The Bloomsbury Handbook of Values and Ethical Change in Transformative Leadership in Higher Education Mary Drinkwater, Yusef Waghid, 2024-08-22 The Bloomsbury Handbook of Values and Ethical Change in Transformative Leadership in Higher Education explores the theoretical and conceptual frameworks which can broaden and deepen an educational leader's knowledge and skill set related to values and ethical change in times of crises and change. With contributions from five continents, the handbook brings together multi-contextual perspectives to the understanding and application of the theoretical and conceptual models in the field. A broad range of leadership skills and approaches are explored, including collaborative, democratic, learning-centered, transactional, charismatic, transformative, and transformational. Stieglarian nootechnologies, agency theory, and network leadership. Countries covered include Australia, Brazil, Canada, Cyprus, India, Italy, Portugal, South Africa, and the UK. The book forms part of the The Bloomsbury Handbooks of Crises and Transformative Leadership in Higher Education collection brought together by Mary Drinkwater.

Transforming Educational Leadership Anindya Kundu, 2025-10-20 As educational settings in the United States become more diverse and uncertain, students need support in new and formative, non-academic ways. To combat the deep inequalities that persist across the educational system, we need transformative leadership. Yet, given rigid institutional rules, a legacy of structural barriers, and political attacks meant to discredit and defund schools, how can educational leaders effectively promote equity and champion the rights of all students? Transforming Educational Leadership sets out to answer this question by examining the lived experiences of leaders from a range of vantages: students, parents, educators, organizational leaders, and scholars. Drawing key lessons from their narratives and considering them alongside theory from sociological and leadership studies, Anindya Kundu presents tools for emerging and seasoned leaders, equipping them to build better systems to address stakeholders' basic needs, apply research to make sense of complex problems, maintain conviction in the face of staunch opposition, promote the agency of everyone served, and uphold dignity through educational leadership. Ultimately, Transforming Educational Leadership calls us to action to broaden our conceptions around what educational leadership is and should be, to become the leaders we can be, and to reclaim education as our collective responsibility so we can together learn to root out and heal the inequalities that plague the US education system and its learners.

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Ethics of Care in Transformative Leadership in Higher Education Mary Drinkwater, Yusef Waghid, 2024-10-17 The Bloomsbury Handbook of Ethics of Care in Transformative Leadership in Higher Education explores how the use of different ethics of care lenses can be used to nurture and sustain relationships within and between humans as part of the role and responsibilities of HEIs in addressing local and global crises and change. With contributions from four continents, the handbook brings together multi-contextual perspectives to explore ethics of care in the development of the field. Topics explored include leadership praxis, pedagogy, well-being, cultivating and sustaining relationships within and between institutions, post-human relationships, and responsibilities Countries covered include Australia Canada Guyana South Africa the UK and the USA The book forms part of the Bloomsbury Handbooks of Crises and Transformative Leadership in Higher Education collection brought together by Mary Drinkwater Re-Imagining Transformative Leadership in Teacher Education Ann E.
