The Routledge Companion to Travel Writing Carl Thompson, 2015-12-22 As many places around the world confront issues of globalization migration and postcoloniality travel writing has become a serious genre of study reflecting some of the greatest concerns of our time Encompassing forms as diverse as field journals investigative reports guidebooks memoirs comic sketches and lyrical reveries travel writing is now a crucial focus for discussion across many subjects within the humanities and social sciences An ideal starting point for beginners but also offering new perspectives for those familiar with the field The Routledge Companion to Travel Writing examines Key debates within the field including postcolonial studies gender sexuality and visual culture Historical and cultural contexts tracing the evolution of travel writing across time and over cultures Different styles modes and themes of travel writing from pilgrimage to tourism Imagined geographies and the relationship between travel writing and the social ideological and occasionally fictional constructs through which we view the different regions of the world Covering all of the major topics and debates this is an essential overview of the field which will also encourage new and exciting directions for study Contributors Simon Bainbridge Anthony Bale Shobhana Bhattacharji D nlaith Bird Elizabeth A Bohls Wendy Bracewell Kylie Cardell Daniel Carey Janice Cavell Simon Cooke Matthew Day Kate Douglas Justin D Edwards David Farley Charles Forsdick Corinne Fowler Laura E Franey Rune Graulund Justine Greenwood James M Hargett Jennifer Hayward Eva Johanna Holmberg Graham Huggan William Hutton Robin Jarvis Tabish Khair Zo Kinsley Barbara Korte Julia Kuehn Scott Laderman Claire Lindsay Churnjeet Mahn Nabil Matar Steve Mentz Laura Nenzi Aed n N Loingsigh Manfred Pfister Susan L Roberson Paul Smethurst Carl Thompson C W Thompson Margaret Topping Richard White Gregory Woods

Methods for Teaching Travel Literature and Writing Eileen Groom, 2005 The contributors to Methods for Teaching Travel Literature and Writing Exploring the World and Self discuss how and why they have integrated travel literature and writing into their courses Subjects range from the study of travel literature granting insight into how travel authors such as Bill Bryson and Paul Theroux convince readers to buy into their worlds and reflect the readers positions in society to contemplating the meanings of the words traveler and tourist Other chapters examine how actual traveling can shape students writing and vice versa whereas still others address how the study of the genre and actually writing it promotes interdisciplinarity

Postcolonial London John McLeod, 2004-08-02 This superb study explores the imaginative transformation of the city by African Asian Caribbean and South Pacific writers since the 1950s

Gender and colonial space Sara Mills, 2013-07-19 Gender and colonial space is a trenchant analysis of the complex relation between social relations including notions of class nationality and gender and spatial relations landscape architecture and topography in post colonial contexts Arguing against much of the psychoanalytic focus of much current post colonial theory Mills aims to set out in a new direction drawing on a wide range of literary and non literary texts to develop a more materialist approach She foregrounds gender in this field where it has often been marginalised by the critical orthodoxies demonstrating its importance not only in spatial theorising in general but in the post colonial theorising of space in particular Concentrating on the period of high British colonialism at the close of the nineteenth century she adroitly examines a range of contexts looking at a range of colonial contexts such as India Africa America Canada Australia and Britain illustrating how relations must be analysed for the way in which different colonial contexts define and constitute each other Literary Research and the

British Eighteenth Century Peggy Keeran, Jennifer Bowers, 2013-02-21 The 18th century in Britain was a transition period for literature Patronage either by a benefactor or through subscription lingered even as the publishing and bookselling industries developed The practice of reviewing books became well established during the second half of the century with the first periodical founded in 1749 For the literary scholar these gradual changes mean that different search strategies are required to conduct research into primary and secondary source material across the era Literary Research and the British Eighteenth Century addresses these unique challenges It examines how the following all contribute to the richness of literary research for this era book and periodical publishing a growing literate society dissemination of literature through salons private societies and coffee houses the growing importance of book reviews the explosion of publishing and the burgeoning of primary source material available through new publishing and digital initiatives in the 21st century This volume explores primary and secondary resources including general literary research guides union library catalogs print and online bibliographies scholarly journals manuscripts and archives 18th century books newspapers and periodicals contemporary reception and electronic texts and journals as well as Web resources Each chapter addresses the research methods and tools best used to extract relevant information and compares and evaluates sources making this book an invaluable guide to any literary scholar and student of the British eighteenth century Wild Romanticism Markus Poetzsch, Cassandra Falke, 2021-03-30 Wild Romanticism consolidates contemporary thinking about conceptions of the wild in British and European Romanticism clarifying the emergence of wilderness as a cultural symbolic and ecological idea This volume brings together the work of twelve scholars who examine representations of wildness in canonical texts such as Frankenstein Northanger Abbey Kubla Khan Expostulation and Reply and Childe Harold s Pilgrimage as well as lesser known works by Radcliffe Clare H Iderlin P B Shelley and Hogg Celebrating the wild provided Romantic period authors with a way of thinking about nature that resists instrumentalization and anthropocentrism but writing about wilderness also engaged them in debates about the sublime and picturesque as aesthetic categories about gender and the cultivation of independence as natural and about the ability of natural forces to resist categorical or literal enclosure This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of Romanticism environmental literature environmental history and the environmental humanities more broadly
