A Social Constructivist Approach to Translator Education Donald Kiraly,2014-07-16 This is a book about the teaching and particularly the acquisition of translation related skills and knowledge Well grounded in theory the book also provides numerous examples drawn from the author s extensive classroom experience in translator education and foreign language teaching Kiraly uses a number of classroom case studies to illustrate his method including introductory courses in translation studies project based translation practice courses translation studies seminars as well as naturalistic foreign language learning classes for student translators The book is primarily geared toward translator educators and programme administrators as well as students of translation and will also be of interest to foreign language teachers who incorporate translation into their teaching to translation scholars and to others involved in the world of translation The Role of Theory in Translator Training Daniela Di Mango,2018-11-26

Translation study programs have always been torn between the expectations placed on them to provide students with a comprehensive education at an academic level but at the same time to prepare them for the demands of the professional translation market There is furthermore an ongoing debate about a supposed gap between translation theory and practice Several often opposing claims have been put forward concerning the usefulness of theory to professionals and students and how and when to best implement theoretical courses in translation curricula The aim of this book is to provide an overview of the different opinions and expectations that have been put forward in the literature and to test some of these claims empirically on student subjects who have been trained with either a practical or a theoretical focus on translation It thus gives insights into the role of both theoretical and practical aspects in translator training and the ways in which each of them can contribute to the development of translation competence Global Trends in Translator and Interpreter Training
