Remembering Women Differently Lynée Lewis Gaillet, Helen Gaillet Bailey, 2019-05-23 An examination of women's work rhetorical agency and the construction of female reputation Before the full and honest tale of humanity can be told it will be necessary to uncover the hidden roles of women in it and recover their voices from the forces that have diminished their contributions or even at times deliberately eclipsed them The past half century has seen women rise to claim their equal portion of recognition and Remembering Women Differently addresses not only some of those neglected it examines why they were deliberately erased from history The contributors in this collection study the contributions of fourteen nearly forgotten women from around the globe working in fields that range from art to philosophy from teaching to social welfare from science to the military and how and why those individuals became either marginalized or discounted in a mostly patriarchal world These sterling contributors scholars from a variety of disciplines rhetoricians historians compositionists and literary critics employ feminist research methods in examining women's work rhetorical agency and the construction of female reputation By recovering these voices and remembering the women whose contributions have made our civilization better and more whole this work seeks to ensure that women s voices are never silenced again Beyond the Static Page Alex T.
