Thomas Campion Thomas Campion, 1889 At the Scent of Water J. Gerald Janzen, 2009-07-28 On the basis of a study of east wind in the Bible whirlwind in Job Janzen proposes that the prominence God gives to rain in Job 38 with its renewal of the parched earth and the ensuing vigor of all forms of life signals God's response to Job's thirst heals Job's bitterness and restores him to a life at the end of which he dies contented Janzen demonstrates how life crippling bitterness is transcended and hope in life's worthwhileness is restored in the face of grievous evil The resolution of the Joban question lies not in a vindication of divine justice but rather in God's renewal of Job's appetite for life Janzen underscores this interpretation with a candid epilogue on his own struggle with aggressive prostate cancer which enabled him to connect personally with Job's story and to find a fresh and illuminating grace From publisher description The Twilight Zone of the Huntress Kay Evon Sampson, 2012-09-24 The Twilight Zone of the Huntress is a collection of short stories relaying the author's adventures over the past 19 years beginning when she married her current husband At age 54 Kay Evon Sampson married a big game hunter and soon became one herself At 65 she harvested a Kodiak brown bear and a mountain goat on Kodiak Island and traveled to Namibia to hunt additional animals She was consequently awarded the Safari Club International's Diana Award Sampson says The story of my husband's experience of being mauled by a huge male African lion and our crash landing in a plane out in the bush in Tanzania the following year is included in the book My life with my big game hunter has been a wild ride over the past 19 years with never a dull moment When it comes to hunting she believes It is much more humane to allow an animal to live out its life in a natural setting and then quickly dispatch it rather than pen up a cow in what my husband calls a cow concentration camp for the sole purpose of raising it to kill for meat and leather The Bibelot Thomas Bird
