The Art of Classic Planning Nir Haim Buras, 2020-01-28 An accomplished architect and urbanist goes back to the roots of what makes cities attractive and livable demonstrating how we can restore function and beauty to our urban spaces for the long term Nearly everything we treasure in the world's most beautiful cities was built over a century ago Cities like Prague Paris and Lisbon draw millions of visitors from around the world because of their exquisite architecture walkable neighborhoods and human scale Yet a great deal of the knowledge and practice behind successful city planning has been abandoned over the last hundred years not because of traffic population growth or other practical hurdles but because of ill considered theories emerging from Modernism and reactions to it The errors of urban design over the last century are too great not to question The solutions being offered today sustainability walkability smart and green technologies hint at what has been lost and what may be regained but they remain piecemeal and superficial In The Art of Classic Planning architect and planner Nir Haim Buras documents and extends the time tested and holistic practices that held sway before the reign of Modernism With hundreds of full color illustrations and photographs that will captivate architects planners administrators and developers The Art of Classic Planning restores and revitalizes the foundations of urban planning Inspired by venerable cities like Kyoto Vienna and Venice and by the great successes of L'Enfant's Washington Haussmann's Paris and Burnham's Chicago Buras combines theory and a host of examples to arrive at clear guidelines for best practices in classic planning for today's world The Art of Classic Planning celebrates the enduring principles of urban design and invites us to return to building beautiful cities Translation and the Classic Alexandra Lianeri, Vanda Zajko, 2008-08-21 Contemporary translation studies have explored translation not as a means of recovering a source text but as a process of interpretation and production of literary meaning and value Translation and the Classic uses this idea to discuss the relationship between translation and the classic text It proposes a framework in which the classic figures less as an autonomous entity than as the result of the interplay between source text and translation practice and examines the consequences of this hypothesis for questioning established definitions of the classic how does translation mediate the social political and national uses of the classics in the contemporary global context of changing canons and traditions The volume contains a total of eighteen original essays plus an introduction written by scholars working in classics and classical reception translation studies literary theory comparative literature theatre and performance studies history and philosophy and makes a potent contribution to pressing debates in all of these areas Great Works of Art and what Makes Them Great Fred Wellington Ruckstull,1925 This is a book of combat in which little quarter will be given to certain tendencies in the art world and the pessimistic cynicism and childish hypocrisy by which they are pushed forward Ruckstull makes his point with 175 illustrations from the art world Constructing a New Canon of Post-1980s Indian English Fiction Sahdev Luhar,Madhurita Choudhary,2017-08-21 The literary canon implies the evaluation or estimation of certain literary texts as the most important during a particular time The canon is not merely a set of texts it is a set of standards evaluative procedures and values Belonging to a canon confers a guarantee of literary greatness A canon is formed by a particular group to channelize cultural hegemony over others or can be constructed by a governed group to bring about cultural symmetry The rise of diverse literatures in English in different parts of the world after the colonial rule of England was the consequence of an urge to articulate a cultural equilibrium or an urge to strike back The process of canon formation is also a focused and bigoted act and is always carried out to accomplish certain self centred objectives It is commonly accepted that canon formation is executed to accomplish or naturalize certain ideological functions In the sphere of Indian English literature Indian English fiction after the end of the 1980s has emerged as a new canon This book looks into the process of literary canon formation in Indian universities and examines such fiction as an alternative literary canon and as an anti imperialistic response to the British literary canon The book ascertains the anti imperialistic design involved in forming the canon of post 1980 Indian English fiction examines the gradual emerging trends in such fiction and discerns the role of language culture and native ethos in the formation of a canon It also differentiates post 1980s Indian English fiction from British fiction bhasa fiction and even from pre 1980s Indian English fiction
