Where Giants Trod The Saga Of Kenyas Desert Lake:

Where Giants Trod Monty Brown,1989 Quest For The Jade Sea Pascal James Imperato,2018-02-12 In this fascinating story of colonial competition around Lake Rudolf a remote body of water in northern Kenya Pascal James Imperato examines the political and diplomatic aspects of colonial competition for the lake as well as the many expeditions that traveled there Although the chief competitors for the lake included the British Italians the French Russians and Ethiopians its colonial fate was decided by Great Britain and Ethiopia The role of Ethiopia as a late nineteenth century colonial power unfolds as Imperato provides unique insights and analyses of Ethiopian colonial policy and its effects on the peoples who inhabited the region of the lake The last of the major African lakes to be visited by European travelers in the late nineteenth century Lake Rudolf lies in the eastern arm of the great Rift Valley in present day northern Kenya near the Ethiopian border Also known as Lake Turkana Lake Rudolf is a large saltwater body two hundred miles long and forty miles wide Fed by the Omo River that flows south from the Ethiopian highlands it is surrounded by an inhospitable landscape of extinct volcanoes wind driven semidesert and old lava flows Because of the greenish hue of its waters it has long been called the Jade Sea Quest for the Jade Sea examines the fascinating story of colonial competition around this remote lake Pascal James Imperatos account yields important insights into European colonial policies in East Africa in the late nineteenth century and how these policies came into conflict with a powerful indigenous and independent African state Ethiopia which itself was engaged in imperial expansion Although the chief competitors for the lake included the British Italians the French Russians and Ethiopians its colonial fate was decided by Great Britain and Ethiopia The role of Ethiopia as a late nineteenth century colonial power unfolds as Imperato provides unique insights and analyses of Ethiopian colonial policy and its effects on the peoples who inhabited the region of the lake As well as examining the political and diplomatic aspects of colonial competition for Lake Rudolf Quest for the Jade Sea focuses on the expeditions that traveled there Many of these were the field expressions of colonial policy others were undertaken in the interest of scientific and geographical discovery Whatever the impetus their success required courage and much suffering on the part of those who led them Whether as willing agents of larger colonial designs soldiers intent on promoting their military careers or explorers who wished to advance scientific knowledge expedition leaders left behind not only fascinating chronicles of their experiences and discoveries but also parts of the larger story of colonial competition around an East African lake Where the Giants Trod Monty Brown,1989-01-01 A Tapestry of African Histories Nicholas K. Githuku,2021-10-18 In A Tapestry of African Histories With Longer Times and Wider Geopolitics contributors demonstrate that African historians are neither comfortable nor content with studying continental or global geopolitical social and economic events across the superficial divide of time as if they were disparate or disconnected Instead the chapters within the volume reevaluate African history through a geopolitically transcendent lens that brings African countries into conversation with other pertinent histories both within and outside of the continent The collection analyzes the pre and post colonial eras within African countries such as Kenya Malawi and Sudan examining major historical figures and events struggles for independence and stability contemporary urban settlements social and economic development as well as constitutional legal and human rights issues that began in the colonial era and persist to this day

Colonial Kenya Observed S. H. Fazan, 2014-11-14 The coast of East Africa was considered a strategically invaluable region for the establishment of trading ports both for Arab and Persian merchants long prior to invasion and conquest by Europeans In the initial stages of the scramble for Africa in the 18th century control of the area was an aspiration for every colonial nation in Europe but it was not until 1895 that it was finally dominated by a sole power and proclaimed The Protectorate of British East Africa In the early 20th century the coast was brimming with vitality as immigrants colonisers and missionaries from Arabia India and Europe poured in to take advantage of growing commercial opportunities including the prospect of enslaving millions of native Africans The development of Kenya is an exceptional tale within the history of British rule in perhaps no other colony did nationalistic feeling evolve in conditions of such extensive social and political change In 1911 S H Fazan sailed to what later became the Republic of Kenya to work for the colonial government Immersing himself in knowledge of traditional language and law he recorded the vast changes to local culture that he encountered after decades of working with both the British administration and the Kenyan people This work charts the sweeping tide of social change that occurred through his career with the clarity and insight that comes with a total intimacy of a country His memoirs examine the fascinating complexity of interaction between the colonial and native courts commercial land reform and the revolutionised dynamic of labour relations By further unearthing the political tensions that climaxed with the Mau Mau Revolt of 1952 1960 this invaluable work on the European colonial period paints a comprehensive and revealing firsthand account for anyone with an interest in British and African history Fazan's story provides a quite unparalleled view of colonial Africa and the conduct of Empire across half a century Remembering Turkana Samuel F.

Derbyshire, 2020-07-30 This book explores aspects of the socio economic and political history of the Turkana of northern Kenya examining the making and remaking of the regional economy via the trajectories of socio material interaction that have structured key practices relationships and livelihoods over the past century Traversing Turkana's constituent livelihoods and examining the historical relationships between them in relation to shifting economic ecological and political factors the book asks what perspective emerges from an in depth understanding of the everyday things that have taken part in processes of substantial socio cultural transformation By setting out a series of new examples established through long term research in the region it offers a characterisation of Turkana's iterative transformation as the articulation of a set of long term continuities Investigating quotidian personal and community histories it argues that Turkana's complex network of livelihood interactions has on the whole strengthened over time through its continual reformulation as identities livelihood practices and social institutions have been re imagined and reshaped with each new generation in order to reconstruct accumulated memory and knowledges Remembering Turkana provides a wide ranging socio historical overview of the Turkana region and people situating critical contemporary issues within diverse bodies of literature The characterisation of long term change and continuity as articulated and enacted via material culture production use and exchange that it offers will be of significance to a broad array of scholarly disciplines including archaeology history anthropology and political science Desertification, Land Degradation and Drought Resilience Chizoba Chinweze,2023-05-25 A growing body of research and scientific as well as local evidence has shown that climate change impacts is on the rise with its attendant risks hazards for the land system even as it relates to DLDD these being exacerbated by anthropogenic factors thus pushing the earth system to a tipping point therefore requiring that society braze up its coping capacities to avert the impending danger This book highlights the urgent need to move from desertification land degradation and drought DLDD risk management to resilience The aim is to provide new insight on the issues of DLDD and stir policy guide on vulnerability reduction and building adaptive capacities so as to achieve sustainable development and identify pathways to a land degradation neutral world It is worthy to note that globally about one fifth of earth s land area more than 2 billion hectares is degraded and this jeopardizes the livelihoods of more than 3 5 billion people i e about 40% of the world population The global population is still growing and is projected to reach 8 3 billion people by 2030 Such growth will put unprecedented pressure on the productivity of the land system from day to day
