Westphall,2015-02-05 In Books and Religious Devotion Allan Westphall presents a study of the book collecting habits and annotation practices of Thomas Connary an Irish immigrant farmer who lived in New Hampshire in the latter half of the nineteenth century Connary led a pious life that revolved around the use annotation and sharing of religious books His surviving annotated volumes provide a revealing glimpse into the utility of books for a common reader and they show how one remarkable eccentric reader turned religious books into near icons Through a careful excavation of book adaptations and enhancements Westphall gives us insight into the range of opportunities provided by the material book for recording and communicating Connary s religious fervor The study also investigates the broader nineteenth century cultural setting in which books are seen as testimonies of personal faith and come to function as instruments of social interaction in both domestic and public spheres Underlying Connary s many and varied interactions with books is his belief that working in books as physical objects can be a devout exercise instrumental in human salvation      Destined to Reign Devotional, Gift Edition Joseph Prince,2009-05 Joseph Prince shares 365 dynamic devotions revealing that you can reign over every adversity lack and destructive habit limiting you from experiencing the success wholeness and victory you are destined to enjoy      Give Us This Day Devotionals, Volume 6 Charles Erlandson,2023-06-29 Give Us This Day is a unique daily devotional commentary for the entire New Testament based on the ancient method called lectio divina Lectio divina or divine reading is the method used by the early church and countless Christians through the centuries to read the Scriptures to form and transform the soul more than merely to inform the mind Give Us This Day deals in depth with entire passages and their contexts Rather than selecting only certain portions of the New Testament to write about Fr Charles has written a devotional for each and every passage of the New Testament Fr Charles writes for the whole person he s not afraid to use his sense of humor and he carefully relates the Bible not only to the individual s life but also to the life of the Church At the end of each day s devotional an appropriate Prayer is offered as well as Points for Further Reflection on the day s lesson Each devotional concludes with a suggested Resolution to put into effect what the Spirit has stirred up in the heart of the reader during the course of his reading meditation and prayer
