and scientific reports newspapers architecture and the land itself engaging with Australia in its historical geographical national and global contexts It pays particular attention to women and Indigenous Australians as well as exploring key themes including invasion colonisation land use urbanisation war migration suburbia and social movements for change Elegantly written readers will enjoy Australia's story from its origins to the present as the nation seeks to resolve tensions between Indigenous dispossession British tradition and multicultural diversity while finding its place in an Asian region and dealing with global challenges like climate change It is an ideal text for students academics and general readers with an interest in Australian history geography politics and culture

Abortion across Borders Christabelle Sethna, Gayle Davis, 2019-03-26 A timely examination of how restrictive policies force women to travel both within and across national borders to access abortion services Safe legal and affordable abortion is widely recognized as an essential medical service for women across the world When access to that service is denied or restricted women are compelled to carry unwanted pregnancies to term seek backstreet abortionists attempt self induced abortions or even travel to less restrictive states provinces and countries to receive care Abortion across Borders focuses on travel across domestic and international boundaries to terminate a pregnancy Christabelle Sethna and Gayle Davis have gathered a cadre of authors to examine how restrictive policies force women to move both within and across national borders in order to reach abortion providers often at great expense over long distances and with significant safety risks Taking historical and contemporary perspectives contributors examine the situation in regions that include Texas Prince Edward Island Ireland Australia the United Kingdom and Eastern Europe Throughout they take a feminist intersectional approach to transnational travel and access to abortion services that is sensitive to inequalities of gender race and class in reproductive health care This multidisciplinary volume raises challenging logistical legal and ethical questions while exploring the gendered aspects of medical tourism A noticeable rollback of reproductive rights and renewed attention to border security in many parts of the world will make Abortion across Borders of timely interest to scholars of gender and women's studies health medicine law mobility studies and reproductive justice Contributors Barbara Baird Niklas Barke Anna Bogic Hayley Brown Lori A Brown Cathrine Chambers Ewelina Ciaputa Gayle Davis Mary Gilmartin Agata Ignaciuk Sin ad Kennedy Lena

Lennerhed Jo Ann MacDonald Colleen MacQuarrie Jane O'Neill Clare Parker Christabelle Sethna Sally Sheldon Private Lives, Public History Anna Clark, 2016-02-01 The past is consumed on a grand scale popularised by television programs enjoyed by reading groups walking groups historical societies and heritage tours and supported by unprecedented digital access to archival records Yet our history has also become the subject of heated political contest and debate In Private Lives Public History historian Anna Clark explores how our personal pasts intersect with broader historical questions and debates Drawing on interviews with Australians from five communities around the country she uncovers how we think about the past in the context of our local and intimate stories and the role history plays in our lives Transnational Tourism Experiences at Gallipoli Jim McKay, 2018-05-24 This book offers a fresh account of the Anzac myth and the bittersweet emotional experience of Gallipoli tourists Challenging the straightforward view of the Anzac obsession as a kind of nationalistic military Halloween it shows how transnational developments in tourism and commemoration have created the conditions for a complex dissonant emotional experience of sadness humility anger pride and empathy among Anzac tourists Drawing on the in depth testimonies of travellers from Australia and New Zealand McKay shines a new and more complex light on the history and cultural politics of the Anzac myth As well as making a ground breaking empirically based intervention into the culture wars this book offers new insights into the global memory boom and transnational developments in backpacker tourism sports tourism and dark or dissonant tourism Militarization and the Global Rise of Paramilitary Culture Brad West, Thomas Crosbie, 2021-10-12 This edited book demonstrates a new multidimensional comprehension of the relationship between war the military and civil society by exploring the global rise of paramilitary culture Moving beyond binary understandings that inform the militarization of culture thesis and examining various national and cultural contexts the collection outlines ways in which a process of paramilitarization is shaping the world through the promotion of new warrior archetypes It is argued that while the paramilitary hero is associated with military themes their character is in tension with the central principals of modern military organization something that often challenges the state's perceived monopoly on violence As such paramilitarization has profound implications for institutional military identity the influence of paramilitary organizations and broadly how organised violence is popularly understood
