The World Of The Imagination The World Of The Imagination:

The World of the Imagination Eva T. H. Brann, 1991 In this book Eva Brann sets out no less a task than to assess the meaning of imagination in its multifarious expressions throughout western history The result is one of those rare achievements that will make The World of the Imagination a standard reference

The Soul of Beauty Ronald Schenk, 1992 The problem explored in The Soul of Beauty is the split in modern consciousness between the world of perception and appearance on the one hand and the world of action and meaning on the other We see in one way and find truth in another The work presents this dualism as a problem in the modern sense of beauty The intent of the book is the recovery of beauty as that which brings together such contemporary splits as perception and action appearance and meaning matter and spirit subject and object Beauty is imaged in two paradigms The first presents beauty as a matter of appearance which holds meaning beauty as truth The second holds that beauty is subjective experience which in its modern sense is divorced from knowledge and practical action beauty as relative experience The paradigms are formed through an imaginative and historical exploration of the tradition of beauty in Western consciousness The prototype of the first paradigm beauty as appearance is seen in the goddess Aphrodite who reflects the Greek sense of divinity in form itself This paradigm is then founded upon the tradition of Plato in the Phaedrus and the Symposium Plotinus Dionysius and Ficino The major elements of this paradigm are depicted in beauty as 1 source in a hierarchical universe 2 universal mediator 3 object of love 4 human perception 5 human knowledge 6 light and 7 unity goodness and being The suggestion is made that the paradigm of beauty as appearance is relevant for psychology as a study of soul because it brings together perception and meaning The paradigm of beauty as a subjective experience focuses historically upon beauty as a spiritual conceptual proportion methodological linear perspective and subjective phenomenon In the tradition of proportion and subjectivism knowledge is gained through perception that occurs via an organizing system such as mathematics or a concept such as proportion rather than through the direct perception of appearance Meaning is separated from perception and the organizing system or concept not appearance becomes the ground of knowledge It is suggested that this paradigm reflected in scientific and conceptual psychology is problematic for psychology as a study of soul Instead psychology conducts its endeavors in the service of identification with the divine control over the physical world and certainty of consciousness The final portion of the work examines the recovery of beauty as appearance in contemporary psychology through the notion of image in Jung's later thought and the phenomenon of psychotherapy The work concludes with a presentation of psychology as an aesthetic enterprise bringing together meaning and appearance spirit and matter art and science subject and object

THE WORLD'S GREAT CLASSICS TIMOTHY DWIGHT, D.D. LL.D., 1899

Baudelaire Contra Benjamin Beibei Guan, Wayne Cristaudo, 2019-05-23 This book offers the first sustained argument against the philosophy of Walter Benjamin and his readings of Charles Baudelaire More broadly it is also a critique of politicized aesthetics and cultural Marxism of which Benjamin is a pioneering and emblematic figure Cristaudo and Beibei argue that Baudelaire was not mistaken in refusing to subject aesthetics to morality and politics Baudelaire's refusal was based on the recognition that existential matters such as sickness evil death sexual longing melancholy and beauty itself all themes at the center of his poetry are by nature intrinsically supra political By contrast Benjamin's faith in political redemption while breaking with the enlightenment's faith in progress nevertheless conforms to another core element of faith of the enlightenment via faith in the ability of morals and politics to liberate humanity The authors make the case that Benjamin's understanding of politics is severely deficient because it is not sufficiently versed in an understanding of economics or the nature of class interests and that Marx's own theory of economics is fundamentally deficient and creates an insurmountable problem for those deferring to a future industrial society free from capitalism The Atlantic Monthly, Volume 13, No. 78, April, 1864 Various, 2021-01-18

Richard Rorty and the Problem of Postmodern Experience Tobias Timm, 2019-07-05 Richard Rorty perhaps the most important philosopher of the past century refused to write meaningfully about experience due to his postmodern inclination to associate experience with a belief in objectivity and foundational truths Richard Rorty and the Problem of Postmodern Experience A Reconstruction explores the context reasoning and consequences of this resistance While for much of our history experience was valued for its potential to teach us about the world Rorty and his fellow postmodern thinkers encouraged us to doubt the narrative that we can use experience to make epistemological progress Rather than pursue universal truths about the world Rorty suggested that we recognize all of our beliefs about the world as being social constructions In his project to recover a concept of experience from within the framework Rorty has constructed Tobias Timm describes how classical pragmatist theories of experience are naïve about the problem of foundationalism He also explains how the most common phenomenological work lacks an active subject experience here is simply something that happens to us rather than something we actively seek to improve Timm demonstrates that despite Rorty's insistence that we talk about language instead of experience there are strong experiential elements in his work Rorty's romanticism and his optimism about the accomplishments of western culture are remedial to the pessimism of postmodern discussions about experience Rays from the Rose Cross, 1922 Philosophy of Knowledge and Metaphysics Hector Davidson, This book contains the following 17 titles Aesthetics Analytic Philosophy Epistemology Hedonism Idealism Jean Jacques Rousseau Jean Paul Sartre John Rawls John Stuart Mill Liberalism Metaphysics Nihilism Phenomenology Pragmatism Ren Descartes Structuralism Zeno Get this discounted bundle today Mahin's Magazine, 1902 The World's Crisis Matrona Angelo Burris, 1905 Journal of the American Society for Psychological Research American Society for Psychological Research, 1915 List of members in v 1 6 12 Muslim Worldviews and Everyday Lives El-Sayed el-Aswad, 2012-07-13 el Aswad introduces the concepts of worldviews cosmologies of Muslims explaining that the different types of worldviews are not constructed solely by religious scholars or intellectual elite but are latent in Islamic tradition embedded in popular imagination and triggered through people's everyday interaction in various countries and communities. He draws from a number of sources including in-depth interviews and participant observation as well as government documents and oral history. Through the perspectives of ethno cosmology, emic interpretation of sacred tradition, modernity, folklore, geography, dream, imagination, hybridity and identity transformation, he examines how culturally and religiously constructed images of the world influence the daily actions of people in various Muslim communities. The worldviews of Sunnis, Shi'as and Sufis are covered in turn, and Muslims in the UAE, Egypt, Bahrain and suburban Detroit are the focus. El Aswad also discusses the effects of Western attempts at imposing its essentially secular worldview through the process of globalization and how cyberspace has promoted connectivity among Muslim communities and especially in the United States, opening up unlimited options and new possibilities.

Atheism Revisited Szymon Wróbel, Krzysztof Skonieczny, 2020-01-14 Atheism Revisited is a collection of essays that explore the multifaceted nature of atheism. Starting from the notion that today's atheism is shaped by the defining processes of Modernity such as secularization and the breakup of science, philosophy and theology, the first part of the book undertakes a thorough scrutiny of Modern atheisms from Spinoza and Hobbes to Marx and Nietzsche. The second part of the book seeks to draw practical conclusions from this scrutiny and answer the questions: what is the state of atheism today? What is the role of an atheist in a world affected by religious fundamentalisms? What should the relationship between atheists and religious people look like? The wide scope of the book allows readers to see atheism as a central concern of many intellectual movements from Marxism and French Theory to post secularism and the reevaluation of Modernity and to understand atheism as a focal point of the most important contemporary philosophical debates.

The Foundation Stone Willem Zeylmans van Emmichoven, 2002-09-15 During the Christmas Conference of 1923/24 when the Anthroposophical Society was refounded, Rudolf Steiner presented to its members for the first time the Foundation Stone Meditation. On consecutive days during that week, Steiner showed how elements of the Meditation could be rebuilt into new meditations, sometimes referred to as rhythms, which could be inwardly practiced. Zeylmans van Emmichoven was present at that formative meeting and lived intensively with these rhythms for more than 30 years. Initially in the Netherlands and later during his many journeys around the world, Zeylmans began to make people aware of the germinating forces contained within the Meditation. This volume remains a seminal book that has inspired generations of students of anthroposophy.

The World Book, 1920 Willing the Good Gabriele De Anna, 2013-01-16 Science increasingly deals with human behavior, biology, neuroscience, genetics, psychology, evolutionary theory and ethology; all bring new insights into our actions and uncover new facts about our agency. However, what is the philosophical significance of their findings? The answer to this question varies according to one's background philosophical views. On the one hand, the dominant empiricist view contends that the sciences can in principle tell us everything there is to know about human.

A Human-Shaped God Charles Halton,2021-10-26 A Human Shaped God approaches the humanlike accounts of God in the Old Testament as the starting places for theology and uses them to build a picture of the divine This understanding of God is then brought into conversation with traditional conceptions that depict God as a being who knows everything that happens is at every place at the same time is constant and unchanging and does not ultimately have material form But instead of pitting the Old Testament's humanlike view of God against traditional theology and assuming that only one of these understandings is correct A Human Shaped God posits that theologians should embrace both of these constructions simultaneously This is a new way of theological inquiry that embraces both the humanlike characteristics of God and the transcendence of God in traditional theology By seeing and understanding the humanlike depictions of God in the Old Testament and by using the rich language of traditional theology together in tandem the reader acquires a much deeper and meaningful understanding of God
