Corporate Complicity in Israel's Occupation Asa Winstanley, Frank Barat, 2011-10-07 The Russell Tribunal on Palestine is a people's tribunal in the spirit of the Tribunal on Vietnam that was set up by Bertrand Russell in the 1960s. This book contains a selection of the most vital evidence and testimonies presented at the London session. It includes the papers submitted to the tribunal written by expert witnesses based on their detailed research into the companies that prop up Israeli occupation. Examining the involvement of corporations in the illegal occupation of Palestinian land by Israel, the tribunal of 2010 generated widespread media coverage. The book identifies companies and corporations participating in such illegality and possibilities for legal action against them are discussed. Released to coincide with the South Africa session at the end of 2011, Corporate Complicity in Israel's Occupation is a vital resource to lawyers, journalists and activists hoping to take informed action against Israeli war crimes and occupation.

New Criticism and Pedagogical Directions for Contemporary Black Women Writers LaToya Jefferson-James, 2022-03-03 New Criticism and Pedagogical Directions for Contemporary Black Women Writers is a collection of critical and pedagogical essays that shed new light on the creative depths of Black women writers. On the one hand, some Black women writers have been heavily anthologized; they have more often than not been restricted by critical metanarratives. Some of their works have been lionized while others remain neglected. On the other hand, some Black women writers have been ignored and understudied. This collection corrects the gaps in our critical thinking about Black women writers by introducing them to a new generation of undergraduate and graduate students and by presenting pedagogical essays to our colleagues currently working in the field.

The Impossible Will Take a Little While Paul Rogat Loeb, 2014-04-29 More relevant than ever, this seminal collection of essays encourages us to believe in the power of ordinary citizens to change the world. In today's turbulent world, it's hard not to feel like we're going backwards after decades of striving. Justice and equality still seem like far-off goals. What keeps us going when times get tough? How have the leaders and unsung heroes of world-changing political movements persevered in the face of cynicism, fear and seemingly overwhelming odds? In The Impossible Will Take a Little While, they answer these questions in their own words, creating a conversation among some of the most visionary and eloquent voices of our times. Today more than ever we need their words and their wisdom. In this revised edition, Paul Rogat Loeb has comprehensively updated this classic work on what it's like to go up against Goliath, whether South African apartheid, Mississippi segregation, Middle East dictatorships or the corporations driving global climate change Without sugarcoating the obstacles these stories inspire hope to keep moving forward Think of this book as a conversation among some of the most visionary and eloquent voices of our times or any time Contributors include Maya Angelou Diane Ackerman Marian Wright Edelman Wael Ghonim V clav Havel Paul Hawken Seamus Heaney Jonathan Kozol Tony Kushner Audre Lorde Nelson Mandela Bill McKibben Bill Moyers Pablo Neruda Mary Pipher Arundhati Roy Dan Savage Desmond Tutu Alice Walker Cornel West Terry Tempest Williams and Howard Zinn

The Gift in the Heart of Language Genevieve Vaughan, 2015-05-15 T00:00:00+02:00 Genevieve Vaughan offers a paradigm shifting view of the structure of material and verbal communication based on mother child experience and confirmed by recent research in infant psychology This view justifies a relational epistemology that informs the material gift economy as well as the structure of language itself Provisioning economies give value to the receivers and the circulation of gifts consolidates community Understanding language as verbal gifting unites other orientation with reason to liberate us from biopathic patriarchal conceptions of humanity Sketched against this background Vaughan introduces a conception of monetized exchange as a gift denying and expropriating psychological mechanism which is an unintended collective by product of verbal communication This view stands as a warning against visions of the future in which the institutions of money and the market can be fixed to be more caring and sanitized business as usual can halt the destruction of Mother Earth Rather a gift economy which takes as its model the mother child interaction the gifting in language and the gifting in mother centered societies provides hope for a positive future
