Intermedial Praxis and Practice as Research Joanne Scott, 2016-11-17 Nominated for the TaPRA Early Career Research Prize 2018 In this book Jo Scott shares writing and documentation from her practice as research PaR project which explored and analysed a mode of performance she developed called live intermediality The book offers a much needed example of fully developed writing in relation to a practice as research PaR project Weaving together theory documentation and critical reflection it offers fresh insights into both the process and presentation of PaR work as well as theories around intermediality in performance the role and actions of the live media performer and how live media events are created It can be read alongside Robin Nelson's 2013 text Practice as Research in the Arts as it demonstrates how Nelson's model for PaR can be applied and developed It also includes a set of online videos and commentaries which complement and reflect on the writing in the core text

Developing Theatre in the Global South Nic Leonhardt, Christopher B. Balme, 2024-04-09

Drawing on new research from the ERC project Developing Theatre this collection presents innovative institutional approaches to the theatre historiography of the Global South since 1945 Covering perspectives from Africa Asia the Middle East and Latin America as well as Eastern Europe the chapters explore how US philanthropy international organisations and pan African festivals all contributed to the globalisation and institutionalisation of the performing arts in the Global South During the Cultural Cold War the Global North intervened in and promoted forms of cultural infrastructure that were deemed adaptable to any environment This form of technopolitics impacted the construction of national theatres the introduction of new pedagogical tools and the invention of the workshop as a format The networks of experts responsible for this foreground seminal figures both celebrated Augusto Boal Efrat Sutherland but also lesser known Albert Botbol Severino Montano Metin And who contributed to the worldwide theatrical epistemic community of the postwar years Developing Theatre in the Global South investigates the institutional factors that led to the emergence of professional theatre in the postwar period throughout the decolonising world The book's institutional and transnational approach enables theatre studies to overcome its still strong national and local focus on plays and productions and connect it to current discourses in transnational and global history

Applied Theatre: Ethics Kirsten Sadeghi-Yekta, Monica

Prendergast, 2022-01-27 Applied Theatre Ethics explores what it means for applied theatre practice to be conducted in an ethical way and examines how this affects the work done with communities and participants It considers how practitioners can balance aesthetics and ethics when creating performance particularly with relatively inexperienced and often vulnerable groups of people who are being asked to both tell and stage their stories The two sections bring together theoretical and practical ways for theatre makers to examine the ethics of their applied theatre projects Part One offers an overview of critical debates and the editors reflections on their own practice It introduces readers to ethics in applied theatre informed by the thinking of philosophers scholarly literature and the editors own experience including Indigenous perspectives on ethics and theatre For applied theatre practitioners it provides recommendations for community based ethical approaches working with principles of voice agency care service collaboration presence relationality and reciprocity Part Two presents a range of international case studies that explore how the theories and issues are worked out in a variety of diverse practices It considers ethics from varying critical perspectives and contexts including projects in Greece Nigeria Sri Lanka Bangladesh the United States the United Kingdom the Philippines and Canada Covering work with participants of many ages the case studies include the work of a professional dance theatre company working with people in substance abuse recovery in the UK interactive drama used in an educational context in Nigeria and the complexities around an applied theatre project on race in the US

Sexuality, Gender and Rights Geetanjali Misra,Radhika Chandiramani,2005-11-23 This volume analyzes and documents the groundbreaking work done by many organizations to bring issues of sexuality and rights to public attention to expand the freedoms of women and sexual minorities and to highlight the unfair distinctions faced by those not conforming to gender and sexual norms across a range of expressions behaviours and identities in Asia This volume covers eight countries in South and Southeast Asia The contributors address issues of power and social hierarchies by using the principles of justice equality non discrimination and access to rights and services They cover diverse issues like sexual rights sexuality education sexual health services transsexuals and other sexual minorities HIV AIDS prevention as well as sex work and the representation of sexuality in popular culture The contributors argue that neither gender nor sexuality can be addressed in isolation from human rights and demonstrate how linking sexuality and gender with human rights has an impact on people s lives across intersecting issues and contexts Moving beyond theoretical discussions of sexuality gender and rights this volume looks at what these ideas mean in practice and offers examples of the diversity of effective approaches that can be adopted in varied settings Moreover it illustrates how sexuality ties in with wider issues health personal relationships economic well being equitable access to public services and the freedom to think speak and associate without fear of discrimination
