Where God Happens Discovering Christ In One Another:

Where God Happens Rowan Williams, 2007-08-14 The place where God happens according to Rowan Williams's striking new reading of the Desert Fathers and Mothers is between each other. It's a truth that we of the twenty-first century most urgently need to learn in order to heal the experience of alienation that has become endemic to our age and these odd and appealing ancient figures surprisingly hold keys to this healing. The fourth-century Christian hermits of Egypt, Syria, and Palestine understood the truth of Christian community profoundly and their lives demonstrate it vividly even though they often lived in solitude and isolation. The author breaks through our preconceived ideas of the Desert Fathers to reveal them in a new light as true and worthy role models even for us in our modern lives who have much to teach us about dealing with the anxieties, uncertainties, and sense of isolation that have become hallmarks of modern life. They especially embody valuable insights about community about how to live together in an intimate and meaningful way. Williams makes these radical figures who clearly have a special place in his heart come to life in a new way for everyone. The book includes an appendix of selections from the teachings of the Desert Fathers.

"Christianity, Democracy, and the Radical Ordinary" Romand Coles, Stanley Hauerwas, 2010-02-25 These essays reflect possibilities and practices of radical democracy and radical ecclesia that take form in the textures of relational care for the radical ordinary. Hauerwas and Coles point out political and theological imaginations beyond the political formations which seems to be the declination and the production of death. The authors call us to a revolutionary politics of wild patience that seeks transformation through attentive practices of listening, relationship building, and a careful tending to places, common goods, and diverse possibilities for flourishing.

Everyday Contemplative L. Roger Owens, 2022-02-01 What does it mean to live a contemplative life? How does someone become contemplative? Does being contemplative mean sitting around thinking about God all day? Does it require living a simple or even austere life like a monk or a nun? Roger Owens challenges readers to expand their definition of contemplative living to encompass all ways of seeking to be more open available and responsive to God God may be found just as easily in an office cubicle a donut shop or a laundry room as in a monastic cell In Everyday Contemplative Owens presents seven characteristics of contemplative living longing attention patience playfulness vulnerability nonjudgment and freedom One ingredient he considers essential to the contemplative life is sharing it with others and this book invites readers to discover the joys of contemplative living To Whom Shall We Go Irene Alexander, Christopher Brown, 2021-05-07 With the world turned upside down by the global pandemic people of faith aligned to the upside down kingdom of Jesus are asking how do we sing the Lord s song in these times How do we now live worship and serve amid such upheaval insecurity fear grief and social isolation Is it just to endure the worst or to seek the best by walking the way of the cross Is there an invitation to renewed kingdom citizenship of heaven and earth Our backgrounds will impact our responses as will our prayers our scripture reflections our worship and our willingness to put the center of ourselves outside to offer unlimited space for others With backgrounds in medicine physics economics missiology theology social activism pastoral care and spiritual companioning these writers engage such questions There is a cruciform shape to their reflections and to the prayers and liturgies they include We glimpse the One who is with us and for us in these troubled times sharing our laments fostering kingdom heartedness igniting our passions offering tender mercies decluttering our hearts making peace instilling courage and inviting our participation Though in crisis times our poverty of spirit is amplified the kingdom of heaven is wide open With contributions from Terry Gatfield Athena Gorospe Ross McKenzie Tim MCowan Paul Mercer Sarah Nicholl Charles Ringma A 30 Day Retreat William C. Ringma, 2013-03-08 There is a hunger in the modern world for spirituality One vast resource of spiritual wisdom comes from the pre Reformation church from the martyrs of the first centuries of Christianity through the long tradition of monasticism to the medieval Christian mystics These are the deep wells of Christian reflection from persons such as John Chrysostom Augustine Benedict Francis of Assisi Bonaventure Bernard of Clairvaux Meister Eckhart Hildegard of Bingen and Julian of Norwich to mention just a few The spiritual insights of over seventy men and women of pre Reformation Christianity are found in these pages From these figures we can learn more about the practices of prayer and contemplation a life of following Christ the relevance of community the challenge of asceticism the movement of withdrawal and engagement the love of God for God s own sake living the gospel sacrificing for the kingdom of God the longing for union with God the practices of justice and a life of prophetic witness For us so embedded and shaped by the modern world this ancient wisdom will come as refreshing water and as a breath of fresh air with the wings of the Spirit and whispers of angels Emotionally Healthy Spirituality Peter Scazzero, 2017-04-25 MORE THAN 1 MILLION COPIES SOLD A road map for discipleship with Jesus that is powerfully transformative Peter Scazzero learned the hard way you can t be spiritually mature
