Specialised Translation M. Rogers, 2015-05-26 This book shifts the common perception of specialised or LSP translation as necessarily banal and straightforward towards a more realistic understanding of it as a complex and multilayered phenomenon which belies its standard negative binary definition as non literary

Corpus Use and Translating Allison Beeby, Patricia Rodríguez Inés, Pilar Sánchez-Gijón, 2009-03-11 Professional translators are increasingly dependent on electronic resources and trainee translators need to develop skills that allow them to make the best use of these resources The aim of this book is to show how CULT Corpus Use for Learning to Translate methodologies can be used to prepare learning materials and how novice translators can become autonomous users of corpora Readers interested in translation studies translator training and corpus linguistics will find the book particularly useful Not only does it include practical technical advice for using and learning to use corpora but it also addresses important issues such as the balance between training and education and how CULT methodologies reinforce student autonomy and responsibility Not only is this a good introduction to CULT but it also incorporates the latest developments in this field showing the advantages of using these methodologies in competence based learning

The Oxford Handbook of Computational Linguistics Ruslan Mitkov, 2022-06-02 Ruslan Mitkov's highly successful Oxford Handbook of Computational Linguistics has been substantially revised and expanded in this second edition Alongside updated accounts of the topics covered in the first edition it includes 17 new chapters on subjects such as semantic role labelling text to speech synthesis translation technology opinion mining and sentiment analysis and the application of Natural Language Processing in educational and biomedical contexts among many others The volume is divided into four parts that examine respectively the linguistic fundamentals of computational linguistics the methods and resources used such as statistical modelling machine learning and corpus annotation key language processing tasks including text segmentation anaphora resolution and speech recognition and the major applications of Natural Language Processing from machine translation to author profiling The book will be an essential reference for researchers and students in computational linguistics and Natural Language Processing as well as those working in related industries

Decentering Translation Studies Judy Wakabayashi, Rita Kothari, 2009-11-12 This book foregrounds practices and discourses of translation in several non Western traditions Translation Studies currently reflects the historiography and concerns of Anglo American and European scholars overlooking the full richness of translational activities and diverse discourses The essays in this book which generally have a historical slant help push back the geographical and conceptual boundaries of the discipline They illustrate how distinctive historical social and philosophical contexts have shaped the ways in which translational acts are defined performed viewed encouraged or suppressed in different linguistic communities The volume has a particular focus on the multiple contexts of translation in India but also encompasses translation in Korea Japan and South Africa as well as representations of Sufism in different contexts

Text, Speech and Dialogue Petr Sojka, Aleš Horák, Ivan Kopeček, Karel Pala, 2014-09-01 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 17th International Conference on Text Speech and Dialogue TSD 2013 held in Brno Czech Republic in September 2014 The 70 papers presented together with 3 invited papers were carefully reviewed and selected from 143 submissions They focus on topics such as corpora and language resources speech recognition tagging classification and parsing of text and speech speech and spoken language generation semantic processing of text and speech integrating applications of text and speech processing automatic dialogue systems as well as multimodal techniques and modelling

Translation as Intercultural Communication Mary Snell-Hornby, Zuzana Jettmarová, Klaus Kaindl, 1997-08-21 This selection of 30 contributions 3 workshop reports 27 papers from 14 countries concentrates on intercultural communication in its broadest sense themes vary from dissident translation under the Marcos dictatorship in the Philippines and translation as a process of power in the 3rd world context to drama translation and the role of the cognitive sciences in translation theory Topics of current interest such as media interpreting news translation advertising subtitling and the ethics of translation have a prominent position as does the Workshop Contact as Conflict which discusses the phenomenon of the hybrid text as a result of the translation process The volume closes with the EST Focus debate on thorny issues of Methodology Policy and Training The volume demonstrates clearly the richness and breadth of the topics dealt with in Translation Studies today along with its complex interaction with neighbouring disciplines

Basic Concepts and Models for Interpreter and Translator Training Daniel Gile, 2009 Printbegr nsninger Der kan printes 10 sider ad gangen og max 40 sider pr session

Teaching Translation and Interpreting 3 Cay Dollerup, Vibeke Appel, 1996 Selected papers from the Third Language International Conference on Translator and Interpreter Training Capping the series of conferences on this theme in Denmark the present volume brings together a choice selection of the papers read by scholars and teachers from five continents and within all specialities in Translation Studies In combination with the two previous volumes of the same title the book offers an up to date comprehensive representative overview focusing on main issues in teaching in the relatively new field of translation There are informed and incisive discussions of subtitling interpreting and translation spanning from its historical beginnings to presentations of machine translation and predictions of the future of translation work Contributions ranging from discussions on the interplay between theory and teaching teaching literary translation introducing students to central issues in translation practice and historical and social issues in teaching translation
