Christian Kinship David A. Torrance, 2022-09-22 Ideas of kinship play a significant role in structuring everyday life and yet kinship has been neglected in Christian ethics moral philosophy and bioethics Attention has been paid in these disciplines to the ethics of family but with little regard to the evidence that kinship varies widely from culture to culture suggesting that it is in fact culturally constructed Surveying notions of shared substance e.g. blood ties house gender and personhood as theorised and practiced in the Christian tradition Torrance critiques the special privileging of the blood tie In the place of European and American cultural assumptions to the contrary it is kinship in Christ that is presented as the basis of a truly Christian account for social ties Torrance also aims to stimulate the moral imagination to consider Christian kinship might be lived out in miniature in everyday life
