Women Of The Constitution Wives Of The Signers:

Women of the Constitution Janice E. McKenney, 2013 Women of the Constitution follows in the footsteps of the 1912 work The Wives of the Signers which was devoted to biographical sketches of the spouses of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. This new publication will be the first work devoted exclusively to brief biographies of the forty-three wives of the signers of the U.S. Constitution on September 17, 1787. Each entry includes vital information where known such as birth, parents, marriage, children, and death, as well as a footnoted biography with its own bibliography. Also provided are illustrations of many of the wives and their homes, as well as an appendix describing the now historic residences in which the signers and their spouses resided.

The Men Who Made the Constitution John R. Vile, 2013-10-10 Few events in the history of the United States were of greater consequence than the Constitutional Convention of 1787. Although most histories have focused on the issues and compromises that dominated the debates, the exchanges were also shaped by the dynamic personalities of the fifty-five delegates who attended from twelve of the thirteen states. In The Men Who Made the Constitution, constitutional scholar John R. Vile explores the lives and contributions of all delegates to the 1787 Constitutional Convention, including those who left before the Convention ended and those who stayed until the last day but refused to sign. Each biography records the delegate's birth, education, previous positions or public service roles, homes, family life, life after the Convention, death, and resting place. Drawing directly from Convention debates and a vast array of secondary sources, Vile covers the positions of each delegate at the Convention on both major and minor issues and describes his service on committees and afterward at state ratification conventions. The Men Who Made the Constitution includes a bibliography of key sources, engravings of delegates for whom portraits were created, a quiz on key facts, and a transcript of the Constitution of the United States. This work is the perfect reference for students and scholars, as well as professional and amateur historians of colonial and early American history, constitutional law, and American jurisprudence.

Women Writers in the Romantic Age John Claiborne Isbell, 2025-04-17 This groundbreaking book offers a comprehensive review of six hundred and fifty women writers from over fifty national traditions spanning Europe and the Americas during the transformative years of 1776 to 1848. Framed by revolutionary upheavals, the book explores how women writers shaped and reflected Romanticism's global currents. It fills a critical scholarly gap, connecting disparate traditions and uncovering voices often overlooked in male-dominated literary histories. Through concise entries, the book names every woman writer identified in its vast research, from celebrated figures like Phillis Wheatley to lesser-known authors whose manuscripts lay buried in archives. Each entry provides essential biographical details, while select excerpts in seventeen languages bring these voices to life, revealing how women navigated the era's revolutionary ideals and patriarchal barriers. Structured democratically, the volume treats all writers equally, whether anonymous, pseudonymous, or celebrated in their time. It highlights their diverse experiences: poets and novelists, abolitionists and suffragists, mothers and mill workers. From memoirs to political tracts, their works testify to the rich tapestry of women's contributions to Romanticism By illuminating these stories this book challenges national silos offering a panoramic view of Romanticism as a truly transnational female inclusive phenomenon It represents a go to resource for students and interested readers while setting the ground for future scholars to expand this vital field of study

The Wisest Council in the World John R. Vile, William Pierce, 2015-06-15 Of all the written portraits of the delegates who attended the Federal Convention of 1787 few are as complete and compelling as those penned by William Pierce Jr 1753-89 one of four delegates from Georgia While at the convention or shortly thereafter Pierce produced character sketches of fifty three of the fifty five delegates Although widely quoted and cited the sketches until now have never been analyzed or annotated in detail John R Vile's study offers new insights into the workings of the convention and the character and roles of its delegates as well as Pierce's little known life which included time as an artist Vile reveals for example that the time prior to the establishment of national parties when the framers could have successfully met together in convention may have been a relatively narrow historical window Following overviews of events leading to the 1787 convention and of Pierce and his immediate family several chapters deal specifically with the character sketches They cover Pierce's arrangement of the sketches and their subjects his evaluations of the delegates' personal qualities and reputations his assessments of their rhetorical abilities and his descriptions of their public services occupations and miscellaneous matters Two concluding chapters add further context One examines a set of somewhat overlapping sketches that Louis Guillaume Otto the French minister to the United States penned about members of Congress in 1788 The other looks at writings by Pierce's son and namesake that also include assessments of various Founding Fathers Gathering Pierce's sketches in full with ample annotations and secondary materials this is a valuable reference on Pierce's life work and times

Lineage Book of the Charter Members of the Daughters of the American Revolution Daughters of the American Revolution, 1908 The Vice President's Black Wife Amrita Chakrabarti Myers, 2023-10-05 Award winning historian Amrita Chakrabarti Myers has recovered the riveting troubling and complicated story of Julia Ann Chinn ca 1796-1833 the enslaved mixed race wife of Richard Mentor Johnson owner of Blue Spring Farm veteran of the War of 1812 and US vice president under Martin Van Buren Johnson never freed Chinn but during his frequent absences from his estate he delegated to her the management of his property including Choctaw Academy a boarding school for Indigenous men and boys This meant that Chinn had substantial control over economic social financial and personal affairs within the couple's world including overseeing Blue Spring's enslaved labor force Chinn's relationship with Johnson was unlikely a consensual one since she was never manumitted
