Herstories on Screen Kathleen Cummins,2020-05-19

From the late 1970s into the early 1990s a generation of female filmmakers took aim at their home countries popular myths of the frontier. Deeply influenced by second wave feminism and supported by hard won access to governmental and institutional funding and training their trailblazing films challenged traditionally male genres like the Western. Instead of reinforcing the myths of nationhood often portrayed in such films invariably featuring a lone white male hero pitted against the savage and uncivilized native terrain these filmmakers constructed counternarratives centering on women and marginalized communities. In place of rugged cowboys violently removing indigenous peoples to make the frontier safe for their virtuous wives and daughters these filmmakers told the stories of colonial and postcolonial societies from a female and or subaltern point of view. Herstories on Screen is a transnational study of feature narrative films from Australia Canada the United States and New Zealand Aotearoa that deconstruct settler colonial myths. Kathleen Cummins offers in depth readings of ten works by a diverse range of women filmmakers including Jane Campion Julie Dash Merata Mita Tracey Moffatt and Anne Wheeler. She reveals how they skillfully deploy genre tropes and popular storytelling conventions in order to critique master narratives of feminine domesticity and purity and depict women and subaltern people performing acts of agency and resistance. Cummins details the ways in which second wave feminist theory and aesthetics informed these filmmakers efforts to debunk idealized Anglo Saxon femininity and motherhood and lay bare gendered and sexual violence and colonial oppression.

Great Cinema Detectives John Howard Reid,2006-08-03. Providing an overview of the entire thriller genre this book examines over 160 movies from classic Hollywood and British studios including such essential film noir entries as Murder My Sweet The Dark Corner The Maltese Falcon and Afraid To Talk. Great cinema detectives are represented by William Powell all six of his Thin Man pictures are detailed and discussed. Basil Rathbone Sherlock Holmes. Warner Oland Charlie Chan. Sidney Toler Charlie Chan. Peter Ustinov Hercule Poirot. Margaret Rutherford all four of her Miss Marple films are covered and others including the Saint the Falcon Bulldog Drummond and Philo Vance. From director Alfred Hitchcock comes Notorious Saboteur Number 17 and Rich and Strange. A few comedies and spoofs such as Satan Met a Lady an amazing re make of the original Maltese Falcon with Bette Davis and Warren William and Who Done It with Abbott and Costello round out the survey.

Great Canadian Film Directors George Melnyk,2007-06-15. Film directors articulate creative visions that provide insights into national cultures. 18 essays highlight Canada's prominent Anglophone and Francophone filmmakers.

British Women's Cinema Melanie Bell, Melanie Williams,2009-09-15. British Women's Cinema examines the place of female centred films throughout British film history from silent melodrama and 1940s costume dramas right up to the contemporary British chick flick.

The Strad ,1928 The Great Movies III Roger Ebert,2024-05-31

Roger Ebert has been writing film reviews for the Chicago Sun Times for over four decades now and his biweekly essays on great movies have been appearing there since 1996 As Ebert noted in the introduction to the first collection of those pieces They are not the greatest films of all time because all lists of great movies are a foolish attempt to codify works which must stand alone But it s fair to say If you want to take a tour of the landmarks of the first century of cinema start here Enter The Great Movies III Ebert s third collection of essays on the cr me de la cr me of the silver screen each one a model of critical appreciation and a blend of love and analysis that will send readers back to the films with a fresh set of eyes and renewed enthusiasm or maybe even lead to a first time viewing From The Godfather Part II to Groundhog Day from The Last Picture Show to Last Tango in Paris the hundred pieces gathered here display a welcome balance between the familiar and the esoteric spanning Hollywood blockbusters and hidden gems independent works and foreign language films alike Each essay draws on Ebert s vast knowledge of the cinema its fascinating history and its breadth of techniques introducing newcomers to some of the most exceptional movies ever made while revealing new insights to connoisseurs as well Named the most powerful pundit in America by Forbes magazine and a winner of the Pulitzer Prize Roger Ebert is inarguably the most prominent and influential authority on the cinema today The Great Movies III is sure to please his many fans and further enhance his reputation as America s most respected and trusted film critic
