Women's Lifeworlds Edith Sizoo, 2002-11-01. Women's Lifeworlds explores the diversity and complexity of women's perceptions and reactions to their own lifeworlds in their own words. Examining the changing meaning of place in women's lives over time and across space, this book questions how women face, negotiate, and shape the social space of their environment. Engaging personal narratives are presented by fifteen women of various age groups from different cultural, religious, social, and geographical backgrounds: from Mexican politician, Muslim psychiatrist, Finnish housewife to Indian guru and African rural woman. Writing about the lives of their grandmothers, mothers, themselves, their daughters, or other close female relatives, the authors of these life narratives cross generational and cultural divides and share perceptions with each other. This unique intergenerational approach provides an engaging challenge to the generalised assumptions of how women in various historical and cultural contexts feel about womanhood, life, society, culture, and religion.

This book provides a variety of holistic strategies for cushioning chemotherapy and softening surgery while empowering readers to grow in consciousness. Each of more than 250 topics begins with an inspirational quote from one of the world's wisdom traditions, offers a story to foster self-care and personal transformation, and concludes with a useful tip. With passion, authenticity, and a dash of humor, this book courageously addresses medical topics such as Finding Chemo Hair Pieces, Turbanator, and Recovery Master. The Possibilities Holistic care entries include Nutrient Density, Thriving Soup, Shadow Work, Dark Night Rises, and Field of Dreams. Explore these restorative ingredients to enhance your nutritional choices, stimulate your creative juices, foster your personal powers to transform mentally and emotionally, and deepen your connection with others and the Divine.

Selfish Women Lisa Downing, 2019-05-24. This book proceeds from a single and very simple observation throughout history and up to the present: women have received a clear message that we are not supposed to prioritize ourselves. Indeed, the whole question of self is a problem for women and a problem that issues from a wide range of locations, including in some cases feminism itself. When women espouse discourses of self-interest, self-regard, and selfishness, they become illegible. This is complicated by the commodification of the self in the recent Western mode of economic and political organization known as neoliberalism, which encourages a focus on self-fashioning that may not be identical with self-regard or self-interest. Drawing on figures from French, US, and UK contexts, including Rachilde, Ayn Rand, Margaret Thatcher, and Lionel Shriver, and examining discourses from psychiatry, media, and feminism with the aim of reading against the grain of multiple orthodoxies, this book asks how revisiting the words and works of selfish women of modernity can assist us in understanding our fraught individual and collective identities as women in contemporary culture. And can women with politics that are contrary to the interests of the collective teach us anything about the value of rethinking the role of the individual This book is an essential read for those with interests in cultural theory feminist theory and gender politics
