

My Autobiography

I am Adrian Carl V. Dumat-ol. I am currently studying at Lanao del Norte Comprehensive High School. I'm working on an autobiographical essay about a life event that motivates me to study harder. I am writing about my experience when I found out that I have half siblings. That incident had a huge impact on me.

It all happened one summer day in 2011 when I was still 6 years old. At that time, I had no idea that I had a half sibling. One day, my father told me to go with him because we were going to visit my aunt. While we were traveling, my father told me that there was something that I needed to know, and he never told me that it was all about my half-siblings. When we arrived at my aunt's house, I noticed my big sister, and at that time, I didn't know she was my half sibling. All I knew is that we have the same mother, which is not.

While we were talking, father revealed a family secret to me that I had not known since I was born. That is, my older sister and I are not purely siblings because we had different mothers. I didn't believe them at first, but as I looked into their eyes, they seemed very serious. My half-sister spoke to me, and she confirmed everything our father had said, and she reassured me that even though we have different mothers, we are still siblings. I feel better and relieved after we talk.

Several years have passed, and my half siblings are changing the way they treat us. So I keep my distance and stop contacting them. They asked our father why I was not contacting them. Back then, I was the one who was going to chat with them first or contact them. They confronted me about why I was avoiding them, and I told them that they were the first ones who changed the way they treated us.

One day, my half siblings start making rumors that because of my mother, our father is starting to lose money, which is not true. So I was stunned by what they said. I asked them why they started to spread rumors about my mother. They made a lot of excuses and now we are still on bad terms.

Even though many problems happen, I need to stay strong and not be affected by what happened. I need to respect my elders, even if they have done bad things to me. Do not put your faith in all of their promises because there is a chance they will break them. Always choose good deeds because of all of the things you have done, God will always watch you.

Where Did My Life Go? Homeless and Out of Business K.D. Sanders,2015-10-31 Where Did My Life Go Homeless and Out of Business is by far one of the most raw powerful and engaging reads that I ve come across in a long long time Author K D Sanders offers readers a very personal and unaltered look into his life thoughts and feelings as he underwent some very rough times as a homeless man while experiencing that many of us will never even come close to in our ordinary lives I say this and the book may seem quite gloomy at first but I also would say there s another side to it I interpret the book as having a sort of theme about personal redemption and keeping headstrong even through all the bad things that life can throw at you The author manages to keep his spirits high even while dealing with unfortunate circumstances and for that I admire his courage As well as this the text is written in a way that flows nicely due to a relatively relaxed undertone and there are plenty of general musings about the author s opinion on homeless life in general that I found to be very thought provoking and even sobering at times Overall I enjoyed the read and I found it to be honestly quite refreshingly new compared to what I ve been coming across these days Definitely worth checking out Amazon Review

Life Don't

Have To End Cricket Barrazotto, 2013-11-04 Life Don't Have To End is a compilation of stories, images, and wisdom from HIV positive men and women. Over a two-year period, more than 60 courageous individuals from the JACQUES Initiative of the Institute of Human Virology at the University of Maryland School of Medicine dictated their personal life stories to Cricket Barrazotto, a friend to the JACQUES Initiative and photographer, for the purpose of compiling a book. These contributors wanted their voices and stories to be inspirational to others. The book speaks to the resiliency of the human spirit and body. Readers are exposed to tragedy and triumph as they share in the intimate journeys of the book's contributors. Additionally, Ms. Barrazotto spent a year teaching photography to several of the book's contributors. It is the clients' photographic imagery that illustrates the book.
