a notebook with you at all times to writing a first draft do it quickly you can always revise later to figuring out a plot plot always serves the story not vice versa Koch is a benevolent mentor glad to dispense sound advice when you need it most The Modern Library Writer s Workshop belongs on every writer s shelf to be picked up and pored over for those moments when the muse needs a little help finding her way

The Black Female Body in American Literature and Art Caroline Brown,2013-02-28 This book examines how African American writers and visual artists interweave icon and inscription in order to re present the black female body traditionally rendered alien and inarticulate within Western discursive and visual systems Brown considers how the writings of Toni Morrison Gayl Jones Paule Marshall Edwidge Danticat Jamaica Kincaid Andrea Lee Gloria Naylor and Martha Southgate are bound to such contemporary postmodern visual artists as Lorna Simpson Carrie Mae Weems Kara Walker Betye Saar and Faith Ringgold While the artists and authors rely on radically different media photos collage video and assembled objects as opposed to words and rhythm both sets of intellectual activists insist on the primacy of the black aesthetic Both assert artistic agency and cultural continuity in the face of the oppression social transformation and cultural multiplicity of the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries This book examines how African American performative practices mediate the tension between the ostensibly de racialized body politic and the hyper racialized black female body reimagining the cultural and political ground that guides various articulations of American national belonging Brown shows how and why black women writers and artists matter as agents of change how and why the form and content of their works must be recognized and reconsidered in the increasingly frenzied arena of cultural production and political debate

Authors on Writing B. Tomlinson,2005-03-01 Drawing on some 3 000 published interviews with contemporary authors Authors on Writing Metaphors and Intellectual Labor reveals new ways of conceiving of writing as intellectual labor Authors metaphorical stories about composing highlight not interior worlds but socially situated cultures of composing and apparatuses of authorship Through an original method of interpreting metaphorical stories Tomlinson argues that writing is both an individual activity and a collective practice a solitary activity that depends upon rich sustained and complex social networks institutions and beliefs This new book draws upon interviews with writers including Seamus Heaney Roald Dahl Samuel Beckett Bret Easton Ellis John Fowles Allen Ginsburg Alice Walker and Gore Vidal

The Feminist Bestseller Imelda Whelehan,2017-03-16 Imelda Whelehan provides an overview of popular women's writing from the late 1960s to the present looking at how key feminist texts such as The Women's Room, Kinfolk and Fear of Flying have influenced popular contemporary fiction such as Bridget Jones's Diary and Sex and the City. Whelehan reconsiders the links between the politics of feminist thought, action and writing and creative writing over the past 30 years and suggests that even so-called post-feminist writing owes an enormous debt to feminism's second wave.
